A LITTLE DUTCH GARDEN.

I passed by a garden, a little Dutch garden,
Where useful and pretty things grew,
Heart's ease and tomatoes, and
pinks and potatoes,
And lilies and onions and rue.

I saw in that garden, that little Dutch garden,
A chubby Dutch man with a spade,
And a rosy Dutch frau with a shoe
like a scow,
And a flaxen-haired little Dutch id.

There grew in that garden, that little Dutch garden,
Blue flag flowers lovely and tall,
And early blush roses, and little
pink posies,
But Gretchen was fairer than all.
My heart's in that garden, that little Dutch garden,
It tumbled right in as I passed,
Mid wilder mazes of spinich and
daisies,
And Gretchen is holding it fast.

DAVIS-SNYDER.

A beautiful home wedding was celebrated last evening at the pretty suburban residence of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Davis, northeast of Greensfork. The bride was Miss Agnes Snyder of Greensfork and the groom Mr. Lester C. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Davis.

The house had been artistically decorated throughout with flowers and ferns. In the parlor where the ceremony was performed a bower had been formed of greenery, amilax and myrtle being used in profusion. The ceremony was performed under a huge wedding bell. The bride wore a pretty satin gown handsomely trimmed with lace. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Nellie Davis of Greensfork attended the bride. The groom was attended by Mr. Russell Fudge. Miss Marie Hoover played the wedding march and as the ritual was being said she played "Love Confiding." Rev. Zerbe of Williamsburg performed the ceremony. There were a large number of wedding guests including the friends and relatives of the young people. After congratulations had been extended the guests were invited to the dining room where a dinner in several courses was served. The decorations in this apartment were in white and red the bride's table being also attractively decorated with flowers and ferns.

Seated at the bride's table were the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rolter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gamber, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Larence, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Davis of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Davis, Mr. Eli Cates, Rev. Zerbe, Mr.

Marvel For Any Superfluous Hair

Wonderful Action of Electro-la. The New Hair-Remover, Will Surprise You. Nearly every man or woman who has been troubled with superfluous or undesirable hairs has had experience with various preparations which merely burn off the surface hair, reddening the skin, and fail to kill the hair roots. Electro-la is the remarkable new hair-remover which does more than merely kill the surface hair. It goes to the hair roots, destroys them absolutely and forever. Besides this, Electro-la, instead of burning or reddening the skin as other hair-removers do, leaves the skin fresh and soft, so nobody can ever tell you have been using anything. Whether the superfluous hair is of light or heavy growth, Electro-la will destroy it immediately and permanently. Even light fuzz makes a woman look coarse. Heavy growth is humiliating, and is cupid's worst enemy. Make your face, arms, hands, shoulders, neck and bust look clean and exquisite by using Electro-la. The regular price is $1.00 a bottle. Your money refunded if you are not satisfied. Just send coupon below, with name and address, together with 2c stamp to pay for postage, for a free trial package of Electro-la to prove what it will do.

FREE PACKAGE COUPON.

MARRIED IN SALEM.

The following from the Salem, Indiana, Republican Leader is of interest as Mr. Karns is a resident of Richmond:

The marriage of Miss Chloe V. Loudon and Mr. Louis K. Karns took place Thursday morning at the Loudon home on east Mulberry at 9 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. T. Hoskins. The marriage was a quiet one only the immediate family of the bride and several relatives of the groom witnessed the interesting ceremony. The bride was attired in her going away gown, a brown coat suit with accessories to correspond. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Karns left for Pana, Ill., where they will visit with relatives before leaving for their future home in Grinnell, Iowa, where Mr. Karns will have charge of the department of manual training in the city high schools.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Loudon and one of Salem's most charming young ladies. She has been quite a social favorite as a member of The Mystics and for the past three years has belonged to our successful corps of grade school teachers.

Mr. Karns is quite a successful teacher of manual training having had charge of that department in the Salem schools last year.

The out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. O. K. Karns, mother of the groom, and daughters, Misses Mary and Agnes, of Richmond, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Karns, of Pana, Ill.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The following items from the Indianapolis Sun of last evening are of local interest here. The marriage of Miss Annette Ostrander and Charles English Sherer took place Thursday noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ostrander, Middle drive, Woodruff Place. The ceremony was pronounced by Dr. G. L. Mackintosh, president of Wabash college and was witnessed by a group of thirty relatives and friends of the bride couple. The drawing room was used for the ceremony, where a bower of palms and bouquets of white asters formed the background. As the ceremony was pronounced the harpist played a program of favorite bridal airs. The various rooms throughout were prettily adorned with greenery and great clusters of white asters. The bride wore a gown of white satin with a corsage bouquet of valley lilies and rose buds. The bride couple left immediately after the ceremony for Memphis, Tenn., where they will be at home to their friends after Oct. 1. The going away suit of the bride was a navy blue serge with which she wore a chic black hat. The guests from a distance who came for the wedding were the bride's brother, John K. Ostrander, of Boston, Mass., and Miss St. John, of Albany, N. Y.

gia Cloud at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ratcliff, on North Twelfth street. The evening was spent very sociably in playing Five Hundred, after which Miss Cloud served delightful refreshments. Miss McNamee left this morning for Oxford, Ohio, where she will teach German, Latin and Gymnastics in the high school there. Other guests at the party were Misses Ruby McNamee, Mary Smith, Anna Murray, Clara Hardesty, Pauline Cooper, of Shirley and Ruth Barnard.—New Castle Times

KAPP AT CONVENTION.

Much interest is centering in the Kappa Alpha Phi convention which will begin today in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Several of the local frat members in addition to the delegates will attend.

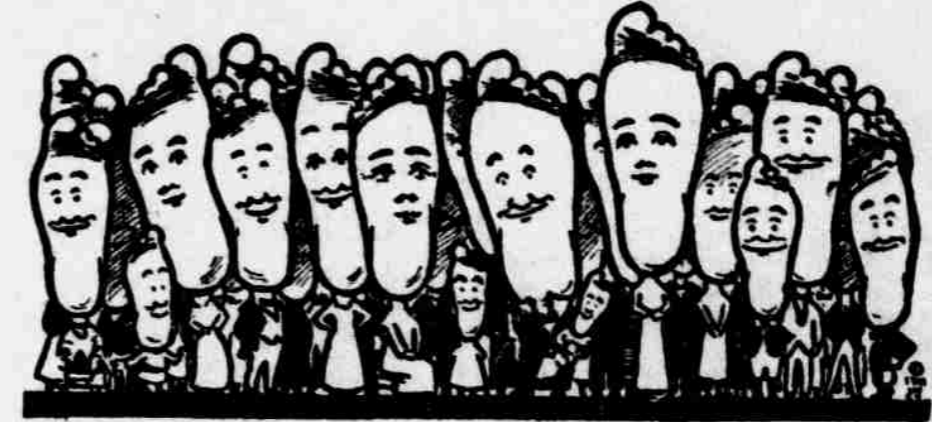

Origin of Pen Mar.

Some fellow down Lancaster way has come out with an explanation as to how Pen Mar got its name. "It is of Cornish extraction," says the Lancaster man, and he quotes an ancient rhyme to prove it. The fact is that Pen Mar is so called because it is on the Mason-Dixon line, with Pennsylvania on one side and Maryland on the other, the first three letters of each state name being used to form the word.—Philadelphia North American.

Nervous Debility

Perhaps no modern remedy has sprung into favor so quickly, and retains its prestige so securely, as Wade's Golden Nervine, the great remedy for Nervous Debility, Insomnia, Weak or Palpitating Heart, or any weakened condition of the Nervous System, brought on by Worry, Excess, or Overwork. This great Nervine is now handled by druggists everywhere, and costs $1. So many thousands of men and women the country over have used this remedy with success that it appears strange that anyone should continue to drag out a miserable nerve-wrecked existence when it is possible to feel again the joy and satisfaction of full and complete nerve strength and vitality.

Nervous Debility has been called the curse of America. Hysteria, Neurasthenia, Insomnia, Extreme Weakness, Trembling, Forebodings of Fear, Indecision, Dull Mentality, etc., are some of the symptoms of Nervous Debility, or Nerve Exhaustion. Wade's Golden Nervine acts so promptly and positively in all such cases that if it is desired to test it before buying of the druggist, a trial package and full particulars will be mailed to all who write, enclosing six cents postage to GEM MEDICINE CO., Dept. A., St. Louis, Mo.

If you have a Weak Heart you will find Wade's Golden Nervine just the remedy you need, as it acts as a gentle and permanent stimulant to that organ.

If you are all run down, weak and despondent, lacking in vigor and vitality, you will be surprised and delighted with the wonderful restorative and vitalizing action of this great tonic.

If you feel that you need a good restorative tonic you will not be disappointed in Wade's Golden Nervine, as there is absolutely nothing like it to promote strength, vigor and vitality. Contains no alcohol or narcotics, and its effects are permanent. It is also the finest tonic in the world for restoring the shattered nerves in cases of excessive use of alcohol or other excesses.

Wade's Golden Nervine is always kept in stock by the following druggists. Ask them about it, and try it now—today. Sold by Quigley Drug Stores.
