

PATRIOTS WAITING FOR CALL TO ARMS

Kansas City Italians, Also Greeks, Ready if Father-lands Need Them.

(National News Association)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 4.—Little Italy will send its share of fighting men to the Fatherland if they are needed. So will the little Greek settlement on West Fifth street if the frontier of Greece is attacked. Although neither of the two governments has sent a call, confidential advices have been received by the Italian consulate that the Italian steamship lines which ply between New York and Naples, Palermo and Genoa, will give free passage to all able bodied men of Italian parentage who will enlist in the army on their arrival in Italy. A. Basile, 617 Independence avenue, an Italian banker who is the representative of the Italian consul in St. Louis confirmed this report yesterday afternoon.

Passage Free for Patriots.

"Many of our countrymen will go," he said, "even if they have to pay their own way. It is an old grudge against the Turk, and many of us who are so far away from the old country retain memories we would like to pay off. I understand that free passage from New York will be given to men of Italian birth if they will enlist in the army when they arrive in Italy. The laboring class especially will take advantage of this offer. For the last two or three days my office has been filled with patriotic men who want to go and, in some way, fight for their country. To make this possible, I give them a letter to the Italian consul in New York. If they are healthy and strong he will obtain passage from the Italian steamship lines. No, my country hasn't sent out a call for men, but all patriots who wish to go will be restrained by lack of funds, although they will have to pay the railroad fare to New York.

The two other Italian steamship agents in Kansas City whose offices have been besieged by willing recruits are Joseph Deo, 210 East Fifth street, and Frank Basile, a brother of the banker, 607 East Fifth street. They said yesterday that a number of their countrymen had taken passage second class, and would probably sail during the coming week.

Greeks Are Ready.

All Little Italy is astir with the daily news of the war. The members of the colony eagerly read the daily newspapers for the latest news from the front. There are many who cannot read English, but they are not deprived of tidings for this reason. The children, who have been sent to the public schools, translate the daily accounts to their parents.

Over in the Greek settlement there is a different air. It is one of expectancy of waiting. On street corners yesterday were gathered little groups of excited men. They all talked of the impending onslaught upon the Grecian frontier. The office of George Yliokaris, representative of the Greek consul at St. Louis, who is also a steamship agent, is the hub about which the growing excitement revolves. He gives them the latest news of what the Greek government is doing, and is quoted by one of his countrymen as having said: "There are five thousand Greeks in Kansas City and one-fifth of them are ready to fight for their country if the call comes. But we must wait until the Turk moves."

FOOTBALL SEASON OPENED SATURDAY

Earlham Team Will Meet
Moore's Hill Squad on Reid Field Then.

Earlham will open her football season next Saturday afternoon when she meets Moore's Hill on Reid Field. From the dope it is expected that the visitors will put up a hard fight.

While the Quakers are somewhat handicapped by the fact that it is the opening game of the season, yet the two weeks of hard practice has put them in a good fighting condition.

Doubt was expressed at first in regard to the prospects of the back field. All the clouds have faded away however and the backs have developed beyond all expectations. Reagan the speedy quarter, is the only old man back of the line. He will be in his old position.

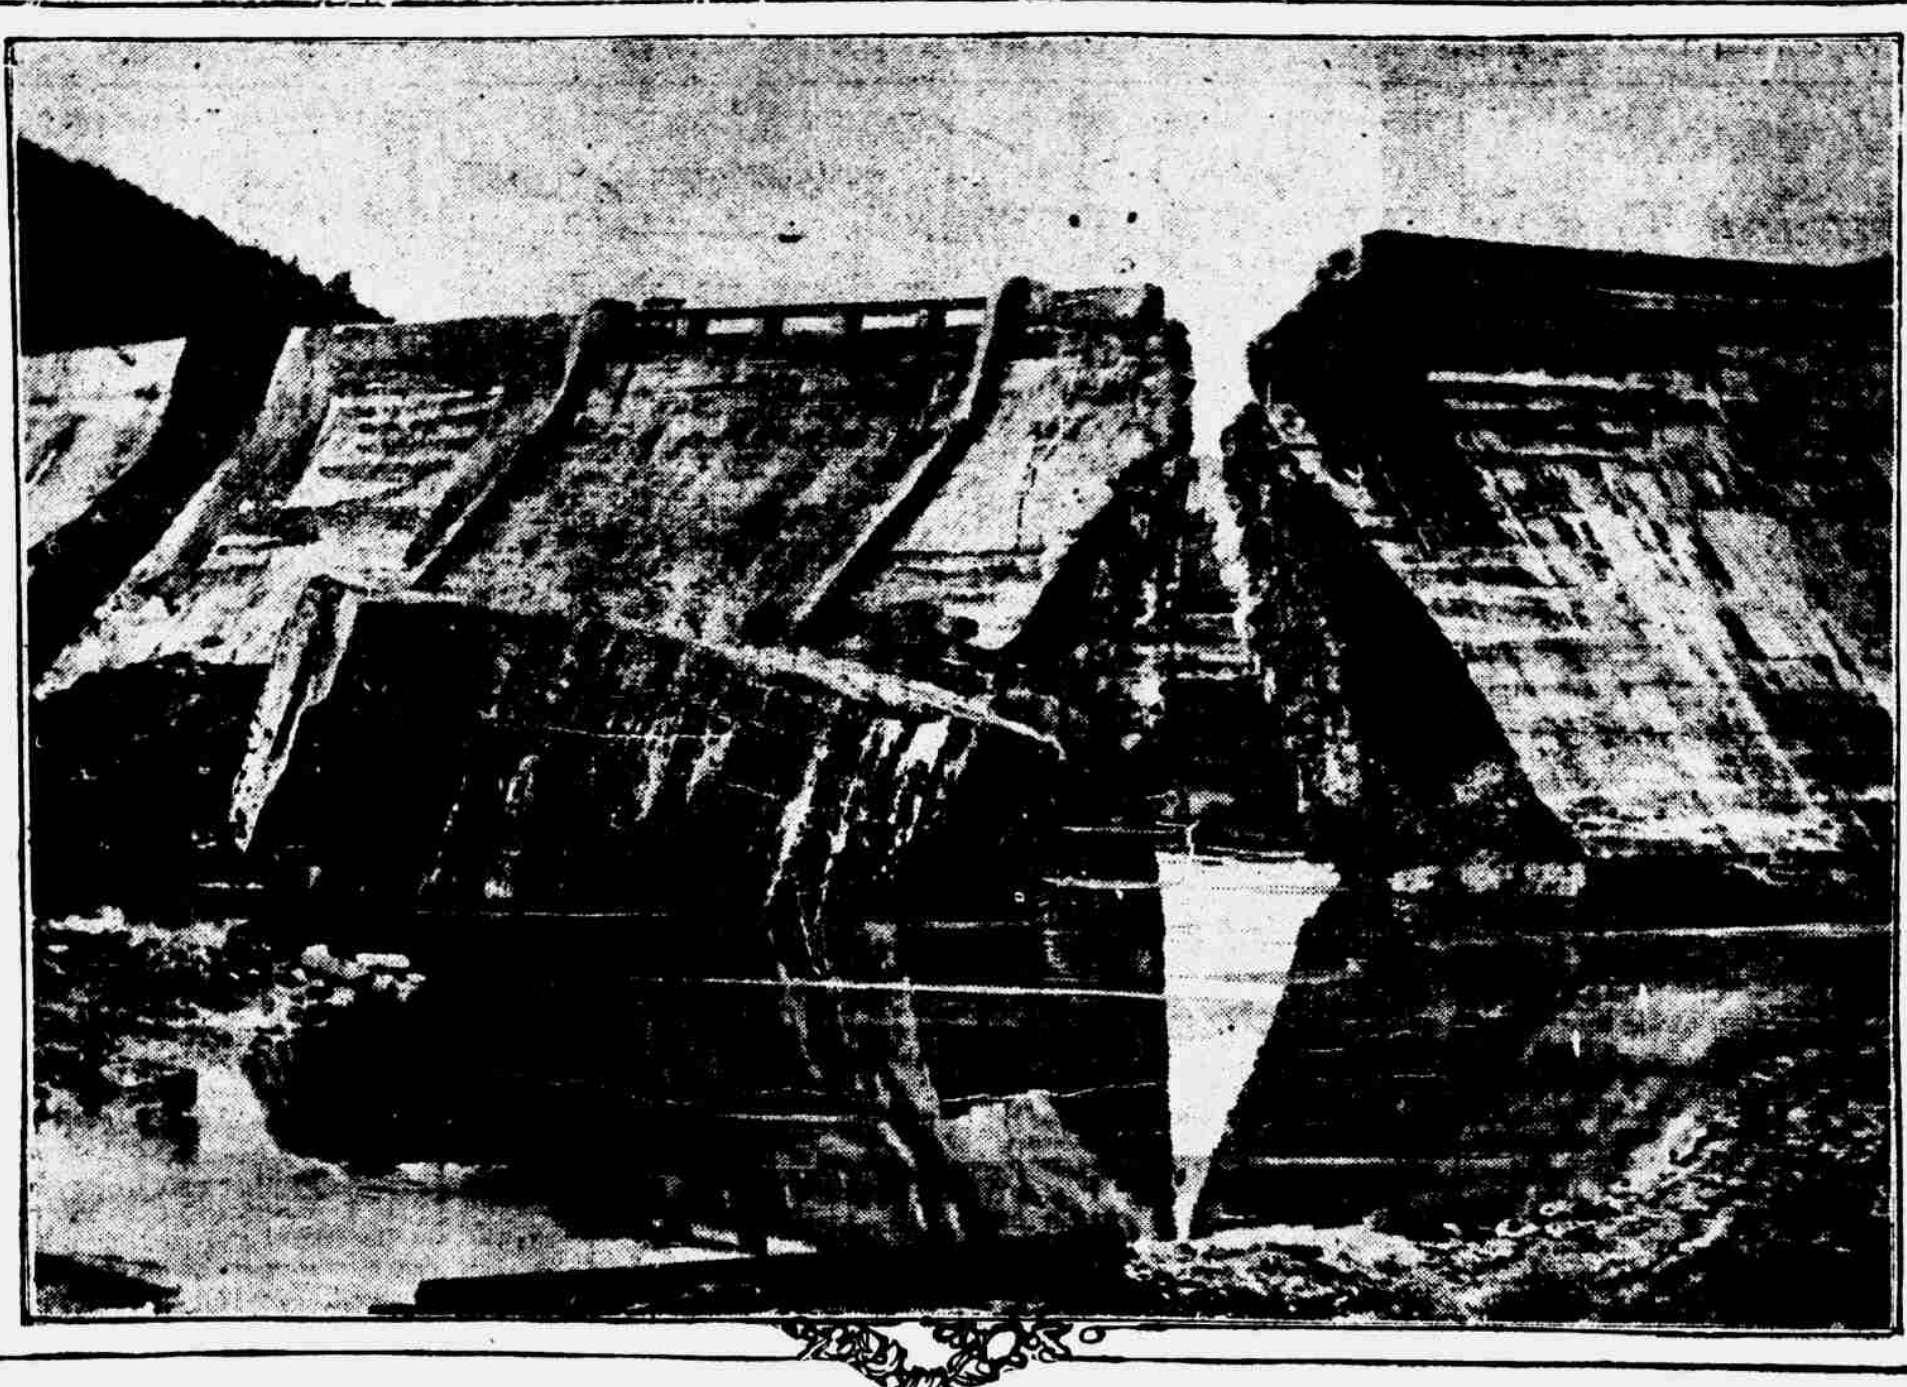

Coach Thistlethwaite has made some changes in the line. All the men are husky and scrappy and are expected to hold their own against the heaviest plungers. Capt. Hughbanks, L. Jones, C. Stanley, Kelsey, Lancaster Murray and Furnas are the veterans trying out for the line positions. Last Saturday Moores Hill held Franklin to a score of 6-0. They are putting up a fast game and will no doubt show the Quakers a hot time.

AT HIGH SCHOOL.

At a special athletic rally this morning, the boys of the high school formally voted to abolish football from the athletic calendar of the local school. The meeting was called by Principal Neff to decide what the wishes of the boys were in regard to athletics. The lads did not express much enthusiasm over the American college game, and were glad to accept the substitute of English rugby football for the American game.

Ray J. Horton, coach of the football team here, has been trying for several weeks to get together a crowd of boys who would take an interest in athletics, but most of the time he could hardly get a dozen youths to practice.

Break in Dam at Austin, Pa., Causing Hundreds of Deaths

Boyd Brown, a student who recently came here from California, described the English game to the pupils, and it seemed to meet their approval. Secretary Weed, of the Y. M. C. A., told of the value of organized athletics in high schools. Principal Neff, Coach Horton, and football director Torrence, also spoke on the athletic situation. It is expected that tennis, cross country running, and other less strenuous games will supplant football here soon.

Col. Hugh Reed, of the U. S. Army, who was graduated from the high school in 1870, gave a talk on the value of military training in the high schools of the country, at the regular chapel exercises this morning. That a man is a better citizen as a result of this training is clearly shown, according to the colonel, by the leading position Germany holds in the world.

TAFT IN WYOMING A QUESTION ARISES

(National News Association)

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 4.—President Taft aboard his special train rolled into Cheyenne today on his way to the coast. This is Wyoming day on the President's itinerary. The program called for stops here and at Laramie and Rawlins.

The President was weary after his exhausting day in Denver yesterday but rose refreshed today. He was greeted at the station here by a Republican committee.

CONGRESSMAN'S REGRETS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 4.—When President Taft addresses the big meeting in the auditorium here planned for Oct. 24, seats on the platform reserved for congressmen C. A. Lindberg, A. J. Lindberg, A. J. Volstead and S. A. Anderson will be vacant. Invitations sent to the congressmen by the Young Men's Republican club have been declined. No reasons were given. No response has yet been received from Senator Clapp.

There seems to be a conflict of opinion in regard to the question as to whether farmers are permitted to bring meats to this city for sale without having it inspected. Wilfred Jessup, acting as city attorney in council Monday evening declared that in a test case the city ordinance requiring inspection of meats was declared unconstitutional, but the ordinance still stands on the ordinance book.

Another ordinance was enacted, after the former had been declared void, in which farmers are given the right to sell meat in this city without inspection if the animal was healthy before being slaughtered. The question as to how a farmer can ascertain if the animal was healthy without having it inspected is being asked by city officials. Some believe that farmers are still required to have the meat inspected before selling it.

The test case referred to by Mr. Jessup, was heard while he was prosecuting attorney, the case being heard before the late ex-Judge Converse, the judge deciding that the ordinance was unconstitutional. Jessup appealed the case and the same decision was handed down by the higher court.

DEFINITE DETAILS WANTED BY PROBERS

Senate Committee, Investigating Sen. Stephenson's Election Unsatisfied.

(National News Association)

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 4.—Definite information as to the way in which county campaigns are conducted in Wisconsin was the object sought by the senate committee investigating bribery charges in connection with the election of Isaac C. Stephenson, when it resumed its hearing today. Through a maze of questions yesterday asked various managers of the Stephenson campaign only a hazy idea of the expenditures of various sums aggregating more than $100,000 could be gathered. Today the committee determined to get definite details.

Senator Heyburn, angered when R. A. Edmonds of Appleton, Stephenson's campaign manager, asserting he "couldn't remember" referred him to Rodney Sackett, of Berlin, as the man who actually handled the money, and when Sackett testified that Edmonds alone knew the use to which the money was put, determined to bring out the real facts.

"I intend to find out today who does know about these things," Senator Heyburn said, "and then to get the true story about this money."

Other men named as agents of Stephenson in handling campaign funds were summoned to appear today.

AN EXAMINATION OF DEAD BOY'S STOMACH

The stomach of Ernest Weber who died Monday afternoon from the effects, it is believed, of alcoholic poisoning, has been sent to Indianapolis where it will be examined in an effort to ascertain the exact cause of death and Coroner Pierce is not in a position at the present time to make public his verdict in the case.

The three men, Frank Burns, William Casey and Charles Codrington, arrested on the charge of giving Weber, Lancel Hale and Elzie Ribke whiskey, the effects of which is thought to be the cause of Young Weber's death, were taken from the city jail to the county jail today and it is likely that they will be forced to face charges of involuntary manslaughter.

GET CURED

Weakness and Disease were formerly looked upon as very unfortunate conditions, because patients did not know where to go for relief, or because medical science had discovered no positive cure for them, but in this age of medical advancement there are few diseases but that will yield to science and skilled treatment such as we use. Since the age of SPECIALISM people readily know where to go for relief. If they remain uncured, it is their own fault, and others have but little sympathy for them. In fact, there is an unpleasant aura about those diseased which causes people to shun them. There is an attraction about robust health that draws those of your circle of acquaintances to you. There is a joy about health that must be experienced in order to be appreciated. The satisfaction of being able to look every man and woman in the eye, knowing that your affliction is gone, is worth more than can be valued in dollars to one who has been afflicted. To get cured is not only a duty that you owe yourself, but one you owe your family, your country, your neighbor and your God. We have made a special study of the Nervous System, and have perfected methods that will cure PELVIC DISEASES.

THE DOCTOR WHO SEES AND TREATS EACH CASE SEPARATELY—NO ASSISTANTS

We will give you a searching and thorough examination, thus determining the exact location and nature of the disease.
