The first number of the lecture course was given Thursday evening, in the Hurst opera house. While not as largely attended as have been some of the previous years, the reader, Miss Nanah Rense, was above the average, possessing a good voice, and especially appealing to her hearers in her rendition of Van Dyke's "The Fourth Wise Man," and "The Race Scene." The musical part of the program by Miss Gagnelle Hageman, of this city, was a pleasing feature.

The improvements on the Presbyterian church are nearing completion. The building, with its exterior of stucco, presents a most attractive appearance, and is a credit not only to the membership, but to the town as well.

Mrs. Joe Wallick, and Mrs. Ezra Thompson have returned after having attended the state meeting of Pythian Sisters, at Indianapolis.

There will be services at the Baptist church, Sunday morning and evening, by the Rev. D. W. Sanders.

EATON, OHIO

EATON, O., Oct. 7.—Slipping in with an additional offer of about $75, besides several cups and a number of other specialties, the commercial club of West Alexandria has secured for that village the coming meeting of the Preble County Poultry and Pot Stock Association. The matter was decided Thursday evening at a meeting of the executive committee of the association.

President Raymond Hornbeck, John A. Rosellus, Henry Meier and John Winkelman, of the West Alexandria club, were in attendance and submitted the proposition. Probably feeling safe in equalling the West Alexandria club in furnishing free a hall, heated and lighted, local city officials rested at that point, giving no further thought to the idea that they might be outdone. Members of the commercial club have been equally inactive in an endeavor to have the show remain in Eaton.

Frank J. Straw, John Harris and Edgar Frank were among the many Eatonians who attended the Hamilton fair Thursday.

The county board of examiners will hold an examination in Eaton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wysong spent Wednesday and Thursday in Hamilton with Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Napier.

The occasion was arranged for an all-day affair and the club ladies all went with well filled baskets and an elegant dinner was spread. The club ladies present were Mesdames M. S. Barton, Lucy Rogers, J. A. Brown, E. W. Doty, William Harris, Chas. Ferris, Alice Green, & J.

JEWS OBSERVE FEAST OF TABERNACLES

(National News Association)

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—In all the Jewish temples and synagogues of the metropolis special services were held today in celebration of the feast of the tabernacles. This festival day is called in Hebrew "Succoth" and falls upon the 15th of Tishri in the Hebrew calendar, and lasts eight days. The eighth day is called "the day of solemn assembly."

The festival commemorates the harvest season of the ancient Israelites who, in obedience to the divine command, left his house for the week of the festival, and took up his abode in a booth or tabernacle, and lived through as it were, an important epoch of his people's history, has thereby replenished the springs of Jewish sentiment. He was also thereby taught to remember that just as Israel in the wilderness was protected by God, so he is being guarded in his earthly pilgrimage.

The art of manufacturing nails by machinery was first practiced in 1790.

News Forecast For Coming Week

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—President Taft will spend the first three days of the week in the state of Washington, speaking in Tacoma, Everett, Seattle, and other leading cities of that Commonwealth. Wednesday night will find him at Portland, Ore., where he will speak at a banquet of the commercial club and remain in the city until the following morning, when he will go to Salem. From the Oregon capital he will travel southward into California, arriving at San Francisco Friday and taking part the next day in the ceremonies of breaking ground for the Panama exposition.

The governors of a number of states have designated Monday, the anniversary of the great Chicago fire, for the first observance of "Fire Prevention Day," when the people are requested to clean up their premises and take other steps to reduce the danger from fire, with a view to lessening the appalling waste of property and resources.

The supreme court of the United States will meet Monday to begin the fall term. The docket hasn't anything nearly as important as the Standard Oil and Tobacco dissolution suits, but there are a number of important matters that will come before the court for settlement. Cases involving the intricate questions of interstate traffic are among the most important on the list.

Early in the week there will be a large gathering of notables in Atlanta for the dedication of a monument erected in that city to commemorate the "peace mission" of the famous Gate City Guards, who toured the northern states shortly after the close of the war to promote fraternal feeling between the North and the South.

The Senate committee appointed to investigate the election of Senator Lorimer of Illinois is to resume its sessions Monday in Chicago.

The International Dairy Show, which is expected to be the greatest exposition of dairy cattle and dairy products and machinery ever held in the world, will open in Milwaukee Tuesday and continue for ten days.

Wednesday is the day set for the beginning of the trial in Los Angeles of McNamara brothers, officials of the structural iron workers' union, who are accused of murder in connection with the destruction of the Los Angeles Times building a year ago.

A special election Tuesday the voters of California will decide the fate of several proposed amendments to the state constitution. Most interesting centers in the proposed granting of suffrage to women. Another of the amendments provides for the initiative, referendum and recall.

Hugh K. Robinson, the aviator, is scheduled to start from Minneapolis Wednesday on an aeroplanes flight down the course of the Mississippi river to New Orleans, a distance of 1917 miles.

The end of the week will see the gathering in Baltimore of eminent prelates and laymen of the Roman Catholic church in America to take part in the celebration of Cardinal Gibbons' jubilee. The celebration will begin with religious services Sunday and continue through the greater part of the week.

Important among conventions of the week will be the annual meetings of the Grain Dealers' National association in Omaha, the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterways association in Chicago, the National Association of Railway commissioners in Washington, the Southern Commercial Secretaries' association in Memphis, the National Association of Life Underwriters in Chicago, the American Prison association in Omaha, and the National Guard association of the United States in Buffalo.

9016.—A PLEASING GOWN

Ladies' One or Two-piece Costume, with Tucker having Full Length or Shorter Sleeves.

Dotted foulard in blue and white, with blue satin for a finish, lends itself very nicely to this design. The yoke collar may be topped by a yoke of lace or embroidery. The skirt has the popular front and back panel. The Pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches bust measure. It requires 1½ yards of 27 inch material for the Tucker and 1½ yards of 44 inch material for the Costume for the 36 inch size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.
