

PLAN TO DISSOLVE STANDARD OIL CO.

Decide on Exchange of Stock of Subsidiary and Parent Companies.

(National News Association)
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Directors of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey today announced the details of their scheme of segregation under the mandate of the supreme court of the United States, calling for the dissolution of the trust. They also announced a quarterly dividend of $7 per share on stock of the Standard Oil of New Jersey and $20 a share on the Standard Oil of New York. The stock of subsidiary companies will be distributed in exchange for the parent company's shares on December 1. The scheme of distributing was announced as follows:

"The figures given in connection with each of them being a fractional part of a thousandths of a share of that specific stock which will be exchanged for each share of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey including Indiana pipe line, 9,994 and Standard Oil company of Indiana, 9,990 thousandths.

The Murders Of Life.

Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomach and bowels are not strong enough for salts, purgative waters or cathartic pills, powders or tablets. Give them a mild, pleasant, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the small sum of 50 cents or $1 at drug stores. It is the one great remedy for you to have in the house to give children when they need it.

CHICAGO POOR TOTS WERE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Guy S. McCabe, Formerly of Richmond Arranges Treat for Children.

(National News Association)
Mrs. Guy McCabe, a former resident of this city, where she was prominent in social and musical circles, but who now lives in a suburb of Chicago, was the originator of the plan to give the poor children of the slums of the latter city an opportunity to see "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," now having a successful run in that city, all the Chicago papers having given the affair much space and much publicity to Mrs. McCabe.

"The gigantic party for the unfortunate children of the city was born in the mind of Mrs. Guy S. McCabe, of Evanston," says the Record-Herald. "She held a conference with Will J. Davis, of the Illinois theater, and the result was that an invitation was extended the children to attend the performance."

All the leaders in social and philanthropic life interested themselves in making this affair a success and over twelve hundred children from the poorest element of Chicago enjoyed the performance. It was Mrs. McCabe's idea to have each child given a pop-corn ball and over twelve hundred were distributed.

The hard worked members of the "Rebecca" company cheerfully donated their services to this charity and the whole affair has met with the unstinted commendation of not only the Chicago press but throughout the country.

FURTHER THREATS AGAINST TURKEY

Italian Government Demands Tripoli on Threat to Attack Asia Minor.

(National News Association)
LONDON, Nov. 15.—Italy has presented a final ultimatum to Turkey, threatening to cease the Turkish Islands of Lemnos and Mitylene in the archipelago of Asia Minor, unless the Ottoman government, within fourteen days, recognizes Italy's proclamation of the annexation of Tripoli. The mystery of the whereabouts of the Italian fleet in the Aegean Sea was solved today by dispatches which stated that nine battleships and a flotilla of torpedo boats had been sighted off Crete. The battleships are under Admiral Aubrey.

MILAN, Italy, Nov. 15.—A dispatch from Rome today intimates that President Taft has instructed the United States ambassador at Rome and Constantinople to sound the Italian and Turkish governments in regard to their attitude toward a proffer from the United States to mediate in the Tripolitan campaign.

OPEN THE HEART.

Abstract beliefs and opinions may have very little to do with the words and actions of the common days, but what the heart believes—the warm, loving human heart—colors the whole life. The mind may accept the teaching that all men are brothers and yet go its cold, selfish way, but when the heart believes it humanity finds its part in business, justice grows kind and generosity just.

HAWLEY CONDEMNS TAFT FOR ACTION

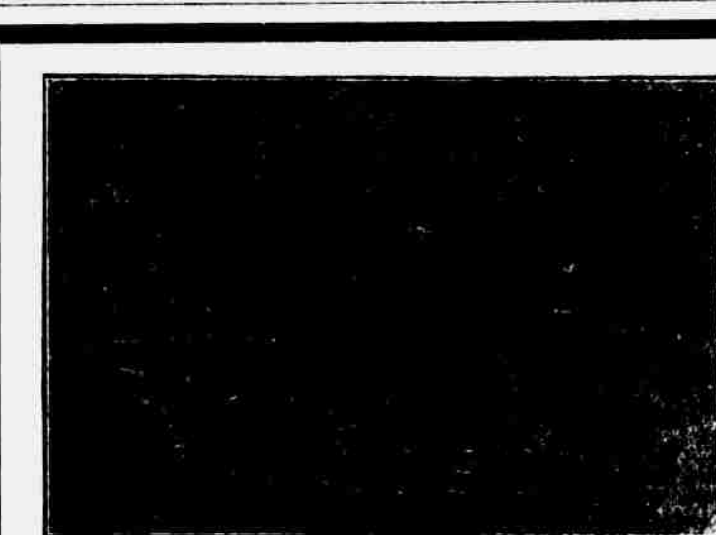

Governor of Idaho Incensed Over President's Pardon to Robnett.

(National News Association)
BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 15.—In a stinging signed statement published today, Governor Hawley condemns President Taft's action in granting pardon to Clarence Robnett, former book keeper of the Lewiston National bank of Lewiston, Idaho. Robnett recently was convicted of embezzlement of bank funds and sentenced to ten years imprisonment by the federal court. But never entered on service of the sentence. Robnett's confession was instrumental in the conviction of other higher officials of the bank. The governor denounces the pardon as bringing justice into disrepute and weakening the courts in estimation of the people. The practice of setting aside regular prosecution officers and putting cases in the hands of the special assistants to attorney general is characterized by the governor as injustice and disgraceful methods. The statement charges the department of justice with "deliberately purchasing testimony of self confessed thieves and bank wreckers on promise of immunity with the full expectation of getting immediate pardon by the president."

Milton and His Wife.

Milton when blind married a shrewish wife. A friend, desirous of complimenting the poet on his choice, termed his spouse a rose. "I can't judge of colors," said Milton, "and it may be as you say, for I feel the thorns daily."

HESITATED TO GIVE SON UP TO POLICE

Unwilling to give her son up to the police, Mrs. Hampton, 218 North Second street, informed Patrolman Lawler this afternoon, when he went to her home to place Dan Hampton under arrest, that he was not in the house. The patrolman informed the woman that he would return later and that he just wanted to talk to her son. "Well if that is all you want you can talk to him right now," she said and called her son who was hiding behind a door. Young Hampton was taken to police headquarters where he was slated for assault, it being alleged by Mrs. Lora Green, a neighbor, that he rubbed snow on her face Monday evening and that he attempted to kiss her. He will be given a hearing in police court tomorrow morning.

ALLEGED UNDUE INFLUENCE WAS USED

Objections to probate of a will have been filed in the Wayne circuit court by Florence E. Charles, Will and Louise Spaulding versus Julia E. Spaulding and Lizzie S. Baird. It is alleged by the complainants that Francis Spaulding died October 5, at Toledo, leaving real estate in Wayne county valued at $7,000 and that the plaintiffs were to have received one-twelfth, each, of the estate, but by a pretended will and testament made on July 11, the deceased left one-third of the estate to Julia Spaulding and two-thirds to Lizzie Baird.

The objections state that at the time the will was made Spaulding was of unsound mind, was unduly influenced to execute the will and that the will was unduly executed.

DIAMOND SPECIALS

Perhaps you do not know that many of the diamonds bought as perfect stones are in reality more or less imperfect. The flaws or carbon spots may not be visible to the naked eye, but they are there just the same and show under a good glass. It may be the seller in order to make a sale has been tempted to stretch the truth a little and represent as perfect a stone which ought to be classed as slightly imperfect, or else the "whole truth" has not been told the purchaser.

When we sell a diamond, we tell you just exactly what it is—if there is even the least flaw, we tell you about it. Eighteen years' experience in handling precious stones has given us the ability to correctly judge and classify diamonds and in all that time we have never misrepresented a stone; we have preferred to lose the sale rather than do so, and just one more thing you should bear in mind—size for size, and quality for quality,

Our Prices Are Lowest

Note the Following Specials:

Nice, Snappy 1/4 Carats	$20.00 Each
Blue White 1/4 Carats	$30.00 Each
Blue White 3/8 Carats	$50.00 Each
