The Scrap Book

A Perilous Poss.

Mr. and Mrs. Aschenbrenner were touring Europe and had just arrived at Pisa. Mrs. Aschenbrenner was all excited upon reaching the leaning tower of Pisa and eagerly patterned over the spiral stairway, leaving her husband languidly awaiting her return.

As she weighed a shade over the 200 mark, her husband always dug up an excuse when it came to accompanying her on any altitudes above easy falling distance.

He was just pondering on the beautiful flow of unintelligible language used by their guide when from the topmost rampart came the "hee-hee-hee" trill of his wife, who was leaning far out and waving a scarf.

Mr. Aschenbrenner obligingly looked up and then came to life with an anguished roar. "Gretchen, for your life get back! You're bending the building!"—Harper's Magazine.
