

E. M. F. CAR TOOK TIEDEMAN TROPHY

Mercer Car Won the Savannah Trophy in Big Auto Events, Monday.

(National Association)
SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 27.—Just sixty minutes after the first long rays of the sun had lit up the seventeen miles of asphalt oiled gravel that constitutes the Savannah road course, a covey of small cars got away in the double-barreled contest for the Tiedeman trophy and the Savannah challenge trophy which serve as the track warmers for today's Vanderbilt cup race and for the grand prize of Thursday.

Frank Witt, in an E. M. F. car No. 35, won the Tiedeman trophy. His time for the 170 miles was 176:19. E. M. F. cars also finished second and third. The winner averaged over 58 miles an hour, exceeding last year's times. Hughes, in a Mercer, No. 22, won the Savannah trophy, going the 221 miles in 195:37. Average over 68 miles an hour or five miles an hour better than Dawson made in a Marmon last year. Marmon cars finished second and third.

Vanderbilt Cup Race.
The cash that goes along with the Vanderbilt cup, also to be held today, is, according to official figures, only $2,000, but special prizes for fastest lap, most consistent performance, etc., bring the total for the fortunate drivers well up toward ten times that amount.

The distance of the Vanderbilt this time is 289 miles, or seventeen laps of the course. This is longer than any previous holding of the race, excepting that in 1906, when the cars went 287 miles.

It is not believed likely that the grand prizes, to be held Thursday, will develop greater speed than the Vanderbilt, despite the fact that several more powerful cars are entered in the culminating event of Thursday. This opinion is based on the contention that a faster average should be made over the shorter course. The grand prize is more than half again as long as the Vanderbilt, its distance being approximately 480 miles, or 24 laps of the course. Bruce-Brown holds the grand prize record at 70.55 miles an hour.

The winner of the grand prize will be awarded the gold challenge cup of the Automobile Club of America, valued at $5,000, in addition to a cash prize of $4,000.

TO BECOME EDITOR

Of the Electric Railway Journal.

The following announcement, concerning E. M. Haas, son of Postmaster E. M. Haas of this city, appears in the Electric Railway Journal. Mr. E. M. Haas, superintendent of bridges and buildings of the Illinois Traction System, has become connected with the editorial department of The Electric Railway Journal and will have headquarters at the Chicago office in the Old Colony Building. Mr. Haas has recently been engaged in the construction of the Harris-Joliet extension of the Illinois Valley Railway. He is a graduate of Purdue. Previous to his college course and during vacations Mr. Haas served on the engineering corps of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad and the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad. After graduation he was resident engineer for the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railway on the construction of a 6,000-car capacity freight classification yard at Dalton, Ill. Mr. Haas was appointed assistant engineer maintenance of way of the Illinois Traction System in 1906, and has since been engaged in maintenance and construction work. In 1907 his title with the Illinois Traction System was changed to superintendent of bridges and buildings.

Learning by Experience.
Salesman (showing umbrellas)—Here's one with an exceptionally attractive handle. Customer—Not for me. All my umbrellas have been entirely too attractive.—London Telegraph.

Is Famous as a Horsewomen

Snapshot of Miss Eleanor Sears watching the judging of the horses at the annual Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, N. Y. Miss Sears is one of the favorites of the "400" and her name has been linked with that of Harold Vanderbilt, who was quite attentive to her during the Newport social season. Miss Sears' box at the show is always the center of attraction by members of her set.

HORSE WAS KILLED

But Driver, William Archey, Not Injured.

Hurled fifty feet but not even receiving a scratch, while his horse was killed outright and the buggy completely demolished, was the accident which befell William Archey, a negro, living near New Paris, Sunday night. While driving alone from the National road near the fair grounds his horse became frightened at the approaching 9 o'clock interurban and jumped squarely on the tracks, dragging the buggy with him. The motorman did not have time to stop the car.

When the car was stopped and the train crew and passengers had gotten out to view the wreckage, Archey was seen picking himself up some fifty feet away, then he came over to berate the car crew and ascertain just what property he had left. After finding the completely demolished vehicle and the dead horse lying to one side of the track, he thanked fate he had gotten off with an unscratched skin. The horse apparently was worth $200, the buggy $50 or $75.

HACKMAN, KLEFOTH & CO.

PETTY DISHONESTIES

And Misconduct Subject for Kennedy.

That no true Christian would ever defraud a conductor on a street car, was one of the statements made Sunday evening by the Rev. H. D. Kennedy, while addressing a large audience at the revival service in the First M. E. church. Rev. Kennedy's subject for the occasion was, "The handwriting on the wall," by which he told how King Belshazzar was judged, and explained that ministers at the present time, just as Daniel, must not be invited to the revelry, for, again like Daniel, they will be needed if the feasting is abruptly ended by some calamity, and will be then required to have full control of their minds.

His feeling toward the person who gets off a street car without having paid his fare was expressed while talking on how to judge one's self by the eighth commandment. He said that any one who allowed the conductor to pass him was guilty of theft. The evangelist objected to several other petty dishonesties, and bemoaned their existence.

Rev. Kennedy also spoke of the evil of allowing school children to study on Sunday, for this act is clearly a violation of the commandment requiring the Sabbath to be kept holy. Incidentally he warned against noisy gatherings of children on this day, and other unnecessary forms of disobedience to the sacred law.

The evangelist made his strongest argument in speaking of those who break the seventh commandment. "An affinity is a damnable passion," said the Rev. Kennedy. The men of today, in his opinion, pay but small heed to this commandment.

Preceding the meeting Sunday evening, Mrs. Kennedy, wife of the evangelist, addressed a crowd of sixty girls in the afternoon. The meetings are growing steadily, and the final week, just starting, promises to be a most successful one.

City Statistics

Deaths and Funerals.

NOBBE—The funeral of J. Henry Nobbe, who died Saturday noon, will be held at the home, 153 Richmond Ave., 2:00 p. m., Tuesday, under the charge of Rev. Hoffer. Burial will be in Earlham cemetery. Friends may call at the home any time. Mr. Nobbe was a member of the Druids' Lodge, and of the local printers' union.

VALENTINE—The funeral of Mrs. Harriet M. Valentine, who died in Graysville, Tenn., Saturday, will be from the home of her son, 1714 North E street, 2:00 p. m., tomorrow, with Rev. Cates officiating. Interment will follow in Earlham Cemetery. Friends may call at the home any time.

Births.

To Mr. and Mrs. Everett W. Adams, 312½ South Fifth street, second child, a daughter, Mildred Frances Adams.

To Mr. and Mrs. Harry Percival Stephens, 205 South Ninth street, second child, a son, James Keith Stephens.

Marriage Licenses.

Carr Simmons, Richmond, 19, core-maker and Ethel M. Hilling, Richmond, 18, housework.

Fred Kersey, Richmond, 33, blacksmith, and Mrs. Minnie Powers, Richmond, 34, housework.

Adolph Floyd, Richmond, 22, gardener, and Fanny Folkner, Richmond, 17, seamstress.

Not Crazy.

"You were just crazy to marry me, weren't you, dear?"
"No; just foolish."—Houston Post.

CARRY SAFE AWAY

Robbers Dynamite It. Secure $4,000 and Escape.

(National News Association)
NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Two cracksmen forced their way into the post-office at Palsade, N. J., just across the river from Manhattan, early today, picked up the safe, carried it 300 feet away and then dynamited it and took its contents, $4,000 in stamps and cash. The first to reach the scene after the explosion was Ferdinand Stabel, the assistant postmaster, whose home adjoins the postoffice. In the dimlight he saw two men running along the roadway traversed by the street cars from Fort Lee Ferry. Stabel did not know whether the figures were those of robbers or Thanksgiving week celebrators, so he fired two shots into the air and the yeggmen only ran the faster and easily escaped.

MEN AND RELIGION MOVEMENT PLANNED

The temporary committee of ten local laymen to have charge of the permanent organization of the "men and religion forward movement" in this community, met in the Y. M. C. A. Sunday to report on the progress so far. Nearly half of the permanent executive committee of 100 have been chosen, and the workers are enthusiastic over the prospects of starting the campaign soon. The decision of the committee was to reserve any announcement of their work until half past two next Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A., when they will meet with all interested to appoint officially the big committee, and make plans for carrying on the work here.

NAMED TRUSTEE

Philip Robbins was named trustee to take charge of the bankrupt business of Douglas McLearn, proprietor of the People's Store, at a meeting of the stockholders on Monday morning. The appointment was made by Harry C. Sheridan, referee in bankruptcy, the trustee qualifying by filing a $5,000 bond. The stock will be sold at private sale on Tuesday, sealed proposals being the method of bidding. Several outside parties have announced their intention to bid. Mr. McLearn's assets are said to be about $8,000, and the liabilities about $6,000.

C. WILSON DEAD

(Palladium Special.)
CENTERVILLE, Ind., Nov. 27. — Clark Wilson, of the firm of Horner & Wilson, blacksmiths, died shortly after noon today after a week's illness with pneumonia. He is survived by the wife and two daughters. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Mr. Wilson was 41 years of age and lived his entire life in this town. He was well known throughout the county.

ARE ENROUTE EAST

Nine Western Governors on Missionary Tour.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 27.—Governors of nine western states start from here tonight in a missionary tour through the east. Not one will carry a six-shooter, but all will have a message of the glories of the west and its golden opportunities.

In a special train carrying five carloads of exhibits of typical western products they will spend three weeks in covering some 4,000 miles of territory touching Chicago, New York, Boston, Washington and St. Louis and the larger cities along the route.

The end in view is the development of the west, the means, the development of the east to a quicker realization of opportunities on the side of the Mississippi.

Governors West of Oregon, Hawley of Idaho, Vessey of South Dakota, Eberhardt of Minnesota, Hay of Washington, Burke of North Dakota, Shafroth of Colorado and Norris of Montana, met here today. Gov. Carey of Wyoming is expected to meet the party in Chicago.

MAY FILL JURY BY END OF THE WEEK

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 27.—By the end of the present week in the trial of James B. McNamara, charged with having caused the explosion that destroyed the Los Angeles Times plant and killed twenty-one men, it is expected the work of jury selection will be well on its way toward completion. Three men are yet to be qualified before the fourth use of peremptory challenges. Should two or even one juror be placed in the box at that time, it is believed that the peremptories will again be in order before Saturday, and even with the Thanksgiving recess it is predicted by many attorneys the box would practically be filled.

When the jury finally is chosen, the next deviation from the ordinary course of criminal procedure would be in order. The state would then make the motion, and it is expected it will be filed and granted, for the addition of two substitute jurors.

RUNNING CONSTABLE

SEES OFFICER SHOT

Robbers Surprise Captors, Shooting One Who Runs and Killing Other.

CHILLICOTHE, Tex., Nov. 27.—Constable Charles Holloway was killed and Constable J. A. Doyle seriously wounded in a battle with two men wanted in connection with the recent robbery of the state bank of Odell. The shooting occurred at the little town of Doans. After the suspects apparently had surrendered, Holloway and his companion with weapons drawn, advanced on the men, but just before they started to search the prisoners, one of the latter stepped behind his companion and started firing. Holloway was wounded in the leg and arm by successive shots, and his companion was shot in the thigh.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Doyle managed to reach his buggy just as the horse, frightened by the shots, began to run. From his place in the buggy he saw one of the two men place his weapon against Holloway's chest and fire. Holloway was dead when picked up by rescuers.

Cut Rate

We will run a cut-rate on Dry Cleaning and Dyeing to introduce our Superior work to the people.

WE WILL CLEAN AND PRESS

Our Prices	Others Charge
Gents' Suits, for	$1.00
Coats	.60
Pants	.40
Overcoats	1.00
Ladies' Jacket Suits	1.25
Skirts, any kind	.75
Ladies' Long Coats	1.00
Ladies' Fancy Dresses	1.25
Ladies' Plain Dresses	1.00
Waists	.50
Special prices quoted on dye work.

We will call for and deliver work in any part of the city. Work left Tuesday can be finished by Thanksgiving.

The Cut Rate Dry Cleaning Co.

Former Employees of the Richmond Dry Cleaning Co.

Phone 2767.

Over Conkey's Drug Store, 901 Main St.

NUSBAUM'S

Half Price Suit Sale

Opened this morning with a rush. The response to this suit sale was greater than ever before.

WHY? We say what we will do, and do what we say
NEW, THIS SEASON'S SUITS---NO CAST-OFFS
For Tuesday and Wednesday—At Half Price
ABOUT 200 SUITS FROM WHICH TO CHOOSE LEE B. NUSBAUM CO.