

T. P. A. Notes

BY W. H. Q.

The annual election of Post C, held in the club rooms last Saturday night, was the occasion for a large gathering of members of the organization, as in the past, the election was entered into with much spirit by the members, the several candidates being enthusiastically supported by their friends. The results of the count showed the white ticket to be the winner by a large majority, the entire white ticket being elected. The officers chosen at last Saturday's election are as follows: President, T. C. Harrington; Vice President, D. L. Mather; Secretary-Treasurer, M. A. Hasty; Directors, E. E. Lebo, A. Gordon and Wm. Kramer. Delegates to the national convention at Peoria, Ill., to be held in June, are G. A. Mendenhall, O. G. Mitchell, A. Dwigins and M. A. Hasty. The alternates to the national convention are Ed Thatcher, A. Gordon, Wm. Kramer and Chas. Beck. The new officers will take their offices at the post meeting in April. The retiring officers at that time will be Frank Higley, as Vice President; Fred Haisley, Harry Wooters and Ben Hill, as directors.

At the smoker last Saturday night a movement was started to arrange for a large delegation to the State T. P. A. convention to be held in Muncie, May 3 and 4. The delegation will have a special car attached to the fast train leaving Richmond Friday, May 3 at noon, returning Saturday at 7:15 p. m. The Muncie T. P. A.'s are making elaborate preparations to entertain the visitors and anyone going is assured of a pleasant visit. It is the desire of post C to send a delegation with at least fifty members.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon have gone to Wapakoneta, Ohio, to spend Easter Sunday with relatives.

The T. P. A. Magazine is at hand and is a very interesting issue. Every member of Post C should receive this monthly magazine. Any member not receiving this publication should fill out the subscription blank and mail to the national secretary. The magazine costs nothing additional to the members. Subscription blanks can be obtained from Secretary Hasty.

Last year Willie Morris, who is given to talking in his sleep, aroused the suspicions of his wife by the continued tales of the great times he anticipated at the state convention. Mrs. M., after listening to the nightly tales concluded that the best thing to do would be to accompany little Willie to the convention. This year, Mrs. M. is not to hear in William's sleep the many things he has planned to do in Muncie. Willie has taken to sleeping in the attic on a narrow cot and says he will keep up this practice until the convention date.

Many members have received cards from Wm. Quigg and Jno. Heggar, who are at West Baden. From reports received the only thing Quigg can consume is the Pluto water. They expect to return some time next week.

There will be a special meeting of the post next Saturday evening to make arrangements for the Muncie convention. A large attendance is desired at this meeting as the committee in charge would like to have everything definitely arranged as soon as possible. Any member going to Muncie should be at this meeting.

THIS WOMAN'S TROUBLES GONE

Terrible Cramps, Dizzy Spells, Nervousness, Misery—Her Story of How She Got Well Again.

Hindsboro, Ill.—“Your remedies have relieved me of all my troubles. I would have such bearing down misery and cramps and such weak, nervous, dizzy spells that I would have to go to bed. Some days I could hardly stay up long enough to get a meal.”

“The doctor's medicine did me no good so I changed to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got good results from the first bottle. I kept on taking it and used the Sanative Wash with it, until I was well again. I think every woman who suffers as I have, could take no better medicine.”—Mrs. CHARLES MATTHEW, Box 58, Hindsboro, Ill.

Testimony of Trained Nurse.

Cathlamet, Wash.—“I am a nurse and when I do much lifting I have a female weakness, but I take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot say enough in praise of it. I always recommend it for female troubles.”—Mrs. ELVA BARBER EDWARDS, Box 54, Cathlamet, Wash.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as those above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test of years.

No Cascaret User Ever Has Headache

A 10 cent box will keep your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure and fresh for months.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver, delayed fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that call, throbbing, sickening headache.

Salts, cathartic pills, oil and purgative waters force a passageway for a day or two—but they don't take the poisons out and have no effect upon the liver or stomach.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gasses, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means inside cleanliness and a clear head for months. Ask any of the millions of Cascaret users if they ever have headache.

THEATRICAL CALENDAR.

Gennett Theater.
April 9—“She Knows Better Now.”

At the Murray.
Vaudeville afternoon and night.

At the Palace.
Talking pictures.

May Irwin.

Tuesday night May Irwin will appear at the Gennett in a farce that will reveal her talents as a fun-maker of refined and artistic powers. Her new play is described as a farcical satire, and entitled “She Knows Better Now.” The new play is regarded as a vehicle more substantial than anything she has in past seasons displayed her unique talents. Miss Irwin's personality is so striking and her methods so distinctive, that most of her vehicles have been of films dramatic material, her own art being potent enough to entertain her large American following. Now with a play of dramatic worth and some literary excellence, May Irwin's loyal public are offered a double measure of entertainment, for her personality is just as striking, and her methods as artistic and entertaining as they ever were. Although her public career has been devoted to the task of making people laugh, her reputation rests largely on the firm basis of art.

Her managers have provided Miss Irwin with a production that is in good taste, and a company of able players. The cast includes, besides Miss Irwin, Arthur Byron, Thomas Fallon, Lionel Glenister, E. E. Hahenwart, Hugh Jeffreys, Mary K. Taylor, Kathryn Kays and Muriel Hope.

Murray.

Tonight sees the close of what has been one of the most popular shows at the Murray for some time. The Salambo, the wonderful wonder workers are headliners. They perform many things definitely arranged as soon as possible. Any member going to Muncie should be at this meeting.

There will be a special meeting of the post next Saturday evening to make arrangements for the Muncie convention. A large attendance is desired at this meeting as the committee in charge would like to have everything definitely arranged as soon as possible. Any member going to Muncie should be at this meeting.

THE EARTH'S CHANGES.

What the Fossil Remains of Plants and Animals Tell Us.

There was a time when even the polar regions bloomed with many of the splendid and varied forms of life that now adorn the tropics.

The fossil remains of these ancient forms preserved in the bosom of the rocks carry us back perhaps millions of years in the earth's history and show clearly what wonderful revolutions the surface of the globe has undergone since the first plants and the first animals appeared upon it.

Who would think of meeting a rhinoceros nowadays on the prairies of northwestern Canada unless perhaps a traveling menagerie should pass that way? Yet at one time, as discoveries of recent years prove, a creature closely resembling the rhinoceros of India and Africa dwelt in that now comparatively cold, snowy and barren region.

Remains of these extinct ancestors of an animal that in our day thrives only in the tangled tropical forests and under the hot equatorial sun have been found buried in the Canadian rocks, where now the cold blasts of winter blow over treeless plains and sweep the flanks of ice incrust mountains.

The rhinoceros of that remote age was no less formidable a beast than its descendants, for the skull of one of the skeletons discovered is three feet long, while some of its teeth are four inches across.

The fossil remains of many other forms of animals have been found in the same region within recent years. Harper's Weekly.

There Is A Difference

BETWEEN PROMISES AND ACTUAL RESULTS

Promises won't overcome hair trouble. The manufacturers of Newbro's Herpicide promise nothing which is not justified by an intelligent use of this preparation. The desired end is ultimately becomes an accomplished fact. This is the reason that Herpicide has thousands of satisfied friends all over the world.

By keeping the scalp clean and healthy and destroying the dandruff germ, Newbro's Herpicide makes beautiful hair. Herpicide prevents the hair from falling and allows it to grow unhindered and naturally except in cases of chronic baldness which is incurable.

One dollar size bottles are guaranteed by all druggists to do these things. Send 10c in postage for sample and book to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R, Detroit, Mich.

Charms of Labrador.

People are not apt to think of Labrador as a particularly delightful land to dwell in. No tourist thinks of going there for a summer vacation. Yet if Mr. H. H. Frichard's impressions, gathered while hunting big game, are to be accepted, Labrador possesses charms of scenery that it would be difficult to match elsewhere in the world.

The words that he quotes from Salta-tha, a “Yellowknife Indian,” best indicate the nature of these scenes: “You say the kingdom of heaven is good, my father, but tell me, is it better than the land of the musk ox in summer, when the lakes are sometimes misty and sometimes blue, and the loons cry often? That is good, my father, and if heaven is better I shall be willing to dwell there until I am very, very old.”—Youth's Companion.

One Man Overcomes a Nation. Jean Angot, who died in 1551, was a French merchant in the African and East Indian trade. When some of his ships had been taken by the Portuguese he fitted out an armed fleet that kept Lisbon blockaded until the government of Portugal indemnified him for his losses. At one time he was immensely wealthy, but he lost in speculations and in money lent to the king of France, and the closing years of his life were passed in destitution.

The Truthful Milkman. Mr. Young—We never get any cream on the milk. Why is it? Mrs. Young—It's all right, dear. I've spoken to the milkman about it, and he explained that they fill the bottles so full with milk there's no room left for any cream on top.—London Telegraph.

The falling off in the value of exports from the Dresden district to the United States has caused surprise. The decrease was nearly a million dollars in the year 1910, and a million and a half dollars in the year following.

The necessity of circumstances proves friends and detects enemies.—Epictetus.

Tonsiline Cures Smokers' Sore Throat

Habitual smokers are often troubled with inflammation of the throat. This is called smokers' sore throat, and frequently becomes so painful that food is swallowed with difficulty. If nothing is done to prevent it, the disease may develop into cancer of the throat. Hundreds of men have had to resort to surgical operations because of it—many have died as a result of it.

If you have smokers' sore throat, don't despair of it. It may be gone tomorrow but it will surely return again and in a more severe form. It is Nature's danger signal. TONSILINE will positively cure you and keep the throat clean and healthy, preventing the consequences of neglect. TONSILINE is the result of years of careful study and practical work, and is made from drugs used for years in the cure of throat diseases. TONSILINE destroys the poison germs of all kinds of sore throat and cleanses away painful and poisonous ulceration. It soothes and heals the tender mouth and throat membranes and removes the cause of throat trouble.

A quick, safe, soothing, healing antiseptic cure for Sore Throat, briefly describes TONSILINE. We know from long experience it will do all we claim for it. 25 cents and 50 cents. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES.

Curious Hare Hunt That Occurred at the Battle of Wagram.

At a certain stage of the battle of Wagram, which took place in 1809, the proceedings developed into a great hare hunt. There were 400,000 hunters, half French and half Austrians.

The plain was, it is related, covered with hares, which the long advance of the two armies had driven into a narrow space. Frightened by the guns of the French, they ran for their lives and continued to run until they reached the Austrian lines. There they were none the less terrified and came rushing back upon the French.

The soldiers were greatly interested by the frantic movements of the hares and could hardly be restrained from making after them.

There occurred a charge by the Austrian cavalry, which, of course, took no account of the hares. The horses plunged in among them, and they rushed in dismay among the ranks of the French soldiers, who, confused by so strange an attack, began bayoneting the hares. Other soldiers not immediately pressed by the onset of the enemy caught up the trembling animals in their hands.

There was that day a great slaughter of men and hares, and many a shot destined for the enemy struck one of these poor animals, who doubtless believed that the great armies had come there expressly to hunt them instead of to hunt each other.—Harper's.

Bells and Bees.

It is a foolish notion to suppose that the ringing of bells or “tanging” of pans will cause a swarm of bees to settle. The real origin of this custom dated back to the reign of Alfred the Great, who, in order to prevent disputes regarding the ownership of a swarm, ordered that the owner should always ring a bell when his bees swarmed, and ever since then the good farmer's wife has been rushing out with ringing bells whenever the bees swarmed, and the fact that they settled verified, in her own mind, the belief that the bell did it.—London Standard.

A Rural Financier.

Boggs had managed to ditch his car and, after hailing a passing farmer, tried to arrange a dicker for help.

“Why ya-as, Brother,” said the farmer, bringing his team to a standstill, “let help ye out. Let's see what it'll come to—one day's use of the team, $5.”

“One day?” retorted Boggs. “Tisn't going to take you a day to haul that machine out, is it?”

“Why, no,” returned the farmer, “but arter I git the $5 I don't callate to do no more work ontill tomorrow.”—Harper's.

MEAT FOR MUSIC.

The Way Haydn's “Ox” Minuet Came to Get That Title.

There is no sensible reason for the titles attached to many pieces of music, some of them even classical selections. Most generally they are placed there as an attempt of some publisher to “boom” his stock and sell his goods. Then again, some peculiar titles may have their origin in incidents about as important as the following:

Haydn one day received a visit from a butcher who said that himself and his daughters were admirers of Haydn's music and as the young woman was soon to be married he made bold to ask that the composer write a minuet for her wedding. Kind “Papa Haydn” consented, and in a few days the man of meat obtained his music. Not long afterward Haydn was surprised to hear this same minuet played under his window.

On looking out he saw a band of musicians forming a ring around a large ox, tastefully decorated with flowers. Soon the butcher came up and presented the ox to Haydn, saying that for such excellent music he thought he ought to make the composer a present of the best ox in his possession. Ever after this little composition was called the “Ox” minuet.—W. Francis Gates in “Anecdotes of Great Musicians.”

How Franklin Learned Manners.

Franklin collected thirteen principles to cover the small amenities of daily life. Each week he picked out one and practiced it diligently, thus creating a habit. It took three months to cover them all. Each year he practiced each one four full weeks. He kept this up for many years. The uncouth Franklin of early manhood who found fault with his wife for giving him a silver spoon and a china bowl for his bread and milk instead of a pewter spoon and earthenware crock, developed into the statesman and man of the world who won the respect of Englishmen, the admiration of Frenchmen and the gratitude of Americans.—Harrington Emerson in Engineering Magazine.

Following in His Footsteps.

Visitors to China are particularly struck by the numbers of pairs of boots hung in separate wooden cages in the archway of the main west gate of Hsuanhua, the valedictory gifts of beneficent prefects. It is an attractive custom in China to invite a departing magistrate whose rule has been popular to leave a pair of old boots for suspension in a prominent place as a hint to his successor to follow in his footsteps. It is a considerable honor to be asked to leave these boots, and the ruled make the request all the more eagerly because they believe in the efficacy of the hint.

It's Easy to Peel Off All Your Freckles

(From American Home)

The contrast between the freckles and the clear skin usually is so great that no bleach can be more than partially successful in obliterating the disfigurements. Ordinary mercurized wax is far better; it literally peels off the freckles. Get an ounce of it at the nearest drug store and tonight spread on enough to completely cover your face; remove in the morning with warm water. Repeat daily until every freckle has disappeared.

Rough, blotchy, pimply skin, also common at this season
