

ILLINOIS IS PLANNING TO DEPOSE TAFT

OYSTER BAY, July 1.—That President Taft's name may be taken from the regular Republican ballot in Illinois and that of Col. Roosevelt substituted was the message brought here today by R. W. McCormick, of Chicago who was a Roosevelt delegate at the national convention. Mr. McCormick came to Oyster Bay and held a long conference with Col. Roosevelt. He is believed to have come east as an ambassador of Gov. Deneen, of Illinois.

When the Colonel bolted the regular convention McCormick refused to follow him. Today upon his arrival he gave out a statement that indicated the progressive movement is making big gains in the middle west and especially in Illinois.

"I don't know of any calamity at Chicago so far as Roosevelt is concerned," he said. "They put up a candidate in the regular convention who cannot be elected. The progressive movement has proved more important than many thought it would. In fact there is a strong disposition on the part of the Illinois state organization of Republicans to drop Mr. Taft entirely and follow Mr. Roosevelt. Mr. Taft cannot carry Illinois and it is best to get behind some one who can win for we will lose the state machinery entirely." Mr. McCormick explained that the matter of substituting Roosevelt's name for Taft's on the ballot has been receiving serious consideration from some of the leaders. He said that they believed it could be legally done.

After the conference Col. Roosevelt issued a statement calling on all progressives to join the third party movement. Speaking of the Illinois situation, the Colonel declared that if Governor Deneen did not fall in line with the progressives of his state, the latter would put a ticket in the field and defeat him next fall. In outlining the plan for the new party the Colonel said that he did not contemplate forming an organization in every state.

WORKS IS WRATHY.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Denouncing the pre-convention campaign of President Taft and of former President Roosevelt as the most disgraceful spectacle in American history, Senator Works of California, in the senate today introduced a resolution asking the appointment of four Republicans and three Democrats on a special committee to probe the activities of the presidential candidates and their lieutenants—from the president and cabinet officers down to the government employees who assisted them.

MOTHER PLEA WAS OF LITTLE AVAIL

The plea of a "mother at home" did not influence Mayor Zimmerman in police court this morning when it was shown that three boys, two of them arrested for petit larceny and one for drunk, had whiskey on their persons when arrested. Willie Brice and Sam Rogan each stole a belt at a Main street store. They were arrested with them was Opie Brice, very drunk. Each pleaded guilty to the charges, this morning, but asked for leniency because of parents back in Virginia they were "keeping." The presence of large bottles of whiskey in the pockets of the youngsters did not appear to the mayor as conclusive evidence of parental affection, and Opie Brice got $1 and costs, Rogan got $5 and costs and ten days in jail, and Willie Brice $5 and costs and ten days in jail.

An Orator on Oratory.

W. Bourke Cockran was discussing oratory once at a dinner. "The modern style of oration," he said, "is plain, direct and simple. The old fashioned flowery oratory, with its Latin quotations, no longer impresses any one. Once, in my early youth, I introduced a quotation from Vergil into a speech. Instantly a shrewd looking workman in the audience shouted: "Translate, translate!" "So I complied, adding, 'The translation is merely a loose one.' " "Yes," said the workman, "loose, but not lucid."—New York Press.

YANKEE GIRL TO BE PREMIER DANSEUSE

To beautiful Eva Swain, the 15-year-old daughter of Edgar Swain, a retired lawyer, has gone the honor of becoming the first American prima ballerina at the Metropolitan opera house. The announcement that Director Gatti-Casazza has chosen this little-limbed young girl from among more than 300 applicants from all over Europe and the United States to be the premier danseuse during the opera season next year, has caused a sensation in operatic circles here and abroad. Always previously the choice has been some famous ballerina from one of the European ballets. Although she has only studied three years, Miss Swain can execute with delicate gracefulness all the movements of Pavlova.

AGED VETERAN DEAD

Warren Shumard Died at Centerville Saturday.

Warren Shumard, 81, a veteran of the civil war, and an aged resident of Centerville, died at his home there Saturday night at 10 o'clock. The deceased leaves a wife, Sarah, and two sons, Fred of Indianapolis, and George of Kansas City. Prior to 1890, Mr. Shumard was engaged in the hardware business in this city. During the civil war he was a member of the 105th Ohio volunteers. The deceased was well known in this city, where he leaves a large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn his death. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at the home. The Rev. S. R. Lyons of this city, will have charge of the services. The G. A. R. post of Centerville will assist in the ceremonies, and representatives of the local G. A. R. will assist. Interment will be in Earlham cemetery. Friends may call at any time. Flowers are asked to be omitted.

A PRIVATE SLEUTH MAKES AN ARREST

Jim Codi, 608 Bridge avenue, and Tony Vettagotte, 215 North Second street, were arrested this afternoon at the city building. The men had an argument at Eighth and Main streets, where Tony, the younger, knocked down his aged partner, who was the drunker of the two. The pair then went to North Seventh and A streets where after another dispute, Tony pointed a revolver at his friend's head. Walter Karns, so called "private detective," took the two in custody, marching them to the city building where they were locked up, Jim for drunk and Tony for assault and battery.

All Broken Long Ago.

A Lakewood lady paid a call on an east Cleveland woman the other day. After all the mean compliments had been paid the Lakewood lady remarked, "I have some lovely china that belonged to my ancestors." "How nice," answered the other. "I haven't a bit."

Procrastination.

"One of the greatest evils in life," said the elderly woman, "is procrastination." "I think so, too," replied the young married woman. "I don't see the sense of putting off your golden wedding anniversary till you are sixty or seventy years old."

"THE CAMPBELLS ARE COMIN'!"

Which Being Interpreted Reads that When the Women Get Here, Hysteria Will Cease and Affairs Be Conducted Sanely and Calmly.

BY ESTHER GRIFFIN WHITE.

The other day the two rival candidates for the presidency of the National Federation of Women's Clubs stood on the platform in San Francisco with their arms around each other stating that whichever way the election went either was prepared to support the other in defeat or victory. "Pooh!" you say.

Why "pooh" sure enough and yet again. "Nothing but a woman's convention!" "Old cats!" "Didn't mean anything anyway—"

Well perhaps not. Yet it is a fact that the body whose fortunes they aspire to guide numbers as many adherents as a political party and counts its membership by the hundred thousand. Did you notice rival candidates at Chicago and Baltimore standing twingly likewise and either sincerely or hypocritically declare?

Not so you could notice it. Imagine Taft and Roosevelt standing with their arms round each other swearing loyalty to each and all.

Fancy Bryan and Clark posing thus. But you can't.

No matter whether it was real or assumed it was nonetheless a spectacle and one symbolic of woman's advance in acumen if not in breadth of outlook.

They say women aren't good losers. But they're the best losers in the world. Women are constant losers in the game of life. They always have the worst of it, even if that has been said here before and even if there are occasional exceptions.

Physically and emotionally women are the overwhelming, but the best losers.

You'll find more buried tragedy in the heart and life of one woman than in that of ten men.

You can see women any day in the week who have stood calmly by while their heritage has been impudently stolen before their very eyes and who have neither "murmured nor complained."

Women who have sacrificed their whole lives only to be rewarded with neglect or contempt and yet who smile and are silent.

Women insulted to their innermost sensitive consciousness year after year, and who "grin and bear it."

Women who see youth and beauty clipping away through the inexorable progress of time with its consequent melting away of loyalty and admiration. And who still stem the tide gallantly.

Woman is the object of remorseless Nature or God, or whatever it is that keeps things going, and is moved down as ruthlessly by the juggernaut as wheat by a reaper.

But she loses well. She backs right up against the wall and hits out as long as she can. And when she can stand no longer she collapses and sinks into oblivion.

But women are good losers through training and experience. Not by nature. For the feminine dies hard. But in a long and rigorous battle with the forces that regulate the universe she has learned wisdom.

And she has become canny. Therefore the two stand with arms round each other and say whoever wins out is the best man and deserves the laurels.

Men might as well take note of this. Because it is something with which they will have to reckon generally where they are only at present reckoning sectionally.

Women are constantly growing in shrewdness, adroitness, skill and acumen in the management and manipulation of big affairs. They are learning to cast aside the personal for the common good. The smaller for the bigger. The detail for the whole.

Through their organizations, like the Federation of Clubs, they have become past grand masters at organization and systematic procedure.

And trained in the management of finances. Their participation in bodies made up of both sexes, national and international in scope, gives them equal opportunity with men for the study of method, the conception of results.

Women, in short, are, through education and experience, equally at one in ability to express themselves with intelligence and force in the affairs of the state and nation and when the time arrives for the consummation, women will be ready and waiting to take immediate action.

One of the noticeable phases of the convention at Chicago was the conduct of two women delegates from California.

During the turmoil when their masculine confreres were parading and shouting and jumping up and down and frothing at the mouth, the two feminine delegates calmly kept their seats and voted.

This certainly does not look like hysteria presaged by the croakers whenever women get an inning.

The truth is that woman at the best exercises more control than man and all this potter about the danger of her entrance into the larger citizenship is so much wasted energy.

For the "Campbells are coming" all right.

And when they get here—well "after you my dear Alphonse" perhaps will be more the order of the day.

JOKER GETS A FINE

For Exploding Firecracker in a Man's Face.

"Look out," said Ed. Gray, as he poked a lighted firecracker into the face of John Clark Saturday night. Clark did not, and the cracker exploded, filling his face with powder. The sight will not be lost. This morning in police court Gray explained that it was an accident, but pleaded guilty to assault and battery and was fined $5 and costs.

FACTORY LOST TO PANIC PROOF CITY

That the Castle Lamp company will not come to this city is evidenced by the fact that that company has just purchased a site at Battle Creek, Michigan. The company will have 75,000 feet of floor space. The building on the ground are modern and fire-proof.

For some time there has been considerable talk of the company's moving to this city and for a while it's moving here was considered a certainty. The company employs a large number of men.

Deaths and Funerals.

LEE—Philomena Lee, aged 45 years, died Monday morning at 4:10 o'clock, at her home, 102 North West Seventh street. She is survived by a son, Alfred, and a daughter, Henrietta Lee, three brothers, Harmon, Benjamin and Anthony Miller, and two sisters, Mary and Rose Miller. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. Mrs. Lee had been in poor health for some time. The deceased was a prominent member of St. Andrew's Catholic church.

INDIANA'S RANKS BROKEN FOR KERN

Shively and Taggart Trying Hard to Hold Them for Governor Wilson.

BY CARL MOTE.

BALTIMORE, July 1.—The Indiana delegation on the twenty-eighth ballot cast twenty-nine votes for Governor Wilson and one for Senator Kern. G. V. Menzies cast the vote for Kern.

The delegation voted for Wilson because it was believed Marshall had no longer any chance for the nomination. The break was occasioned by the general direction of Governor Marshall. However, he had given no specific instructions to that effect.

Thomas Taggart asked the delegates to vote for Wilson.

H. L. Ashley, of the Sixth district; J. R. Riggs of the second; G. V. Menzies, delegate-at-large, and Matt. Hart, of the Eighth, voted for Kern on the twenty-ninth ballot. Senator Shively is trying hard to keep the delegation together for Wilson, and Taggart has called for assistance. Joe Bell authorized a statement today that himself and Senator Shively had kept the Indiana delegation in line for Marshall against some of the governor's half-baked friends. It is understood that Marshall is more acceptable to Bell than Shively or Kern.

A number of local Democrats have telegraphed the Sixth district delegate, H. L. Ashley, demanding that he support Bryan's policy and Wilson's candidacy. They say they express sentiment of the Democrats of this district. Among those who have sent telegrams to Mr. Ashley is Henry U. Johnson, former Sixth district congressman. Mr. Johnson's personal telegram was as follows: "Mr. H. L. Ashley:

"Convention Hall, Baltimore: "Great interest here, Bryan's course is approved. Sentiment here is overwhelmingly for Wilson, irrespective of party."

"HENRY U. JOHNSON."

WAS BADLY INJURED

Frank Zess Has Bicycle Accident at Park.

Frank Zess, aged nineteen, of east of the city, sustained serious injuries at the Glen park yesterday morning when he fell from his bicycle near the deer park. He broke one shoulder bone, dislocated his other shoulder, sprained his left elbow and fractured three ribs. The accident happened at 10 o'clock. The young man lost his balance and ran his wheel down the steep hill into a ditch. He was picked up and carried to his home in a buggy.

The Reward of Kindness.

A kind hearted man in New Zealand had a sudden shock a little time ago. He was standing on a railway platform giving apples to a circus elephant caged in a cattle truck as the circus was on the move. The train started, and the elephant, not to lose the last apples in the basket, promptly seized the man in his trunk and carried him along with the train. The train had to be stopped and the kind hearted man rescued from the trunk of the traveling elephant.

An Editorial

If The Price of Coffee Would Double Again All The Better!

The price of coffee has doubled in three or four years. And this, despite production has doubled in that time. The reason for the present high price of coffee was sought and it has been found that the market supply has been artificially restricted.

The Brazilian government is in the operation and participates in the profits to the extent of an export duty of three cents a pound. And American bankers are financing the scheme.

Diabolical plot? Outrageous conspiracy? Perhaps?

But we did not take our pen in hand to condemn anybody concerned except COFFEE DRINKERS—to condemn them and, also, to congratulate them, both upon the present increased price and the probability that it will go higher.

It isn't exactly inspiring to see American capital finding its way to a foreign country to be used there to the end of exploiting American family pocketbooks.

However, this is not the saddest fact involved, to our way of thinking.

It is most regrettable that the consumption of coffee in this country has increased to a point to warrant manipulation of the supply.

We don't like to look upon coffee as becoming a NECESSITY to the American people, and view with alarm the activities of capital suggesting that it is becoming a necessity.

Coffee isn't good for you. Too much of it is positively harmful. If the present price, doubled in four years, would double again, it would be the best thing that ever happened to the excessive coffee drinker.

He wouldn't drink as much of it. Better yet, maybe he wouldn't drink it at all.

Just possibly you have put down as being a bit nervy in this coming in and sitting down beside you before the coffee pot and telling you to keep hands off.

Nevertheless, we mean well. We are talking for your good. You like coffee, probably, and perhaps you think it is none of our business if you drink it or if you drink all you want of it.

Babies want those pink pills that look like candy and cry if we don't let them have them. The same pink pills, left around by careless mothers, have killed many babies.

And many grown people know as little as babies about the care of their bodies. There are intemperate coffee drinkers the same as there are intemperate drinkers of alcoholic beverages.

One cup of coffee isn't going to prove fatal, nor two cups of coffee. Two cups may upset your entire system, make you uneasy, restless and peevish and unfit you for best results for a day, but it will wear off after awhile the same as a whisky drunk wears off.

But bring to us a person who drinks two and three cups of coffee regularly for breakfast, or a person who drinks coffee three times a day, and we will show you a person with a bad-acting heart, a sluggish liver, a disordered stomach and a shattered nervous system.

If you don't believe us, ask your doctor. He will tell you that coffee contains caffeine, which he gives in the smallest kind of doses for a heart stimulant.

He will tell you further that too much caffeine or too much coffee will give you a palpitating heart.

Then if you are satisfied to run the risk of having that kind of a heart, keep right on drinking all the coffee you want, and excuse us for interfering. (Detroit Times, June 12, 1912)

Nowadays many former coffee drinkers are using

Instant Postum

This new food drink

Contains No Caffeine— Costs Less Than Coffee— Requires No Boiling— and Tastes Better Than Most Coffee

Stir a spoonful of Instant Postum in a cup of hot water, add cream and sugar to taste, and you at once have a delicious drink that's wholesome, pure, and good for old and young.

A 100-cup tin of Instant Postum (no boiling) costs 50 cts. at grocers, 1-2 ct. per cup. Smaller tins at 30 cts.

Standard Postum, large pkg. (the kind which must be boiled 15 min.) 25 cts.

Both produce the same result; one by boiling and the other instantly.

Coffee averages about double that cost. Housewives appreciate Instant Postum because it saves time, work and fuss in the preparation of a meal; and for its intrinsic merit.

Ask your grocer about it. If he doesn't carry a supply, send us your address with a 2-cent stamp and your grocer's name, and we will send you a free sample of this newest food drink.
