

W. H. TAFT IS NOTIFIED OF NOMINATION

Elihu Root Makes the Notification Address, Commending President on Administration's Work.

in sympathy with the great practical rules of right conduct that the American people have set up for their own guidance and self restraint in the limitations of the constitution—the limitations of governmental and official power, essential to the preservation of liberty and justice. You know that to sweep away these wise rules of self restraint would be not progress but decadence.

You know that the great declarations of principle in our constitution cannot be made an effectual guide to conduct in any other way than by judicial judgment upon attempts to violate them; and you maintain the independence, dignity and authority of the courts of the United States. You are for progress along all the lines of national development, but for progress that still preserves the good we already have and holds fast to those essential elements of American institutions which have made our country prosperous and great and free. You represent the spirit of kindly consideration by every American citizen toward all his fellows, respect for the right of adverse of opinion, peaceful methods of settling difficulties—the spirit and the method which make order and peaceful self government possible, as distinguished from intolerance and hatred and violence.

In respect of all those things our country is threatened from many sides. It is your high privilege to be the standard bearer for the cause in which you believe, and in that cause of peace and justice and liberty the millions of our countrymen who believe as you do will stand with you and the great party which was born in the struggle for constitutional freedom will support you."

Mr. W. S. Gunsalus, a farmer living near Flemington, Pa., says he has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy in his family for fourteen years, and that he has found it to be an excellent remedy, and takes pleasure in recommending it. For sale by all dealers.

TURKEY DISMEMBERED 100 PEOPLE ARE KILLED

Such Is Fear at Constanti-nople.

(National News Association)
BERLIN, Aug. 1.—Peace negotiations between the Albanian rebels and the Turkish government have failed. Fighting will be resumed throughout the affected district. The Albanians will be content only with absolute independence.

"If the Albanians win European powers will take steps to protect their interests. Diplomats believe such action will hasten the dismemberment of Turkey. Thirty Turks have been killed and more than 100 wounded in a battle between a Turkish detachment and tribesmen at Raibsa, according to a dispatch from Constantinople today. The tribesmen are said to have suffered heavily.

A heavy force of Albanian rebels is moving on the city of Uckub today. They have seized the railroad from Mitrovitz, its northern terminus, to Hadchaniky, and are reported to be moving in several different bodies of many thousands each on Uckub. The Turkish garrison there is said to be of doubtful loyalty.

Crumpled Them.
We observe that the man's fingers are all twisted and bent into the most uncouth shapes.

"Poor fellow!" we say to our friend. "Evidently he is a victim of rheumatism."

"No," our friend explains. "He is deaf and dumb and has been trying to talk Scotch dialect on his fingers."—Life.

SAYS HIS LITTLE BROTHER CURSED

Joe Cohn, a fruit dealer, was fined $5 and costs this morning for assault and battery on Marvin Yost. Cohn said the boy had called his sister vile names and that he merely pulled the boy from the yard, not injuring him in any manner.

Yost denied swearing. He said that his five-year-old brother had used the profanity.

DANGER LURKS EVEN IN THE CLEANSING SOAP

COMMON VARIETY IS CARRIER OF VIRULENT GERMS.

FROM DISEASED ANIMALS

BOSTON, July 22.—Dr. John J. Muloway, of the Boston board of health, declares soap a carrier of virulent germs and a menace to health.

"I believe that common soap, particularly the sort that is used for the washing of utensils which are food containers, is a carrier of micro-organisms which are a menace to health," he said.

"In my experience in the west, where much of the soap used in America is made, I found that all the diseased animals which were condemned by the government inspectors in the big packing houses were used in the manufacture of soap, which is a by-product of the meat industry.

"I think that no animal soap should be used in the washing of food utensils.
