

WILL HONOR BOOTH IN SPECIAL SERVICE

Local Ministers Join in Service for Former Salvation Army Leader.

The life and achievements of the late William Booth, general and commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, will be recalled in a special service at the Reid Memorial church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

All the denominational pastors of the city, with few exceptions, have promised to attend and to invite their congregations. Addresses will be delivered by William Dudley Foulke, President Robert L. Kelly, of Earlham College, Major J. M. Berriman, of Indianapolis, and the Rev. S. R. Lyons.

An international service in honor of the departed leader was held throughout Christendom last Sunday, but owing to the chautauqua attraction, the Richmond service was postponed until next Sunday.

The program is appended:

Organ Prelude—Dead March from Saul.

Opening Song—"When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder."

Prayer—The Rev. D. Earle Parker.

Song—"Shall We Gather at the River?"

Scripture Reading—Rev. S. W. Trautman.

Duet—Mrs. Krueger, Miss Karl.

Address—Hon. W. D. Foulke.

Duet—Major Berriman, Ensign Bates.

Address—Robt. L. Kelly, D. D., Pres. Earlham College.

Quartet.

Address—Major J. M. Berriman.

Organ Offering.

Address—Rev. S. R. Lyons, D. D.

Quartet.

Benediction.

ARIZONA BRONCHOS.

Like the Little Girl With a Curl in the Center of Her Forehead.

When the Arizona broncho wishes to be safe for you and for himself he is the safest thing in the world, and when he wishes to be unsafe life is a merry chase.

I went up and down trails in Arizona which were almost perpendicular and rough and stone strewn too. But there was little danger for the broncho has, not the "ten pound," but the "thousand pound" look. His nose is to the ground, his eyes fastened on the trail, his footstep the most beautifully careful thing the mind can conceive.

One foot placed before the other eases and preserves the balance, adjusts the weight for another, and all this wonderful machinery of equisense, stability and safety you feel working under you like a delicate machine.

Yet this sage pioneer of the trail, with his meticulous care of you and himself, was just a wild range pony, hunted down by the range rider, driven, coaxed or duped into a corral, broken, saddled, bridled and ridden all in one hour; wrenched out of his wilderness, having his heart broken and made into a slave while you would eat your breakfast.

He is not a beauty; he is just a mongrel. But his legs and his feet are made of iron and steel, and the work he does over awful trails, in a rough and rugged country, strewn with stones and flints and boulders and lava and scrub, week after week, month after month and year after year, would spoil the legs of a thoroughbred in three days.—Gilbert Parker in August Metropolitan.

Why He Was Cool.

Average Man—There's a run on another bank. Just look at those depositors crowding in. The fools! That's what makes money tight. The whole crowd should be carried off to a lunatic asylum. Friend—You are allowing your deposit to remain, I presume? Average Man—Um—er—I haven't any funds in that bank.—Exchange.

BACKACHE NOT A DISEASE

But a Symptom, a Danger Signal Which Every Woman Should Heed.

Backache is a symptom of organic weakness or derangement. If you have backache don't neglect it. To get permanent relief you must reach the root of the trouble. Read about Mrs. Woodall's experience.

Morton's Gap, Kentucky.—"I suffered two years with female disorders, my health was very bad and I had a continual backache which was simply awful. I could not stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal's victuals without my back nearly killing me, and I would have such dragging sensations I could hardly bear it. I had soreness in each side, could not stand tight clothing, and was irregular. I was completely run down. On advice I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am enjoying good health. It is now more than two years and I have not had an ache or pain since. I do all my own work, washing and everything, and never have backache any more. I think your medicine is grand and I praise it to my neighbors. If you think my testimony will help others you may publish it."—Mrs. OLLIE WOODALL, Morton's Gap, Kentucky.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

A GLIMPSE OF YOURSELF.

Get It by Reading a Gossipy Letter You Wrote Years Ago.

There is nothing more interesting than to come across unexpectedly an intimate and gossipy letter that one wrote oneself ten or fifteen years ago.

In reading such a letter one is looking at oneself from the outside. The process is a good deal like looking out of the window and seeing oneself go past in the crowd.

The strange part of the matter is that in reading such a document one is generally filled with a sort of pity for the fellow who wrote it.

He seems to have been rather uncertain of himself. He groped for his facts and his ideas. Evidently he did not know much. He was merely an imperfect adumbration of the admirable person who is now overlooking his correspondence, eh? That is the first impression. But presently one feels differently about it. Those half baked opinions may now have hardened into dogmas. We may now be cocksure of what once we only surmised. But who is so hopelessly wrong as the cocksure man? If the person one was fifteen years ago could contemplate objectively the person one is now perhaps he would pity the purblind dogmatist more than we pity the groping experimentalist.—New York Mail.

SEE THE FUNNY SIDE.

Use Your Sense of Humor When Distressing Situations Arise.

Humor proves to be the saving clause of many a distressing situation. The trouble with most of us is that we take our troubles altogether too seriously. We fail to see the funny side of things that for the moment concern us, even though we are quick to grasp it when we are mere on-lookers.

In the face of gathered clouds that seem about to engulf the sunnier future it is not a bad idea to remind ourselves that this old mother earth has been revolving on her axis for countless ages, that generations of men have come and gone for thousands of years and that the march of human progress has gone right along in the forward direction despite what seemed to be occasional setbacks.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you." There is humor in nearly every situation if we can only see it from the right angle. Those of us who try to smile in adversity and think how much more laughable it would be if conditions were reversed at least feel less uncomfortable over it and take pleasure in looking forward to the time when the shoe will be on the other foot.—Omaha Bee.

The Road to Thrones.

In the year 1716 a girl called Marie d'Abbadie was hired as a servant in an inn at Pierrefitte, France. She was the daughter of peasants named Dominique Habas and Marie d'Abbadie.

A Bearnales from the village of Boeilh, whose name was Jean de Saint-Jean, stayed in this inn, saw the pretty maid, fell in love with her and on May 20, 1719, wedded her at the church at Assat. They had several daughters, the eldest of whom on Feb. 20, 1754, was married at Boeilh to Henri Bernadotte, physician, son of Jean Bernadotte, master tailor.

Her son was Napoleon's Marshal Bernadotte, who became king of Sweden and whose great-grandsons and great-granddaughters are respectively King Gustave V. of Sweden, King Haakon VII. of Norway and the Queen of Denmark.

Bedlam.

How many people use the expression "a regular bedlam" without knowing bedlam's "where or what." Bedlam was the popular corruption of Bethlehem, the name of an insane asylum in London, first established in 1523.

Owing to the prevalent ignorance of that age, it was a place of chains and manacles and stocks and finally became so filthy and loathsome that no man could enter it. It was rebuilt several times, but even as late as 1812 the institution was marked by its cruelty to inmates. The poor lunatics were chained and flogged at certain stages of the moon's age. Treacherous floors were arranged that slipping suddenly, precipitated the unsuspecting ones into "baths of surprise."

Two of a Kind. Convict No. 671 (ex-burglar) leaned confidentially over to his companion, a new addition, and whispered: "What yer in for, sonny?" "Five years. And you?" "Same. Pinched a gold cup wot some one give as a prize in a race an' the thing turned out to be only gilt after all. Whatcher larlin' at?"

Convict 909 (ex-company promoter): He, he! I'm the chap who gave the cup!—London Tit-Bits.

The Wonders of Love.

Singleton: It's wonderful what love will enable a fellow to see in a girl that he never saw before. Wedmore: Yes, and it's equally wonderful what love won't let him see that he'll see later on.—Exchange.

There are Imitations Now

But Newbro's Herpicide Was the First Dandruff Germ Destroyer

A discovery can be made but once. After that all similar acts become emulation, imitation or an attempt at substitution.

Newbro's Herpicide is a discovery. It was the first remedy ever given to science to kill the dandruff germ. Other preparations have since been offered to the public, some similar in appearance, some in odor, but all bringing the daring promise of doing the same things that Herpicide has been doing for years.

Every article of this kind is merely one more instance of a vicious emulation, vile imitation or a base attempt at substitution.

The "something just as good" story is old, why give it a thought? Herpicide is the Original Remedy. It kills the dandruff germ and prevents the hair from falling. Itching of the scalp stops almost with the first application.

Don't be deceived by "Something just as good." If your own druggist does not keep the genuine dandruff germ destroyer, Newbro's Herpicide, go to one who does.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

Send 10c in postage for sample and booklet to the Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich. Applications may be obtained at good barber shops.

ENGLAND'S GUINEA HABIT.

They Have No Such Coin There, Yet Still They Use It.

Strangers in foreign countries always find some difficulty in getting used to the current coinage. In England they find themselves up against quite a number of problems, not the least of which is the guinea, and the difficulty is not lessened by the fact that the guinea is practically obsolete as a coin of the realm.

The English physician's fee is always calculated as so many guineas, and the same thing holds good at a sale of pictures or whatnot at Christie's salesrooms.

The guinea is a gold coin current for 21 shillings sterling, or about $5. but it has not been coined since the issue of the sovereign in 1817.

The guinea habit has been defended by some subtle dealers on the ground that it obfuscates the "foreign visitors to British salesrooms." On the other hand, those astute cambists have been known to growl at a few thousand sterling added to the price of a valuable picture by the addition to the guinea style of bidding. The story runs that the guinea was so called from the pieces struck from the bullion captured by Sir Harry Holmes in 1696 from 100 Dutch sail in Schelling bay, the bullion being from Guinea. But Shakespeare has an earlier play on the word when he mentions "guinea hen" in "Othello" as regards the auction usage of the guinea. There can be little doubt that it is a survival of the times when the extra shilling was treated as a five per cent commission, payable by the buyer. Double commissions are, however, now obsolete.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Running up and down stairs sweeping and bending over making beds will not make a woman healthy or beautiful. She must get out of doors, walk a mile or two every day and take Chamberlain's Tablets to improve her digestion and regulate her bowels. For sale by all dealers.

Amusements

THEATRICAL CALENDAR.

Gennett Theater.
Sept. 4, 5, 6—Carnegie Polar Expedition Pictures.

Sept. 7—Black Patti.

Sept. 11—Julie Ring in "The Yankee Girl."

Sept. 12—Orville Harrold.

Murray Theater.
Vaudeville—Matinee and Night.
Sept. 22—Carl Morris.

The Murray.

The innovation introduced by the manager of the Murray this season in changing the bill in the middle of the week is evidently meeting with approval from the patrons of the vaudeville house.

A complete change of program will be made tonight, presented first this afternoon at the matinee. Some interesting acts will be seen and in more variety than usual since, with the elimination of the moving pictures in this theater, there are five full vaudeville acts.

The character of the bill the first half of the week was high and one of the best ever presented in the Murray and that for the latter part promises to be up to the same standard.

"The Yankee Girl."

The attraction at the Gennett on September 11, will be that joyous and effervescent young artist, Julie Ring, who will appear in her latest musical comedy success, "The Yankee Girl."

The comedy has a book supplied by George V. Hobart and is constructed along new lines, telling a story that differs radically from the usual musical comedy plot. The music is by Silvio Hein. He has furnished a group of songs that appeal to music lovers.

Among the songs are "Top of the Morning," "Louisiana Elizabeth," "Love Among the Roses," "That Bandit Man" and "Whaap, Daddy Ooden, Dooden, Day."

Eskimo Expert at Home in Kayak.

The kayak is a light narrow boat in which the Eskimo peddles about in search of game. It is hollowed out and provided with an apron made from walrus intestines which is worn like a garment by the occupant and fastened to the edges of the opening of the boat. The Eskimo can thus turn clear over in the water, right himself and go ahead without taking a drop of water into his boat. The polar moving pictures at the Gennett this week show wonderful Alaskan scenes.

"Captain Jasper."

According to all accounts there are stirring times with the Black Patti Musical Comedy company, which comes to the Gennett Saturday afternoon and night, headed by the world's famous singer, Mme. Slesierette Jones, the Black Patti, the greatest of all colored singers, and Happy Julius Glenn, nature's comedian. This attraction is conceded to be the best colored show on the road.

ANNOYED THE GUEST.

What Did They Think He Went to the Hotel For Anyway?

An elderly, undersized, old fashioned man entered a fashionable New York hotel one night late in the rush season and timidly approached the desk.

"Have you got any sort of place you could put me for the night?" he asked in a rich brogue. "It's tired I am all through, and I have tried several other hotels."

"Would you mind much where you slept?" asked the clerk.

"Not at all so long as there is a comfortable bed."

"Well, the only thing I could give you is a room where the bellboys hang their coats. It is small, but it contains a bed, and I guess you could sleep all right."

"I'll take it," said the stranger, and he dived down into his jeans and pulled out a wad. "How much is it?"

"You can let that wait until the morning," protested the clerk, but the other insisted on paying.

"Will you register?" suggested the clerk, turning the book toward him.

"What's that? No; you needn't wake me in the morning," and he turned to go upstairs.

"I asked you to register," repeated the clerk.

"You needn't send me any ice water," said the other.

"But I want you to write your name in the book."

"Oh!" said the stranger. He took the pen, jabbed it into the inkstand, where he wobbled it about as if it were a brush, leaned over the desk and with a big flourish wrote the letter "J." Then he caught his breath and made a running hieroglyph on the line underneath, which the clerk from long practice was able to decipher as "ohn."

The visitor then shifted his position, took another brace between the floor and the edge of the counter and started in again. There was a short and then a long sweep of the arm, and when the clerk glanced at the result something resembling a "G" had been evolved. The stranger then traced a series of letters up toward the northeast, all looking alike. The clerk after a little study decided they were meant for "annon." Then Mr. Gannon leaned back, straightened up and as he started to put the pen back asked to be shown to his room.

"But you haven't put down your residence," suggested the clerk.

"My what?" demanded Mr. Gannon.

"The place where you live," explained the clerk.

"Look here, young man," said Mr. Gannon, "you've got my money, and you've got my name. D'you think I'm going to write here all night?" and he flung away the pen he was holding and turned away with something that sounded like a strong cuss word—New York Press.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly deprecated, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

The Tyrians, it is claimed, were the most expert dyers of ancient times. The fabrics dyed with the famous tyrian purple did not assume their proper color until after two days' exposure to the light and air. During this time they passed through a gradation of shades of yellow, green, blue, violet and red, which the dyers understood how to arrest and fix at any moment.

Easy to Get Rid of Corns THIS Way

"GETS-IT" the New Corn Cure. Guaranteed.

"GETS-IT" the new-plain corn cure that will surely surprise you the very first time you use it. It is so simple, painless, quick and sure in its action.

It shrivels up the corn, wart, callous or bunion, separates them from the true flesh, the corn comes off, and there you are, with feet that feel positively glorious; corn-free once more as they used to be in your "barefoot days."

The most remarkable feature is that "GETS-IT" does not harm or turn raw the healthy flesh as other preparations do. It is as safe as water. No more plasters, bandages, or salves.

"GETS-IT" is sold at drug stores at 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Richmond by A. G. Luken and Co.
