

SOCIALISTS ATTACK THE PROGRESSIVES

H. L. Spink Denounced Gierluf Jensen and the Bull Moose Platform.

The Socialist meeting held yesterday afternoon in the high school hall under the auspices of the local organization, pursuant to an order from the national Socialist committee which set aside yesterday for the purpose of a national celebration of their principles, was generally attended.

It was presided over by Charles W. Lynn, local organizer.

H. L. Spink, candidate for prosecuting attorney on the county Socialist ticket, was the first speaker. While the purpose of the meeting was announced as educational, Mr. Spink's remarks concerned themselves almost wholly with the political aspect of socialism and its superiority over that of the other three dominant political parties.

Mr. Spink referred several times to Mr. Jensen, congressional candidate on the Progressive ticket, who, in speaking to a group of men a week or so since advocated the minimum wage scale for women, which met with the speakers' disapprobation. Mr. Spink speaking derisively of this phase of Progressive propaganda.

Mr. Spink's address was chiefly given over to denouncing the evils of capitalism rather than to explaining the merits of collectivism, the great socialist doctrine.

Rev. H. L. Haywood followed with an interesting and erudite exposition of the principles of socialism and a resume of its activities. He referred to the number of celebrated and distinguished men in all departments of life who had embraced the doctrines of socialism, especially referring to William Morris, the English artist and poet, and Bernard Shaw, the famous author and playwright.

Mr. Haywood stated that, while he approved of much in the platform of the Progressives, he could not consistently support that party because he did not think it got at the cause of the universal social unrest.

ABUSES HORSE

A complaint was registered at police headquarters late this afternoon by Elmer Hawkins of Butler street, that a huckster, who was selling wares on the west side, severely abused his horse by beating the animal with a club and throwing stones at it. Officer Lawler was sent to the scene, but arrived too late to capture the culprit.

The huckster was reprimanded by residents of Grant street for his treatment of the horse and he then cursed and abused the persons who tried to prevent him. He was beating the animal with one hand and trying to drive with the other when the wagon upset. He then was informed that a complaint had been made against him and did not stop to gather his wares but drove toward the city.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The formal opening of the Bible classes of the Y. M. C. A. will take place tonight. The work done along this line last year was very encouraging to the officials and from all indications the work this year will surpass that of last. The enrollment in the classes this year is larger than it has ever been before. Monday nights the Spartans, Mohawks and Onedais meet; Tuesday nights the Trojans, Delphians, Black Hawks and Theopians; Wednesday night the H. B. E., F. O. W., K. K. Delta Sigma, the Sigma Phi and Life Problems meet. Saturday morning the Athenians, Dorians and Beroeans hold their sessions.

One night each week a special privilege will be given non-members of the association of coming to Bible class meetings and of enjoying the privileges of this department of the association. This is for the benefit of boys who are unable to pay their fee.

A Robber's Real Terror.

The only really satisfactory burglar alarm is a living one, and the best of all is a crying baby. No man will enter a house or remain in one if he hears a baby crying, for the simple reason that he knows that some one will be about.

The small dog, we may add, is also a burglar alarm, and there is a story told of Sir Walter Scott and a burglar. The author of "Waverley" had defended a veteran cracksmen, and in gratitude he gave his counsel a little advice. It ran something in this way: "You are a rising sun, but I am going down. The best way to frighten housebreakers is to have a small dog about. He'll always be on the alert and is better than the ordinary watchdog."—London M. A. P.

The Sphinx's Riddle.

The riddle which the sphinx propounded to the Thebans and the solution of which she made a condition of her withdrawal from the state was as follows: "What animal has one voice, at first four, then two and at last three feet?" Oedipus discovered the answer to be "man," who in infancy, from using his hands as well as his feet in walking, may be said to have four feet (all four), in after life employs but two, and in old age to these he adds a staff, which may be reckoned a third. Upon this solution being given the sphinx is said to have thrown herself headlong from the citadel.

Not Always.

"Don't you think," she asked, "that an old man who marries a young woman makes a great mistake?"

"Not necessarily," he replied. "Once in awhile a young woman who marries an old man lets him go on having the use of his money till the end."—Judge.

THE WORD PARADISE.

Its Earliest Meaning Was an Inclosed Pleasure Ground.

The earliest meaning of the word paradise appears to have been a walled-in pleasure ground. In the Hebrew it was "pardes," in the Persian "ferdus," and from one or other of these the Greeks appear to have derived the word "paradeisos," from which we get our own word. We also know that the ancient monarchs of Chaldea and Assyria and also of Egypt constructed vast inclosures of forest land for the preservation of wild animals kept for hunting purposes, and these were also called paradises. Thus the historical meaning of the word comes to this: A space protected from all incursion from the outer world, in which those who were privileged to enter were allowed to indulge in such pleasures as pleased the fancy.

It is easy to see the translation from the material to the spiritual meaning, paradise in the latter sense meaning the place of the elect or chosen. This is strikingly borne out by the fact that the favorite battler of the Moslems, whose firm belief it is that those who die fighting go straight to heaven, was always "Fight! Fight! Paradise! Paradise!" And the strong probability is that they got the word from the Persian campaigns of the eighth century.

MILLET'S SKETCHES.

The Painter Didn't Value Them and Let Them Go Cheap.

I sold Sessler a quantity of Millet's sketches, and this is how I got them. I went into his studio one morning and found the servant making a fire with pieces of paper that looked as if they had pencil marks on them. I examined them more closely and, seeing that they were the painter's sketches, began to upbraid her for what she was doing, but she very coolly told me that her master had told her to burn up the papers. I could hardly contain myself with astonishment, when in came Millet, and I began to reproach him for the destruction of what I knew would sooner or later bring money. To all of which he calmly replied: "Ah, they are good for nothing. I have got out of them all I want." Just then I noticed a pile of paper in the corner, and I looked it over and found that it consisted of sketches.

"What will you take for the lot?" I asked.

"Anything you have a mind to give," said Millet.

"Will 300 francs be enough?"

"Oh, yes."

I handed him the money and took the sketches home and counted 800! Soon after I sold them to Sessler, who mounted them carefully and set to work to sell them. From this one can get some idea of the endless preliminary study Millet gave to the preparation of a picture.—Charles Jacques in Century.

ALLEGED DYNAMITE FUND IS CHARGED

Government Seeks to Prove It Was in the Control of J. J. McNamara.

(National News Association)

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—J. J. McNamara's $1,000 a month emergency organization fund, for which the government claimed no accounting was required, and alleges constituted the bank roll from which was met the expense entailed by dynamiting non union construction work, held the attention of the jury and attorneys in the federal dynamite conspiracy case today.

Mrs. A. J. Hull, of Kimball, Neb., formerly bookkeeper in the headquarters of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers identified stubs of check books, showing that that amount was turned over to McNamara each month for organization purposes.

These check books formed part of the document which District Attorney Miller alleges were turned over to the government by Herbert S. Hocking, the present secretary-treasurer, during the federal investigation, last spring and for which act Miller denounced Hocking as a double-crosser of his companions in the dynamite conspiracy. Mrs. Hull was bookkeeper for McNamara in 1910 and declared that the union books never were balanced during her employment there. She identified about 300 canceled checks which were indorsed by J. J. McNamara and F. M. Ryan, and had the letters "E. S." on them, which Mrs. Hull testified designated emergency fund.

CHARGES DISMISSED

Judge Fox today sustained the motion to dismiss the charges against Robert J. Mendenhall filed several months ago. Lulu Mendenhall recently secured a divorce and the custody of their child. The charges were wife and child desertion.

MINISTERS MET

The question as to whether evangelistic meetings shall be held in this city in the near future will be decided at the meeting of the Richmond Ministerial association which will be held next Monday morning. At the meeting today nothing of importance was done.

ARRESTED A NEGRO

Douglas Scott, a negro, was arrested yesterday afternoon at the Pennsylvania depot, while trying to sell a horse. Scott is a resident of Randolph county and his actions did not look good to the police. He was allowed to leave the city with the horse today as Chief Gorman thought Scott was its lawful owner.

HIS BAPTISM OF FIRE.

The Sensation Was Different From What He Expected.

A curious story of a Lieutenant Harford of the Ninety-ninth regiment, who served in a Zulu campaign, is told by Colonel Hamilton Browne in "A Lost Legionary in South Africa."

"He was a charming companion, one of the very best, but he was a crazy motha nd beetle hunter and would run about on the hottest days with a landing net to catch butterflies and other insects. He, moreover, collected and treasured snakes, scorpions and loathsome beasts of all sorts. He had never been under fire before and had on two or three occasions talked to me about a man's feelings while undergoing his baptism of fire."

"Well, we were in rather a hot corner, and he was standing to my right rear when I heard an exclamation, and, turning round, saw him lying on the ground, having dropped his sword and revolver."

"Good heavens, Harford," I said, "you are hit!"

"No, sir," he replied, "not hit, but I have caught such a beauty!"

"And there the lunatic, in his first action and under a heavy fire, his quailms of nervousness all forgotten, had captured some microbe or other and was blowing its wings out, as unconscious of the bullets striking the rocks all round him as if he had been in his garden at home!"

ST. PAUL'S RALLY TAKES MUCH COIN TO RUN CAMPAIGN

A Total of 620 Pupils Attended the Sunday School.

(National News Association)

The annual rally of the Sunday school of St. Paul's Lutheran church yesterday was featured by an attendance of 620 pupils, the largest number that has assembled in any Sunday school in Wayne county.

The address by J. F. Lehman, of Berne, head of the Mennonite Book concern, was an earnest appeal that members attend the school not only on rally day, but throughout the year.

The Sunday school will endeavor to maintain an average of 500 members in attendance every Sunday during the last quarter of the year. Ed Hasemeier is superintendent of the school.

The following is a tabulation of the classes and the attendance yesterday: Rev. C. Huber, 50; G. H. Knollenberg, 103; Chris Hasemeier, 49; Ida Bartel, 22; Alvina Steen, 21; Mrs. G. H. Knollenberg, 30; Dora Schulte, 50; Jesse Wiechman, 13; Julia Thomas, 24; William Meerhoff, 7; W. Kienker, 8; George Bartel, 8; Alice Steen, 8; Paul Benfeldt, 8; Elizabeth Drifmeyer, 17; George Bartel, 14; Lena Walsbrodt, 12; Henry Kimm, 5; and primary department, 191.

THE GUEST HOUSE OFFICERS TO MEET

Will Make Arrangements for a Financial Campaign to Secure Funds.

The purpose of the project which has been started by nine local women is to provide a home for working girls and women, and it is not organized for pecuniary profit but for educational and philanthropic work.

At the meeting to be held this evening the matter of securing suitable buildings for such purpose will also be discussed. The building now owned by the Hickite Quaker Friends located on North B street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, is said to be under consideration by the association.

The officers of the company are Rose Dougan, president; Peninah Trueblood, vice president; Edith Moore, secretary, and Ida Bartel treasurer.

EMPIRES VICTORIOUS

Defeat Waldorfs in Baseball at Athletic Park.

About 100 people saw the Waldorfs go down in defeat before the Empires at the Athletic park yesterday afternoon. The contest, which was interesting at times, resulted in the score of 9 to 7. Eight hits were accredited each team.

It was a case of wildness on the part of Roop, who started the game for the Waldorfs and of swiftness on the part of "Red" Evans who finished it. This is given as the reason for the Waldorfs' defeat. Roop hit three men, two in the first inning. Roop was jerked at the end of the fourth inning and Evans, who was put in, was too swift for Catcher Denny. Evans, however, struck out twelve men and allowed only three hits in the five innings he played. Albright, for the Empires played a stellar part on the mound for the Empires.

A HEALTHY BALANCE

General Fund Has a Balance of $28,024.46 Now.

(National News Association)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Democratic National Chairman McCombs testified today before the senate campaign expense investigating committee, that he started to spend his own money for Gov. Wilson's nomination as early as May, 1911. In one instance he contributed $10,000. The total of the Wilson pre-convention campaign contributions was over $193,000. The largest contribution was by Cleveland and Dodge company and Princeton friends who made up a purse of $85,000. Of this amount Cleveland and Dodge gave $51,000. The total cost of Wilson's pre-convention campaign was over $208,000 and a deficit existed of nearly $15,000.

Mr. McCombs furnished a complete list of contributions. Cyrus McCormick contributed $12,000.

Mr. McCombs testified that only $30,000 was spent in Illinois last spring.

A CHARITY CONCERT.

Gayarre Sang and Schumann Passed the Hat in the Street.

The famous Spanish tenor, Gayarre, was once at Barcelona in company with the Impresario Schumann. They were strolling down the Rambla and met two street mendicants, one of whom was singing while the other begged. Gayarre was touched at their wretched appearance and suggested giving them a couple of lous, but changed his mind and said that he might do better still.

"I will sing and you shall go round to collect the money. Nobody will ever have heard me sing so cheaply, and the contributions will be a charity. Let us begin at once."

No sooner said than done. The celebrated tenor asked the poor singer for his repertoire and then attacked the grand air of "La Traviata." Scarcely had the first notes been heard before a crowd began to assemble, and a whistle went round: "It is he! It is Gayarre."

The applause was tremendous, and as an encore he sang "Il Barbiere di Siviglia," finishing up with a popular Spanish song. The enthusiasm then broke all bounds, and Schumann, having filled his own hat, had to borrow Gayarre's. The contents, amounting to a little over $150, were then poured into the hands of the astonished and grateful musicians, and the two improvised street performers had the greatest difficulty in forcing their way back to the hotel, where Gayarre remarked:

"Well, I hope you are pleased with the takings. As for me, I have never sung with so much pleasure. It is good to help others."

THE BETTER WAY.

"It is better to trust and be deceived than to be suspicious of everybody."

"Yes, but it is just as well as a rule to keep your bank account in your wife's name if you are going to do any widespread trusting."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Trusses Like These Are A Crime

Get Rid of Elastic Bands, Springs and Leg-Straps. Such Harness Has Forced Thousands to Undergo Dangerous Operations.

Trusses like those shown above—the belt and leg-strap, elastic and spring contraptions sold by druggists, surgical supply houses and many self-styled "Hernia Specialists"—make life miserable for everybody who wears them.

And—even when drawn so tight you can scarcely stand to keep them on—they do no good whatever.

Instead, they often do immense harm—they squeeze the rupture, often causing strangulation—dig into the pelvic bone in front—press against the sensitive spinal column at the back.

The Plain Truth is This.

Rupture—as explained in our free book—can't be relieved or cured—can't even be kept from growing worse—unless constantly held in place. Just as a broken bone can't "knit" unless the parts are held securely together.

And—just as a bandage or splint is the only way a broken bone can be held—the right kind of truss is the only thing in the world that can keep a rupture from coming out.

What a difference it will make when you get that kind of truss.

And you can get exactly that kind of truss—without risking a cent of your money.

It's the famous Cluette Truss or Cluette Automatic Massager.

Far more than a truss—far more than merely a device for holding the rupture in place.

So different from everything else for rupture that it has received 18 separate patents.

Thousands say it is as comfortable as their clothing.

No belt, elastic belt or springs around your waist, and no leg-strap. Self-regulating, self-adjusting. It is held in position by suction—can't shift or slip—the only truss in existence that is honestly guaranteed to hold your rupture every minute of the day.

Sent on 60 Days' Trial to Prove It.

We have so much faith in the Cluette Truss—we have seen it work wonders for so many others—that we want to make one especially for your case and let you try it at our risk.

We'll give you 60 days trial to prove that this truss will keep your rupture from coming out, when you are working and at all other times—that it will put an end to the trouble you've heretofore had with your rupture—that it will improve your condition. If the trial we allow you doesn't prove it, then the truss won't cost you a cent. How It Strengthens and Heals.

In addition to holding the rupture, the Cluette Truss or Cluette Automatic Massager is constantly giving a strengthening massage to the weak ruptured parts.

It automatically—the massage goes on all day long, all without any attention whatever from you.

This massage—which strengthens just as exercise strengthens a weak arm—is so remarkably beneficial—that nearly all feel better and stronger—get immediate relief—after trying this truss.

Get World's Greatest Rupture Book. Don't go on letting your rupture get worse—don't spend a cent on account of your rupture until you get our book of advice—which two cents for a stamp—or a penny for a postal—will bring you.

This remarkable book—cloth-bound, 96 pages, 21 separate articles, and 19 photographic pictures—took us over 40 years of day-after-day experience to find out all the facts we've put in it.

It explains the dangers of operations and why they don't always cure to stay cured. Tells why—for the protection of the public—druggists should not be allowed to sell trusses.

Explains why belt, spring and elastic trusses can do no good. Exposes the humbug "methods," "appliances," "plasters," "systems," etc.

Tells all about the Cluette Truss—just how it holds—how it gives the curing massage—how it is waterproof—how it ends constant expense—how you can get it on 60 days' trial—thus giving you plenty of time to make sure of its wonderful holding and healing powers—and gives names and addresses of over 5000 people who have tried it and want you to know about it.

Write for it today—don't put it off—this book may be the means of adding many years to your life and of restoring you to full strength and usefulness.
