

JOHN E. LAMB CLOSES DEMOCRATIC FIGHT

Lauds Democrats and Attacks Bull Moosers and Republicans.

Firing the last gun in the Democratic campaign in Wayne county, John E. Lamb, of Terre Haute, spoke at the Gennett theater yesterday afternoon.

All Lamb declared that it is no wonder that such a large number of Republicans have bolted that party to form the new Progressive party. He asserted that the trickery of the Republican political gangsters was enough to cause a new movement to be started.

As the Republicans, Mr. Lamb averred who brought about the Democratic house of representatives. "It was not the work of you Democrats," Mr. Lamb said, "but the work of Republicans who were dissatisfied with the men who had been getting into congress. However, yet Democrats, of course, did your part."

The speaker used most of the phrases which William Jennings Bryan used in his speech at the Coliseum recently. Among other things which Lamb repeated from Bryan's address was:

"The worst thing Roosevelt ever did was to bring Taft from obscurity, place him in office, nominate him for president, elect him, and then go away and hunt wild animals in the African jungles." This was the worst thing Roosevelt ever did, according to the speaker and his leader, Mr. Bryan.

Attacks Pres. Taft.

Lamb said that President Taft hid behind the puerile plea that he could not sign the farmers' free list bill and give the people what they wanted, through their representatives without he had secured the consent of a tariff board.

A WEAK WOMAN AND HER STORY

In Floral, Ark., Lives a Lady Who Feels That Her Strength Was Restored by Cardui.

Floral, Ark.—"I must speak a good word for Cardui," writes Mrs. Vicki Baker, of this place.

"About a month ago I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was not able to do my housework."

"My husband bought me one bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic. I took it according to directions and now I am in good health."

"I thank Cardui it is the tonic for weak women."

And you are not the only lady who thinks so, Mrs. Baker.

Thousands like you have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardui has been to them.

Cardui contains no minerals, or other powerful drugs. It contains no glycerin or other mawkish-tasting ingredients.

It is just a pure, natural extract of natural vegetable herbs, that have been found to regulate the womanly functions and strengthen the female system.

All druggists sell Cardui.

See yours about it.

faith with the people by reducing tariff taxes on the necessities of life to the extent of more than six hundred and forty millions of dollars a year, and through the scratch of the pen of a Republican President that amount of money was taken from the pockets of the people and turned over to the tariff-made trusts and combines of the land. Is it any wonder in view of this fact that the President who used this pen is hardly considered in the running? Is it any wonder that his fate is already sealed, and that his great party once a militant army of patriotic voters is now a bedraggled band of doubters, skulkers and deserters?

This third term party, the Bull Moose party, the Roosevelt party, the Perkins party, the Bill Flynn party, the Beveridge party, differs from the Taft party only in degree but not in principle. Their candidate for president says there are good trusts and bad trusts, that the steel trust controlled by Morgan and Perkins, is a good trust, and has a right to violate the law and absorb a competitor, and has a right to charge the American railroad builder $28 a ton for his rails while it sells them abroad at $20; that the International Harvester Trust controlled and dominated by George W. Perkins, the angel of the Bull Moose movement, the chairman of the executive committee of the third term party, has a right to charge its American customers 30 per cent. more than it sells its products for on the other side of the ocean; that the trusts and combines must not be destroyed but must be regulated by a board or a bureau, or by a steward of the public welfare.

The Tariff Board.

"Both parties want a tariff board to fix tariff rates and the Bull Moose party wants a bureau to 'regulate' the trusts and combines. If they are successful in this campaign the Bull Moose himself will no doubt be the bureau acting as 'steward of the public welfare.' He will see to it that no man shall do business unless he is a 'friendly Indian,' and subscribes to the doctrines, as well as to the campaign funds of the third term.

"Why does the Republican party want a tariff board now? The answer is easy, because the people are aroused, because they have the remedy in their own hands, because they are about to act, to tear down with one tremendous blow the house of privilege, and it became necessary to resort to some trick, no matter how transparent, to delay the blow. The tariff board is nothing more than the old woman, behind whose skirts the trusts and combines hide from the vengeance of the people. The tariff board is the chloroform with which to still the barking of the dogs of protest, while the trust magnates fill their bags with the contents of the people's pockets.

Don't waste your money buying strengthening plasters. Chamberlain's Liniment is cheaper and better. Dampen a piece of flannel with it and bind over the affected parts and it will relieve the pain and soreness. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

CHURCHES TO HOLD HOME MISSION WEEK

Social and Religious Conditions in United States to Be Considered.

Since the first of September the evangelical churches of the city have been making preparations for the observance of home mission week, November 10th-17th. The idea of a home mission week to stimulate interest in the Christian work of our own land arose from a general home mission council representing all the home mission societies of the evangelical denominations of the United States.

For several weeks churches and special classes have been engaged in studying charts, text books and pamphlets issued by this council, showing the significance of many of the present day social, economic and educational problems in their relation to the work of the churches. The leading men and women in all the different denominations have come to see that all the churches have a common task and that more is significant they have also come to see that where unity of organization may not be possible unity in Christian work is not only possible but desirable.

In this spirit home mission week will be observed by all the churches of all the evangelical denominations of the United States. The program includes subjects of foremost importance to all who are interested in social and religious conditions in this country. The speakers and subjects for the week are as follows:

Sunday, November 10, A. M.—In all the churches, "Our Country's Debt to Christ." P. M.—In all the churches, "Units in Making Our Country God's Country."
