COURSE IS ARRANGED

Mrs. Foulke to Instruct in Domestic Science.

(Palladium Special)

CAMBRIDGE CITY, Ind., Jan. 9.— The domestic science department of the Purdue short course, which will be held in this city February 3, 4 and 5, has secured Mrs. C. W. Foulke of Columbus, Ohio to have charge of this division of work.

Mrs. Foulke has been affiliated with domestic science work for some time is known as a domestic science lecturer. She will give a lecture in Hurst's opera house February 5.

The school children will be allowed to attend the sessions on certain occasions in agriculture in April.

This is My 66th Birthday

SIR FRANCIS H. LAKING.

Sir Francis H. Laking, the eminent physician who was for many years the most trusted medical adviser of the late King Edward VII., was born January 9, 1847. His education was received principally at Heidelberg university. For many years he was intimately connected with the house of the late King, his official title being Physician in Ordinary and Surgeon Apothecary in Ordinary to his Majesty.
He has also been one of the chief medical advisers of the present King and of the Duke of Connaught, now Governor-General of Canada. Sir Francis is regarded as one of the greatest authorities in the world on children's skin diseases. He is a Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order and has received decorations from the rulers of Germany, Italy and other countries.

CONGRATULATIONS TO:

Rear Admiral William Wirt Kimball, U. S. N., retired, 65 years old today.

Julius C. Burrows, former United States senator from Michigan, 76 years old today.

Maj. Gen. Franklin Bell, commander of the Philippines Division of the United States Army, 57 years old today.

James Hay, representative in congress of the Seventh district of Virginia, 57 years old today.

Lieut. Gen. S. B. M. Young, the first man to rise from a private to the command of the United States Army, 73 years old today.

Freight Troubles Again.

It seems to be the lot of Richmond shippers to have to be constantly fighting for their rights against the transportation lines which enter this city. Fairly acceptable traction freight service was won after a hard struggle and concessions have been secured from the Pennsylvania railroad after much effort on the part of local manufacturers and jobbers, but the fight is not over yet, by long odds. Richmond shippers are now confronted with the task of compelling the C. & O. railroad to condescend to handle "local" freight to the various towns along the line to the north and south of this city. Railroad officials profess to be at a loss to understand why this service should be so poor, but it is to be hoped that under the vigorous prods the shippers and the Commercial Club are prepared to administer to the officials of that road, the source of the trouble will be as discern-able to them as it now is to the business men of this city, who have realized for some time that the C. & O. has been ignoring "local" freight in its mad scramble to build up its "long haul" freight business.

The Palladium agrees with the officers of the Commercial Club that a withdrawal of some of the "long haul" business the C. & O. is now receiving from Richmond shippers would be a most effectual remedy for the betterment of the system employed in handling the "local" freight shipped from this city.

Incidentally, while the Richmond shippers and the Commercial Club are engaged in the work of improving freight conditions it would be a wise move to stir up the Pennsylvania railroad over the poor local freight service now being given by the Grand Rapids & Indiana division.

The "King" Receives Homage.

Thomas Taggart of French Lick and Indianapolis is again to be the undisputed boss of Indiana for the next four years at least. That is an unquestioned fact and must be accepted by the people of this state as gracefully as possible, for in tearing down one machine, the Republican, they have strengthened another, Democracy's, until it is now as powerful as that Joe Keating, Jim Watson, etc., used to take joy rides in.

However, it having been the will of the people that gang rule should be perpetuated in Indiana, the best must be made of the situation and it is to be hoped that Mr. Taggart will be a good boss and give us a few things we pursued down a siding instead of the main line.

We know that by a mere nod of his head the Laird of French Lick can provide for the people a public utilities commission law in which the public is properly safeguarded, some kind of acceptable commission government for municipalities, a good roads law and a presidential primary act, for did not one thousand loyal Democrats and true, mostly members of the legislature but sprinkled here and there with future vice-presidents and governors and ex-United States senators, stand on their chairs at the Old Hickory Club banquet last night and yell themselves hoarse when Charles A. Towne mentioned the name of Mr. Taggart?

That one great roar that arose at Democracy's festive board at Indianapolis last night translated reads, "hail to the king," although just a few short months ago those same voices blended in a great chorus, which rang forth from as many car platforms and public halls, "down with the boss system. Vote for us and the people will rule again." Sad to relate this ancient political slogan had lost none of its magnetic powers for the majority of Indiana voters listened and believed in it as of yore.

BOARD MEETING

Plans and specifications for a cement roadway in the alley between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets from North A to North B streets have been completed and were presented to the board of works this morning. No other business was transacted at the meeting.

BIG AUTOMOBILE SHOW

Cincinnati Association Has Plans Made.

(Palladium Special)

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 9.—With the plans for decorations adopted, space allotted, and the list of exhibitors announced, arrangements for the pleasure vehicles part of the coming automobile show of the Cincinnati Dealers' Association are all but completed.
Within another week every little detail will have been attended to. The exhibition will open on February 24 and run to March 5. The last three days will be devoted to trucks. Nearly every inch of space has been spoken for. During the first week 36 companies will display the different makes of machines. Nearly every type of car will be shown. Special machines will arrive from the factories to enhance the exhibits of the agents. The dealers believe in getting everything in shape as early as possible in order to avoid any rush at the last moment.
