THINGS THAT CAN NOT FAIL.

When the anchors that faith has cast
Are dragging in the gale,
I am quietly holding fast
To the things that can not fail.

I know that right is right;
That it is not good to lie;
That love is better than spite,
And a neighbor than a spy.

I know that passion needs
The leash of sober mind;
I know the generous deeds
Some sure reward will find.

That the rulers must obey;
That the givers shall increase;
That duty lights the way
For the beautiful feet of Peace.

In the darkest night of the year,
When the stars have all gone out,
That courage is better than fear,
That faith is truer than doubt.

And fierce though the winds may
And long though the angels hide,
I know that Truth and Right
Have the universe on their side.
—Washington Gladden.

MUCH SORROW.

Easter week, which was to have been brilliant with many social events, was transformed from gayety into sorrow and service and society was entirely forgotten. There were only one or two hostesses who had the courage to entertain during the dreadful week which has just drawn to a close. Many of the club organizations met but not for social gayety, instead they spent the hours sewing and in arranging to send clothing and provisions to Dayton. Richmond women did their share and showed they were willing to do whatever the opportunity afforded. Probably for the first time in the history of Richmond almost a whole week passed without many large social entertainments. Many of the parties on the week's calendar were postponed and everyone turned time and strength into helping the flood sufferers and refugees.

OPERA THIS WEEK.

After working for some time in order to present the opera "The Feast of the Red Cross" in an excellent manner, the young people of the St. Andrew's church will hold a dress rehearsal this evening and will be able to present the opera Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week in the St. Andrew's auditorium. A nominal admission fee will be asked. The young people have been coached by Miss Robe and Miss Switzer for the success of the affair will for the most part be due to the efforts of these two women. Professor Richter who has had charge of the music has also spent much valuable time assisting with the affair as has also Mrs. A. G. Laker who will be at the piano. The event will be well worth the price of admission and the public is invited to attend. The affair will be given as announced in Wednesday's paper of last week at which time the entire cast was published.

INVITATIONS OUT.

Invitations as follows have been sent out:
A Select Dance
given by the White Lily Dancing club, at Pythian Temple
Wednesday evening, April second nineteen hundred and thirteen eight-thirty o'clock.
Music, piano and drum. Invitation at door.
H. Mills, O. Williams, R. Schattell, committee.
The affair promises to be most elaborate.

CALLING MEETING.

A called meeting of the St. Paul's Guild of the St. Paul's Episcopal church will be held Tuesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock in the Parish House. The members are urged to be present as several important matters will be considered at this time.

MEETS THURSDAY.

The Afternoon society will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. William F. Helt at her home, eleven hundred and twelve and a half, East Main street. The members are invited to attend.

POSTPONED INDEFINITELY.

On account of the terrible calamity and the unsettled condition of affairs in this city as well as elsewhere, the evening meeting of the Music Study club which was to have been held

BALDHEADED ROW

Early Piety Not Always the Cause of Baldness

Inasmuch as it is an accepted fact that baldness, falling hair and dandruff are caused by a germ, doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to prevent such calamities is to kill the germs?

And doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to kill the germs is to use Parisian Sage, which Leo H. Pihe has so much faith in that he guarantees it to cure dandruff, falling hair and itching of the scalp in two weeks, or money back?

Parisian Sage is a delightful hair tonic, pleasant to use. It is not sticky or greasy, and contains only those ingredients that will surely benefit. It is now sold by druggists all over America, and by Leo H. Pihe for 50 cents a large bottle. It is used extensively by women who desire luxuriant hair with a radiant luster. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

soon at the home of Mrs. George Eggeneyer in East Main street, has been indefinitely postponed. The program was to have been arranged for by Miss Alice Knollenberg and Mrs. Lewis King. Further announcement concerning the time will be made later.

BETA DANCE.

The members of the Beta Phi Sigma announce that their dance will be given Monday evening, as previously announced. Things have about resumed their normal conditions, and they hope the dance to be a success. Many guests are expected from Muncie, Wabash and Anderson. The invitations were sent out several days ago and were very attractive in white and gold. The Gessler saxophone orchestra will furnish music for the dancing. —Marion Chronicle.

TO HAVE THEATER.

Friday afternoon, April fourth, "historical day" will be observed by the Daughters of the American Revolution at the Lyric theater. A committee from the chapter will assist the management on this day. The public is invited to attend. The Daughters expect to make this quite a social event. There will be many social affairs in the nature of theater parties given at the theater both afternoon and evening.

TO PRESENT PLAY.

The East End Aid society of the First Christian church will present "The National Troubadours" Wednesday evening, April second, at the Genet theater, under the direction of Miss Geraldine Parrotte, of Chicago. The affair promises to be a most important theatrical as well as musical event. The public is invited to attend.

POSTPONED LEAGUE.

On account of the flood conditions throughout the state, the second annual convention of the Woman's Franchise League of Indiana, which was to have been held April third to fifth, has been postponed until the first week of May. Further announcement will be given later. Mrs. Roscoe Kirkman and Miss Esther Griffin White will be the delegates from this city.

READING AT CHURCH.

Friday evening of this week, Mrs. Miller and daughter of Muncie, Indiana, will give an entertainment at the First Christian church. The public is invited to attend.

FOR SUFFERERS.

The banquet and entertainment which will be given this evening at the Pythian Temple by the ladies of St. Mary's church promises to be a most delightful affair. The public is invited to attend. An elegant dinner in several courses will be served. An admission fee of fifty cents will be asked. This includes the supper and entertainment. The proceeds will be sent to the flood sufferers at Dayton, Ohio.

BEAUTIFUL PARTY.

One of the most attractive social events of the week-end was the pretty afternoon party given by Mrs. Walter Woodworth at her home in North Eleventh street, Saturday when she took this means of extending courtesy to Miss Lucile Polglase. The affair was in the nature of an apron shower. Miss Polglase received many pretty aprons. The afternoon was spent socially and with needlework. At the close of the afternoon's pleasures, a delicious luncheon was served. The guests were seated at one long table placed in the dining room. In the center was a pretty mound of jonquils and ferns. The place cards were done in the yellow and green. At each place was a miniature suitcase filled with confections. These were given as souvenirs. Covers were laid for Miss Alice Lang, Miss Florence Bond, Miss Ruth Peltz, Mrs. Thomas McCarthy, Miss Virginia Graves, Miss Lucile Polglase, Mrs. Polglase, Mrs. Gus Hafner, Miss Ada and Miss Grace Kelly.

TO CHICAGO.

Mr. Harold Peterson, a student at Earlham College, has gone to his home in Chicago, where he will spend his spring vacation of one week's duration the guest of friends and kin-people.

EXCELLENT MUSIC.

The choir of the Trinity Lutheran church presented a sacred cantata entitled "Resurrection Night" last evening at the church service at seven-thirty o'clock. The program as announced Saturday was given without change. There was a large attendance and the affair was thoroughly enjoyed.

TO FORT WAYNE.

Miss Kathleen Murray has gone to Fort Wayne, Indiana, to attend the Mills-Denabue wedding which will be celebrated tomorrow morning and will be a most notable society event. While there she will be the guest of her brother, Mr. John Murray.

REHEARSAL THIS EVENING.

A rehearsal for the opera, "Miss Bob-White" will be held this evening at the Parish House at seven-thirty o'clock. Mr. Rodgers desires to begin the rehearsal promptly and all persons who will participate are urged to be present.

MEETING POSTPONED.

The Spring Grove sewing circle will meet Friday afternoon instead of Tuesday, the usual time of the meeting with Mrs. Isaac Dougan, at her home in Spring Grove. Members are invited to attend.

A GUEST HERE.

Mr. E. R. Potter of Terre Haute, has been spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Potter of South Third street. He will return to Terre Haute to accept a position as manager of the Story-Clark Piano company of that city. He will succeed Mr. Jack Dawson, who was manager of the Story-Clark Piano company's store here. Mr. Dawson will accept a position as assistant state manager with the same company as soon as Mr. Potter returns to Terre Haute. Their many friends and relatives extend congratulations and wish them much success in their new work.

ABOUT MR. GIRARDIN.

There is no accounting for the artistic temperament; while one painter may feel like backing out of the door when people are discussing his art, another painter may wish to come forward and tell you all about his pictures. An artist who evidently takes great pleasure in helping people to enjoy his work is Frank J. Girardin, of Richmond, who now has an exhibition of oil paintings in the Talbot Block Gallery. When you go to look at his pictures you may be sure of being pleasantly entertained by the big-hearted man who has been his own art teacher, and who will tell you one interesting story after another. You'll want to go back again to see his pictures, you will feel so welcome and sure that you have found a new friend in the artist.

With the exception of some study in black and white in the Cincinnati Academy of Art, Mr. Girardin is a self-taught artist. But he loves the big outdoors, and he wastes no time in transferring it to his canvas. He does not make sketches and then work up his paintings in his studio. While a brother artist is making a little sketch he paints a big picture and is half way through with another one. Mr. Girardin is a director of the Richmond Art association and a member of the Cincinnati Art club.—Indianapolis Star.

POSTPONED ENTERTAINMENT.

On account of the condition of the flooded districts and feeling concerning same, the entertainment to be given by the Loyal Daughters of the Christian church has been postponed until a later date. Announcement will be made in the paper. Those who have procured tickets keep them as they will be redeemed.

TRAIN SERVICE NOW INTO LOUISVILLE KY.

One Train Daily From Indianapolis to Louisville To Be Run.

According to a notice received from McCullough of the Pennsylvania road, train service was renewed yesterday between Indianapolis and Louisville, Ky. A large force of men are at work repairing the track and bridges and there will be one train a day run each way until conditions allow a more complete schedule.

The following statement was issued by J. C. McCullough:

To The Traveling Public:
We are advised that train service will be resumed partly between Indianapolis and Louisville, Ky., by the P. C. & St. L. lines, beginning with a train leaving Indianapolis at 1:00 p. m. today.

J. C. McCullough,
Superintendent.

The G. R. & I. has resumed service over their entire line and are now running all of their schedules.

Commencing at 10 o'clock this a. m., accommodation trains 32 and 33 will run between Columbus, O., and Indianapolis, Ind., and in addition to these trains, the Indianapolis division will run trains 20 and 25 between Indianapolis and Richmond, No. 25 to be held at Richmond until 7:00 a. m.

Trains will continue to operate between Richmond and Louisville, Ky., via Indianapolis, and between Richmond and Shelbyville, Ind., as per former bulletin.

Richmond division trains No. 46 and 43, and 42 and 47 will continue to run between Richmond and Camden, O. The passenger service between Richmond and Chicago and between Richmond and Logansport is now normal with the exception of trains 7 and 8 and 12 and 9 which trains will be annulled until further notice.

The Cincinnati division will run trains between Richmond and Miami City as follows:

No. 12 due to leave Richmond at 6:00 a. m.

No. 322 due to leave Richmond at 1:30 p. m., also

No. 321 due to arrive at Richmond at 11:45 a. m., and an extra passenger train to leave Miami City at 5:00 p. m., all of these trains to be run daily.

Tickets will be sold to local points between Richmond and Trotwood but not to Miami City except to passengers going into Dayton who have business there in connection with relief conditions, or passengers who have been previously enroute to their homes in Dayton.

As previously advised, the through passenger service is now in effect between Terre Haute and Pittsburgh and points east via G. R. & I., Fort Wayne and P. F. W. & C. east of that point.

MY FEET NEVER HURT

Corns, Callouses and Tired, Aching, Swollen Feet Feel Good

Rub on EZO and rub out all soreness and misery from poor tired feet. Walking is a pleasure; dancing a joy after you have treated your feet to a rub with EZO, the refined ointment.

Don't forget the name: EZO for the feet, the only real thing for making feet feel fine and comfortable. 25 cents a jar at Leo H. Pihe's, and money back if not satisfied. Nothing so good for chilblains, chapped face and hands and rough skin. Druggists everywhere recommend it.

Happy Thought.

Anxious Mother—There's a look about that young man's eyes that I don't like. He looks at me out of their corners as if trying to conceal something. Daughter—Perhaps he is trying to conceal his admiration for you, ma. Mother (much relieved)—Oh, I didn't think of that!—London Express.

News to Him.

"Here is a story of a woman who says that present marriage laws make woman the slave of man," said the square jawed matron as she looked up from the newspaper.

"Why don't they enforce the law, then?" meekly asked Mr. Henpecke.—Buffalo Express.

A Reminder.

Mr. Oldebeau—Miss Ethel, may I not hope to—er—some day call you my wife? Miss Ethel—Have you spoken to mamma on the subject? Mr. Oldebeau—Why—er—yes, I believe I did some twenty years ago.—Boston Transcript.

Nothing is difficult. It is only we who are indolent.—Benjamin R. Haydon.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Cannot be had with cosmetics. They don't go deep enough. A clear skin, without blotches or pimples can be had only with pure blood. Certainly a prescription that cures even the worst cases of blood disease, clears up eczema and scrofula and cures inflammatory rheumatism and catarrh will produce a rosy complexion.

Dr. A. B. Simpson's Vegetable Compound has for forty years been known as the most powerful of all alternatives or blood purifiers. There has never been a case of blood poison (even syphilis) or skin disease that it could not cure. Thousands of women take it regularly to keep their blood healthy and their complexion clear. It is purely vegetable and harmless. It was originally the prescription of Dr. A. B. Simpson, who was one of the most celebrated physicians of the middle west. Inflammatory rheumatism, catarrh, scrofula, eczema, pimples, erysipelas and all troubles arising from impure blood yield to it readily.

Sold at $1.00 per bottle at all drug stores.

GUARD YOUR TONGUE.

To keep a guard upon one's tongue at all times is a good rule to follow.

Nothing is more foolish and tactless than the pleasure some people take in "speaking their minds." A man of this kind will say a rude thing for the mere pleasure of saying it when different behavior might have preserved his friends or made his fortune.
