MILTON

MILTON, Ind., May 8.—Mrs. A. J. Hart was a Cambridge City visitor, Monday.

The M. E. Sunday school will observe Mothers Day with a nice program, Sunday morning. The Rev. Westhafer will follow with a sermon on the same line of thought. In the evening he will also preach, his sermon subject being "Wages and Equivalents."

Mrs. Ernest Doty is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hale.

Word has been received by friends here that Mrs. John Ball is now in the hospital in Chicago where she recently underwent an operation for gall stones. Sixty-seven stones were removed, requiring two hours and ten minutes time for the operation. She is getting along nicely.

Mrs. George Beeson, who has been so ill at Connersville is reported better and hope of her recovery is now entertained.

E. P. Jones was among those from Milton who attended the fish banquet at Richmond, Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Ohmit, of Cambridge City, has been in attendance on her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Weir.

The W. F. M. S. will meet at the M. E. parsonage Friday afternoon.

The Christian church Bible school will observe Mother's Day with a fine program Sunday morning at the usual hour for the school.

A. J. Hart is still much indisposed. He has had the grippe.

The following is taken from the Hawarden, Iowa, Chronicle of April 12 and refers to our fellow townsman, Harry Manlove who has been out the season just closed under the auspices of a lecture bureau.

"The closing number of this seasons entertainment course was held Tuesday night. The entertainment was given by H. R. Manlove, 'The Man of Many Faces,' and in spite of rain and snowstorm which was prevailing, a good sized crowd greeted him and all seemed to enjoy his entertainment immensely. Mr. Manlove's impersonations of the various characters was simply wonderful. They were all true to life—you forgot that it was Manlove and could see only the character that he was depicting. He did all his make-up work right on the stage talking to the audience all the while he was making the change. His impersonations of the old Irishman, the Jew, the Italian, the German and the old miser were extra good. His closing number was a dramatic one and was splendid. Manlove is first class and certainly has many faces."

The Friends Sunday school will observe Mother's Day, Sunday morning at the Sunday school hour with appropriate exercises.

Miss Cora Brown, who has been suffering from deep cold is reported better.

The Lake Erie and Western local over the Port Wayne division through here, ran into Connersville over its own road, Thursday, for the first time since the flood.

The W. C. T. U. held an interesting meeting with Mrs. G. A. Borders Tuesday afternoon. Aside from the opening exercises, Mrs. F. M. Westhafer, Mrs. Benton Wagner, Mrs. J. M. McMahon and Mrs. G. A. Borders had excellent papers.

Henry Shepherd went to Indianapolis, Wednesday.
