(National News Association)
MANILA, P. I., June 16.—In a night attack upon the remaining defenses of the rebellious Moros on the island of Jolo, the American troops and their native allies, under Brig. Gen. John J. Pershing, U. News of the engagement was received by the military authorities today in a wireless message from Jolo. The radio stated that the rebellious natives, after deserting their trenches, fled into the mountains pursued by Americans and the Constabulary.

Desultory fighting between the rival forces has been going on for several days. The entire casualties on the American side were 20 killed and wounded. The native loss is believed to be much heavier.

CONTROVERSY OVER USING EXPLOSIVES

(National News Association)
NEW YORK, June 16.—The last two bodies of the ten men killed by a cave-in of granite in the New Lexington avenue subway Saturday night were recovered today, after the debris which pinned down the corpses had been shattered with dynamite.

The use of explosives in the search work aroused a hot controversy between Coroner W. H. Holtzhauser and Chairman E. H. McCall of the public service commission.

The coroner, fearing that the victims pinned beneath the debris might have miraculously escaped death, forbade the use of dynamite. Mr. McCall ordered the explosive to be used. McCall's authority won and the coroner has threatened to make things hum for the public service commissioner.

Three separate inquiries are under way by the following agencies: Coroner's office, fire department and the district attorney's office.

NO, BARBERS ARE NOT ON A STRIKE

Sam Freedman Says He "Just Likes to Wear His Beard Long."

A pocketful of half smoked cigars, several large stones and the longest beard ever seen in Richmond were the chief possessions of Sam Freedman, a Russian Jew, arrested Saturday afternoon on suspicion. He said he "liked to wear his beard long."

He was taken to police headquarters because he was seen picking up several stones. He told the chief that he carried the stones to protect himself from dogs which attacked him when he begged for food at farm houses. He says that he has an excellent taste for cigars and can pick good ones from poor ones by sight. The fourteen cigar stubs which he had were thrown away. Freedman was released.

HENRY OXNARD IS A FRANK WITNESS

Says Books Showing Beet Sugar Company's Expenditures Were Destroyed.

(National News Association)

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Henry T. Oxnard, vice president of the American Beet Sugar company, before the lobby investigating committee testified that fifteen years ago he and his family owned 60 per cent of the existing beet sugar stock, but that now they own only 15 per cent. Within the last year, with free sugar in prospect, Oxnard has largely reduced his holdings, he testified. He also testified that the old books of the American Beet Sugar association, which would show the exact amount spent in promoting the interests of the industry, had been destroyed with his hearty approval. The witness admitted that all records showing the expenditure of money in Washington had been destroyed two years ago and that no records had been kept since then. "Then there is a fund collected for which the man who handles it is not required to account for?" asked Senator Reed.

"Yes sir," was the frank reply of Oxnard.
