BINFORD-TITSWORTH.

A beautiful home wedding, marked by its very elegance, was celebrated last evening at eight o'clock at the pretty home of Mrs. Samuel Dickinson in East Main street, when Miss Helen Titsworth became the bride of Dr. Raymond Binford of Guilford College, North Carolina.

The Dickinson home is well arranged for a function of this kind and the spacious rooms presented a beautiful appearance last evening with the many pretty embellishments. The color scheme pink and white was carried out in all the appointments. Roses, carnations and sweetpeas were the flowers used copiously in arranging this apartment. The ceremony was performed near the archway between the parlor and living room. It had been transformed into a veritable bower of greenery. Bunches of roses were arranged about the archway. Previous to the ceremony, Miss Agnes Kelly and Miss Carolyn Sharpless, students at Earlham College sang the Missp wedding song. Miss Maria Francisco, played the wedding march as the bride and bridegroom, preceded by little Miss Ruth and Edith Stranahan, entered the ceremony room. The little flower girls wore pretty white lingerie frocks with pink sashes and pretty pink bows for their hair. The friends' service was used. The assistants were Professor Elbert Russell, President Kelly, and Mr. Gurney Binford of Japan.

The bride wore a pretty gown of charmeuse trimmed in laces and pearls. Her veil was a handsome one being an heirloom and worn on similar occasions by other members of her family. It was caught at the crown of her head by a wreath of orange blossoms sent from California. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, valley-lilies and ferns.

After the ceremony and when congratulations had been extended the guests were invited to the dining room where a luncheon was served. In the center of the table was a mound of roses and ferns.

Dr. and Mrs. Binford will remain in Richmond until fall, when they will leave for North Carolina. Dr. Binford to take up his work at the college.

Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Harrison of Kokomo, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Binford of Japan, Miss Myra Binford of Wichita, Kansas, Mrs. Frank Brown of Chicago, Miss Ardelle Street of Wilmington, Ohio, Miss Mary Hollowell of Pendleton, Indiana, Mrs. Jay of California, grandmother of the bride, Miss Harrison of California, an aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor of New Britain, Connecticut. The bride is a graduate of Earlham College and has many friends in this city who are glad to extend congratulations.

GARDEN PARTY.

KENNEY-WELCH.

The marriage of Miss Anna Welch daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Welch, to Joseph William Kenney, formerly of Richmond, took place this morning at 7 o'clock at the St. Peter and Paul cathedral. The ceremony, performed by the Rt. Rev. Joseph Chartrand, was followed by solemn high mass. The bride was attended by Miss Marguerite Brosnan, maid of honor, and Mr. Kenney was attended by Joseph Snyder, best man. The bride wore a suit of white silk tulle, with Venise lace, made in tailored effect, and she wore a white hat with a bird of paradise plume. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Brosnan's gown was a white lingerie with blue accessories and a white and blue hat and she carried American Beauty roses. The choir of the church provided the music accompanying the service. After the ceremony there was a breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, where American Beauty roses adorned the rooms and the table. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Kenney, parents of the bridegroom, from Richmond; J. L. Kenney, of Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kenney, of Mattoon, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Kenney will go north for their wedding trip and they will be at home at 2050 Park avenue after September 1.

STEVENS-STANLEY.

A romance covering a period of several years was brought to its culmination last evening when Miss Grace Stanley, the talented and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Stanley and Mr. Guy Stevens of Washington, D. C., were married at the beautiful suburban home of the bride's parents near Liberty, Indiana. The wedding was one of the most elaborate affairs of the summer.

Wild flowers brought from Tennessee and other states of the south were used in decorating the various rooms. June roses were used copiously in decorating the ceremony room. In the reception room ferns, palms and roses made the apartment most attractive.

The ceremony was performed at seven-thirty o'clock in the presence of a large company of wedding guests including relatives and friends. Previous to the ceremony, Mr. Z. Jay Stanley a brother of the bride sang several pretty songs. He was accompanied by Miss Ruth Bartel, pianist, of Richmond. Miss Hause, of Cincinnati, played the wedding march.

Miss Dorothy Kirkpatrick of New Paris, Ohio, was the maid of honor. She wore a beautiful gown of pink trimmed in lace. Her flowers were a corsage bouquet. The other maid was Miss Dessie Stevens, a sister of the groom. She wore a chiffon cecile gown over satin.

Mr. Stevens was attended by Mr. Roy Stevens, his brother and Mr. Earl Stanley, brother of the bride.

The bride wore a handsome gown of charmeuse trimmed in pearls and laces. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and ferns. In her hair was a wreath of orange blossoms. The bridegroom's gift to his bride was a beautiful necklace set in diamonds and pearls. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dan Ryan of Morristown, Indiana, the full ring service being used.

Previous to the ceremony Miss Carrie Druley, an intimate friend of the bride, also sang several pretty bridal airs. After congratulations had been extended an elegant wedding supper in several courses was served. The bride's table was placed in the dining room. In the center was a bed of roses and ferns. Covers were laid for the bride and bridegroom, Miss Dorothy Kirkpatrick, Mr. Z. Jay Stanley, Mr. Roy Stevens, Miss Stevens, Mr. Earl Stanley, Miss Vivian Hause of Cincinnati and Miss Ruth Bartel of Richmond.

The other guests were served at small tables placed in the living and reception rooms.

Those who served were Mrs. Charles Hiegar, Miss Rea Druley, Miss Carrie Druley, Miss Toney, Miss Ruth Bartel and Mrs. Garver, of Indianapolis.

The wedding gifts were many and very handsome.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens left last night for Washington, where they will have a residence. The best wishes of their many friends go with them. The bride is a most accomplished young woman. She graduated from Earlham College and has also taught music in an academy in Wisconsin. Mr. Stevens is a graduate of Purdue University.

The bride wore a handsome gown of blue cloth with hat to correspond, to travel in.

PHI DELTA DANCE.

The dance to be given this evening in the pavilion at Jackson Park by the members of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity promises to be a most enjoyable social function. Piano and drums will furnish the dance music.

Out of Sorts

THAT IS, something is wrong with baby, but we can't tell just what it is. All mothers recognize the term by the lassitude, weakness, loss of appetite, inclination to sleep, heavy breathing, and lack of interest shown by baby. These are the symptoms of sickness. It may be fever, congestion, worms, croup, diphtheria, or scarlatina. Do not lose a minute. Give the child Castoria. It will start the digestive organs into operation, open the pores of the skin, carry off the febrile matter, and drive away the threatened sickness.
