THE MAN IN THE ORIENT.

He Walks Ahead of His Wife to Guard Her From Danger.

When husband and wife go traveling together in the Orient the man walks in front, careless and free, and the woman walks behind, carrying the bundle. Therefore you say: "The Oriental cares not for his women. He despises his wife and uses her as a beast of burden." Most occidentals never get further than that. But if you are observant you go out in the jungle yourself, and you discover things. When you walk abroad there are difficulties and dangers. The paths are overgrown and thorny, creepers must be driven off, and buffaloes are ugly creatures.

In the villages are village dogs which snarl and snap. You are a man, yet you will be glad of some one to go in front of you with a hatchet to clear your way. No woman would walk in front, and the man must be free. Now you see the reason why the man walks in front. If you want to confirm it you inquire and find that this is true. Thus the Japanese, the Burman, goes in front of his wife for the same reason that the occidental goes behind—out of courtesy. If he continues to do so when it is unnecessary, as in towns where there are roads, it is because a convention once formed is hard to break, east or west.—H. Fielding-Hall in Atlantic Monthly.

Financial success in raising pigs has been attained in at least two Irish co-operative enterprises. The Roscrea bacon factory is the most notable of the institutions.

MOTORCYCLIST TO GET $125 AN HOUR

Much Interest Manifested in First Annual Motorcycle Road Race.

(Palladium Special)
CHICAGO, June 19.—There are few motorcycle racers who can earn $125 per hour. That, however, is what the winner of the First Annual National Motorcycle Road Race to be held at Elgin, Ill., on July 4th, will receive for his day's work.

The first prize in the race will be $500 in gold coin, and experts figure that better than a mile a minute speed will be averaged in the gruelling contest for gold and honors.

Ray Seymour, the California whirlwind, himself a record holder of many marks, stated this week that he believed a speed of better than a mile a minute will be maintained throughout the contest.

GIANTS THIRD VICTORY.

CINCINNATI, O., June 19.—New York succeeded in making it three victories over Cincinnati yesterday by winning, 7 to 2. Johnson was started as Cincinnati's pitcher, but received such a lively reception that he was pulled out before the initial inning had been completed. Demaree, the New York twirler, had Tinker's men at his mercy at all stages except in the eighth, when he allowed two hits and a base on balls and two runs came across the plate. Score:

Sheraton's Influence.

Thomas Sheraton, although a cabinetmaker by trade, it is quite probable during his life in London, did not actually produce any furniture, as his time was too much taken up by his occupation as Baptist preacher, trinitarian, drawing master, designer and publisher to bestow any attention on the manufacture or superintendence of cabinet work. His "Cabinetmaker and Upholsterer's Drawing Book" was published first in 1791 and again in 1793 and 1802. He was possessed of keen critical insight in matters pertaining to high class cabinetmaking, combined with an excellent sense of proportion, sound judgment and purity of taste, and his influence on the style of furniture in the latter part of the eighteenth century was exercised through his designs and criticisms, which had no little weight with the cabinetmakers of his day.—Suburban Life Magazine.

SPORTING NOTES

(National News Association)

CHICAGO, June 19.—When President Murphy of the Cubs learned today that the New York Giants have purchased Rube Schauer, pitching sensation of the Superior Northern league team, he predicted promptly that the youngster would prove a "lemon." Scouts for the Cubs, taking a tip of Rube Waddell, were the original discoverers of Schauer, but when other magnates began bidding the price up, Murphy backed away. The Giants are said to have paid $10,000 for Schauer, who is experiencing his first season in organized baseball. He will join the Giants August 15.

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—Eddie Murphy, the Boston bulldog, put up the best scrap of the year and showed the best form of any boxer who has appeared here this season when he met and conquered Harry Trendall in eight rounds last night.

Art Maguire and Eddie Revoire went eight rounds to a draw in the semi-windup.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 19.—Indications today were that the regatta on Saturday in which six universities will compete will be close and the most bitterly contested in the history of the meets.

Cornell was looked upon a sure winner a few weeks ago. The Columbia performed some wonderful sculling stunts that made its crew look up as a worthy rival. The trial spins of the Washington crew awakened the dopest to the fact that the Seattle aggregation would be a strong contender.

CALGARY, Alta., June 19.—The trial of Arthur Pelky, the prize-fighter who was boxing in the ring in this city with Luther McCarty at the time of the latter's death on May 24, last, on charges growing out of McCarty's death, began today in the supreme court. Chief Justice Harvey presiding. The trial of Tommy Burns, promoter of the fight, has been postponed until fall.

HOT LINERS OFF THE BAT

Big Ed Walsh aided and abetted by his salivary glands, yesterday accomplished one of the near miracles of baseball when he stopped the Athletics in their mad flight and enabled the White Sox to grab a 9 to 5 victory.

Fans in New York have gone wild over the showing of the Giants in the last week, and the fact that four straight defeats handed to the Phillies has narrowed the gap between the two teams to 33 points has made the New Yorkers hopeful that their team will be roosting in first place within a very short time.

"And, once they get there," the Giant fans will tell you, "it's all over but making arrangements for the world's series games." The Giants have hit their stride at last, which means that there's a team in the old league that keep up the pace they will set.

Temperamental Tillie Shaffer who is playing third for the Giants now, made a double and two singles yesterday, which added to the nine other hits made by the Giants enabled them to win a 7 to 2 victory over the Reds.

Johnson, the Indian twirler of the Reds, who made a fine showing in the early part of the season, lately has been getting "hits" in large quantities. An odd happening in the National league has been that in the last three days the same four teams have defeated the same four opponents. The Giants have taken three straight from the Reds, the Dodgers three from the Cardinals, the Braves three from the Pirates and Cubs three from the Phillies.

Ty Cobb got a single and a triple out of 4 times up yesterday. Joe Jackson went hitless after four tries.

The sport of the Red Sox has given them a firm grip on fifth place. A few more victories for the Bostonians and a couple of upsets for the White Sox and Senators will send the Red Sox into third place as they are at the present time only 16 points back of third place.

We have started—watch us go, is the slogan of the Red Sox rooters. And it might be an interesting sight after all.

The Red Sox just now are 13 full games, a matter of 240 percentage points back to the leading Athletics. Sooner or later sport writers reason, a team must slump. If that's the case, the Athletics are almost due. If the Red Sox can utilize their wonderful hitting and pitching strength while this slump is on, they may be up within one hundred points of the leaders by the first part of July.

The Dodgers got a little more batting and base running practice in St. Louis yesterday, having an easy time defeating the Cardinals by an 8 to 1 score.

The Pirates lost again to the Braves yesterday. It was their sixth straight defeat. Now they are only 33 points ahead of the seventh place Cardinals.

The Naps, accompanied by their bulldog mascot, called on President Wilson at the Whitehouse yesterday. He shook their hands and wished them "much luck."

J. Collins, a rightfielder of the White Sox, "blew" himself to a brace of singles, a double and a triple yesterday at the expense of Bender and Wyckoff, the Athletic twirlers.

Four errors made by the Tigers at critical moments enabled the Red Sox to score a victory over the Tigers yesterday.

The Other View.

"We live and learn," quoted the wise guy.

"Yes, until we are about forty, and then we begin to live and learn," supplemented the simple mug.—Philadelphia Record.
