News Briefs From Surrounding Towns

CAMBRIDGE CITY—The Home Economics club will meet Friday afternoon in the town hall. A demonstration in the preparation of macaroni will be given. All members are urged to be present.

EATON—Complying with the request made by the late Mrs. Allison Fulton, who bequeathed the church a neat sum, a bell has been purchased by officials and will soon be installed in the edifice. The amount given the church was for the sole purpose of providing a bell to her memory.

CENTERVILLE—Miss Edna Stauffer will sing at the commencement exercises at the conservatory of music at Indianapolis the latter part of the week.

MILTON—Driving into the Morris livery barn late at night a stranger jumped out of the rig and stated that the horse needed the attention of a veterinarian. The horse dropped to the barn floor from exhaustion. The stranger informed the liveryman that the outfit belonged to a liveryman at Connersville by the name of Davis. He left the barn, saying that he would return. When he failed to put in an appearance the Connersville liveryman was notified and a veterinarian called. The horse was saved.

EATON—Road improvement bonds in the sum of $6,000 will be sold July 7 by the county commissioners. The bonds are issued in denominations of $600, bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent and run for a period of 5 years and three months. The money will be expended in the construction of a road petitioned by Ira Fudge and others in Lanier township.
