

COUNCIL TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF LAW

Three-mile-road Law to Be Used in Twelfth Street Improvement.

MANY BRICK STREETS

At a Low Cost to Property Owners—Health Dept. Gets $500.

Council last night voted to take advantage of the three-mile-road law in the improvement of North Twelfth street and North J street by passing a resolution signifying that it favors the improvement. This is the second time the city will have employed the three-mile-road law for the improvement of township roads, Tenth street from H to the north corporation line having been the first street improved under the law within the city.

The discussion in council last night of taking advantage of the law within the city limits is the first step towards securing a number of brick streets in the city at a low cost to the property owners. Although several councilmen at first objected to the use of the law within the city, after hearing the arguments of City Attorney Bond and Wilfred Jessup, nine of the eleven councilmen present voted for the passage of the resolution.

Mr. Jessup stated that should council show itself favorable of the construction of brick streets in the city under the provisions of the three-mile-road law, several other improvements will be brought up soon. One of these will be the improvement of North street from Tenth street to Nineteenth street and Nineteenth street and Gaar road to the New Paris pike. The city now has an opportunity to secure a system of brick streets through the city.

Total Almost 8 Miles.
The proposed improvements in the city under the three-mile-road law total almost eight miles. Should the improvements be made, with those already decided on, within two years the city will have more than nine miles of brick streets constructed under this law. Two of these are boulevards each more than two miles in length in the city limits.

The improvement for which the resolution was framed is the brickwork of North J street from Tenth street to Twelfth street and North Twelfth street from J street north to the corporation line at the top of the Twelfth street hill.

This improvement will be a great advantage to the city as that part of the road is washed out at every rain and costs more to keep up than any other street in the city.

Use Any Material.
Under the provisions of the three-mile-road law, the roadways may be constructed of any material which the county council names. Council's resolution last night, however, contained a clause by which the roadway must be thirty feet wide and of brick. The improvement will be more than one half mile in length in the city limits but will also extend for some distance on the Middleborough pike.

A spirited discussion of the law was entered into by almost all of the councilmen. Several expressed their opinions as to the improvement of South Eighth street are paying the full cost.

DOCTORS DID NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. LeClear's Health—Her Own Statement.

Detroit, Mich.—"I am glad to discover a remedy that relieves me from my suffering and pains. For two years I suffered bearing down pains and got all run down. I was under a nervous strain and could not sleep at night. I went to doctors here in the city but they did not do me any good."

"Seeing Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised, I tried it. My health improved wonderfully and I am now quite well again. No woman suffering from female ills will regret if she takes this medicine."—Mrs. JAMES G. LECLEAR, 836 Hunt St., Detroit, Mich.

Another Case.
Philadelphia, Pa.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is all you claim it to be. About two or three days before my periods I would get bad backaches, then pains in right and left sides, and my head would ache. I called the doctor and he said I had organic inflammation. I went to him for a while but did not get well so I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking two bottles I was relieved and finally my troubles left me. I married and have two little girls. I have had no return of the old troubles."—Mrs. CHAS. BOELZ, 2650 S. Chadwick St., Phila., Pa.

of bricking the street. Weisaupt also declared that he would not vote for the passage of the resolution as it was read to council.

$500 Appropriated.
On a recommendation of City Controller McMahon, $500 was appropriated for the department of health and charities and $100 for the board of public works. The additional appropriations were made after it was found that there was no money in the board of works fund or the health board fund.

Robinson and company asked permission to construct a switch track from the C. and O. railroad to the plant on North Third street. The matter took its regular course at the meeting and passed second reading.

Whooping Cough.
"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since I have been keeping house and I consider it one of the best medicines I have ever used. My children have all used it and it works like a charm for colds and whooping cough. In fact, I consider it good for any kind of a throat or lung trouble and do not think any household complete without it," writes L. C. Haines, of Marbury, Ala. You will look a good while before you find a better preparation than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and whooping cough in children. It contains no narcotic and is pleasant to take. For sale by all dealers.

THEATRE GUIDE

At the Murray.

Week of June 23—"Our New Minister."

Palace.

Another one of those magnificent Broncho features "From the Shadows" is the headline at the Palace today. A stupendous western military drama in two parts. The story opens with a scene on the great American desert, with the burning sun's shifting sand and purple amber hills. The Indians driven to desperation by a great drought that has killed their cattle, are attacking an emigrant train. Colonel Bruce's wife is losing reason, mourning their dead child. At the head of the troops he goes to the aid of the emigrant train and arrives only after a desperate battle in which many were slain. He adopts a baby whose parents have been killed in the fight and by the gentle touch of baby fingers brings back his wife from the shadow of death. On with this will be shown a Gammut comedy, "Passing Clouds," making a splendid 3 reel program.

Arcade.
No doubt everyone knows about "Little Mary" who is now scoring a hit on Broadway in "The Good Little Devil." She and Alice Joyce of the Kalem company are great chums. She has written a play especially for Miss Joyce, "When Fate Decrees." This feature will be shown today only.

With this feature will be shown two comedies of first quality, "Clarence At The Theatre" and "Fixing Auntie Up." Two bright and shining comedies, made especially to drive the little glooms away.

THE LATEST FASHION NOTE
Says: "It is a wise precaution against getting holes in delicate hosiery to powder the shoes before putting them on." Many people sprinkle the famous antiseptic powder, Allen's Foot-Powder, into the shoes, and find that it saves the most delicate times over in keeping holes from hosiery as well as lessening friction and consequent smarting and aching of the feet.

The Home Beauty Parlor
by Betty Dean

A. H.: Your lack of ambition is due to impure blood and its sluggish action. Your appetite and energy can be regained by taking, before each meal, a tablespoonful of a mixture composed of one ounce of karoena dissolved in a half pint of alcohol, to which is added half a cup of sugar and hot water to make a full quart. It will cleanse the blood and assist new tissue to develop and will effect your complexion by lending the glow of health to your cheeks. This is good for the complexion, too, but if your skin is very rough, see reply to Grace.

Mary C.: Of course excessive flesh worries you, but do not take chances with violent exercise and exaggerated dieting. You had better use the simple but effective flesh reducer which you can make at home. Buy four ounces of parnis from any druggist, dissolve in 1½ pints scalding water. Allow to cool, strain and take a tablespoonful before each meal. Continue the course until you reach normal weight.

Lillian: By all means attend to your dandruff at once. You cannot have healthy, beautiful hair if you suffer from dandruff and itching scalp. Besides, both are unnecessary when there is this simple remedy at hand: To ½ pint alcohol add ½ pint water and one ounce of quinzoin. Use this twice a week. It will do wonders to make your scalp healthy and stop falling hair. I cannot recommend a hair dye.

Grace: I don't blame you for wanting some skin tonic which you can make at home. Here is a certain wrinkle-remover which you can easily make at half the cost of the market products. It is easy to use, will not soil linen and removes the wrinkles in less time than it took to develop them. Get an ounce of almozoin at your druggist's and dissolve it in ½ pint cold water, adding 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. Gently rub this vegetable jelly cream into your skin night and morning. You will note a wonderful improvement in the relaxed lines and firmer tissues. It will clarify your skin, too, and there is no danger of growth of hair.

Sally: I am not thoroughly posted on remedies for moles, but to rid your face of blemishes see answer to Grace.

Deila: I make this spumax lotion to tone and clear the skin, overcome coarseness and wrinkles and act as a protection against sun and wind. It is cheap and in every way equal to the expensive liquid face powders. Get 4 ounces of spumax from your druggist and dissolve in a half pint of hot water. To this add 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine and your lotion is complete. Apply freely after cleansing and thoroughly drying the face, neck and arms. The result will please you, for the lotion dries quickly, seems a part of the skin and gives a velvety texture to the face.

C. V.: Your dandruff can be entirely removed and hair made brilliant, soft and fluffy by the use of this inexpensive home prepared shampoo, which is superior to any I have ever been able to buy. Dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox, which you can get at any drug store, in a cup of hot water. This, rubbed into the scalp, creates a fine, smooth lather, which thoroughly cleanses both hair and scalp. An occasional shampoo with this mixture, followed by a thorough rinsing, will rid you of your dandruff troubles, beautify your hair, and make your head feel especially good. Your hair will dry very quickly after its use.

M. Y.: His criticism of your eyes was doubtless meant in a friendly way, but you can avoid a repetition and gain his admiration of their brilliancy and beauty by using an eye tonic which you can make by mixing an ounce of crystals with a pint of clear water. Put two or three drops in each eye frequently and the aching and smarting will disappear, while your eyes develop a charming sparkle, strength and depth.

The Theaters

Clean and fresh as the first flowers of the springtime is the play "Our New Minister," which the Francis Sayles players are presenting this week at the Murray theater. That any discussion should be necessary as to the recognized merits of "Our New Minister," after its years of prosperity and unbounded success, seems ridiculous.

This is the comedy that has been correctly alluded to as one of the three great stories of rural life, the others being "The Old Homestead" and "Way Down East."

The scene is laid in New England, in a district known as Hardscrabble. The time is about 1885. The first scene presented is the village store and postoffice with the town gossip gathered about the grocery door.

The story is a most excellent one, telling of right and wrong; it sets a premium on the right way of living; it says that black is black and white is white, and then points out how the white way is the best. The characters in the play are full of life, such as is customary in that part of the world.

Then there are hide-bound, pious characters who pray on Sunday and forget all about it by Monday. The young minister, taken by Sam B. Wilson, has one's sympathy at once. He has to fight a hard battle with the old-fashioned, unforgiving country folk.

Mr. Wilson is proving more popular on each occasion, and last evening when he appeared was greeted with applause. He is an actor of remarkable ability. Francis Sayles as Darius Sturtis, a country detective, was very good, and came near carrying off the honors.

Mr. Sayles is thoroughly at home in any part which he takes. He is able to impersonate most any character. Miss Olga Worn, leading lady, has the part of Nance Ransom, Lem's daughter. Lem, taken by Cash E. Tomlinson, should be mentioned here. Mr. Tomlinson has just joined the company, and is doing exceptionally well this week. Miss Worth really has slight opportunity to display her skill, but what she does is done conscientiously and well. Miss Leroy, as Esther Strong, sister of the minister, makes a striking impression. She was seen to better advantage in this part than in any part which has been assigned her since her appearance in this city. Joseph Schaffer, as Curtis Hetton, shy on belief, was very good.

The play is one that moves the audience to laughter. Matinees will be given Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Next week "The Squaw Man" will be presented.

SALVATION ARMY TO HAVE MEETINGS DURING WEEK

Meetings will be held in the rooms of the local branch of the Salvation Army, North Fifth and A streets, Tuesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. Adjutant Emma Westbrook, recently appointed to the Richmond post by Major Cowan, Indiana divisional officer, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ensign and Mrs. Deuter, will have charge.

The capitol at Washington covers an area of 143,112 square feet.
