

CALL GRAND JURY FOR NEXT MONDAY

Preble County Investigating
Body to Take Up Several Cases.

(Palladium Special)

EATON, O., June 24.—For the purpose of investigating matters surrounding the mysterious killing of Frank Bourne, 48, farmer, reclusive, whose body was unearthed a couple of weeks ago at his home near Camden, the regular April grand jury has been summoned to appear next Monday for duty in the common pleas court.

Prosecuting Attorney Gilmore and Sheriff Werts hold in their possession much evidence which they will use in an endeavor to have a first degree murder indictment returned against Elwood Davis, 53, now in the county jail charged with the killing of Bourne.

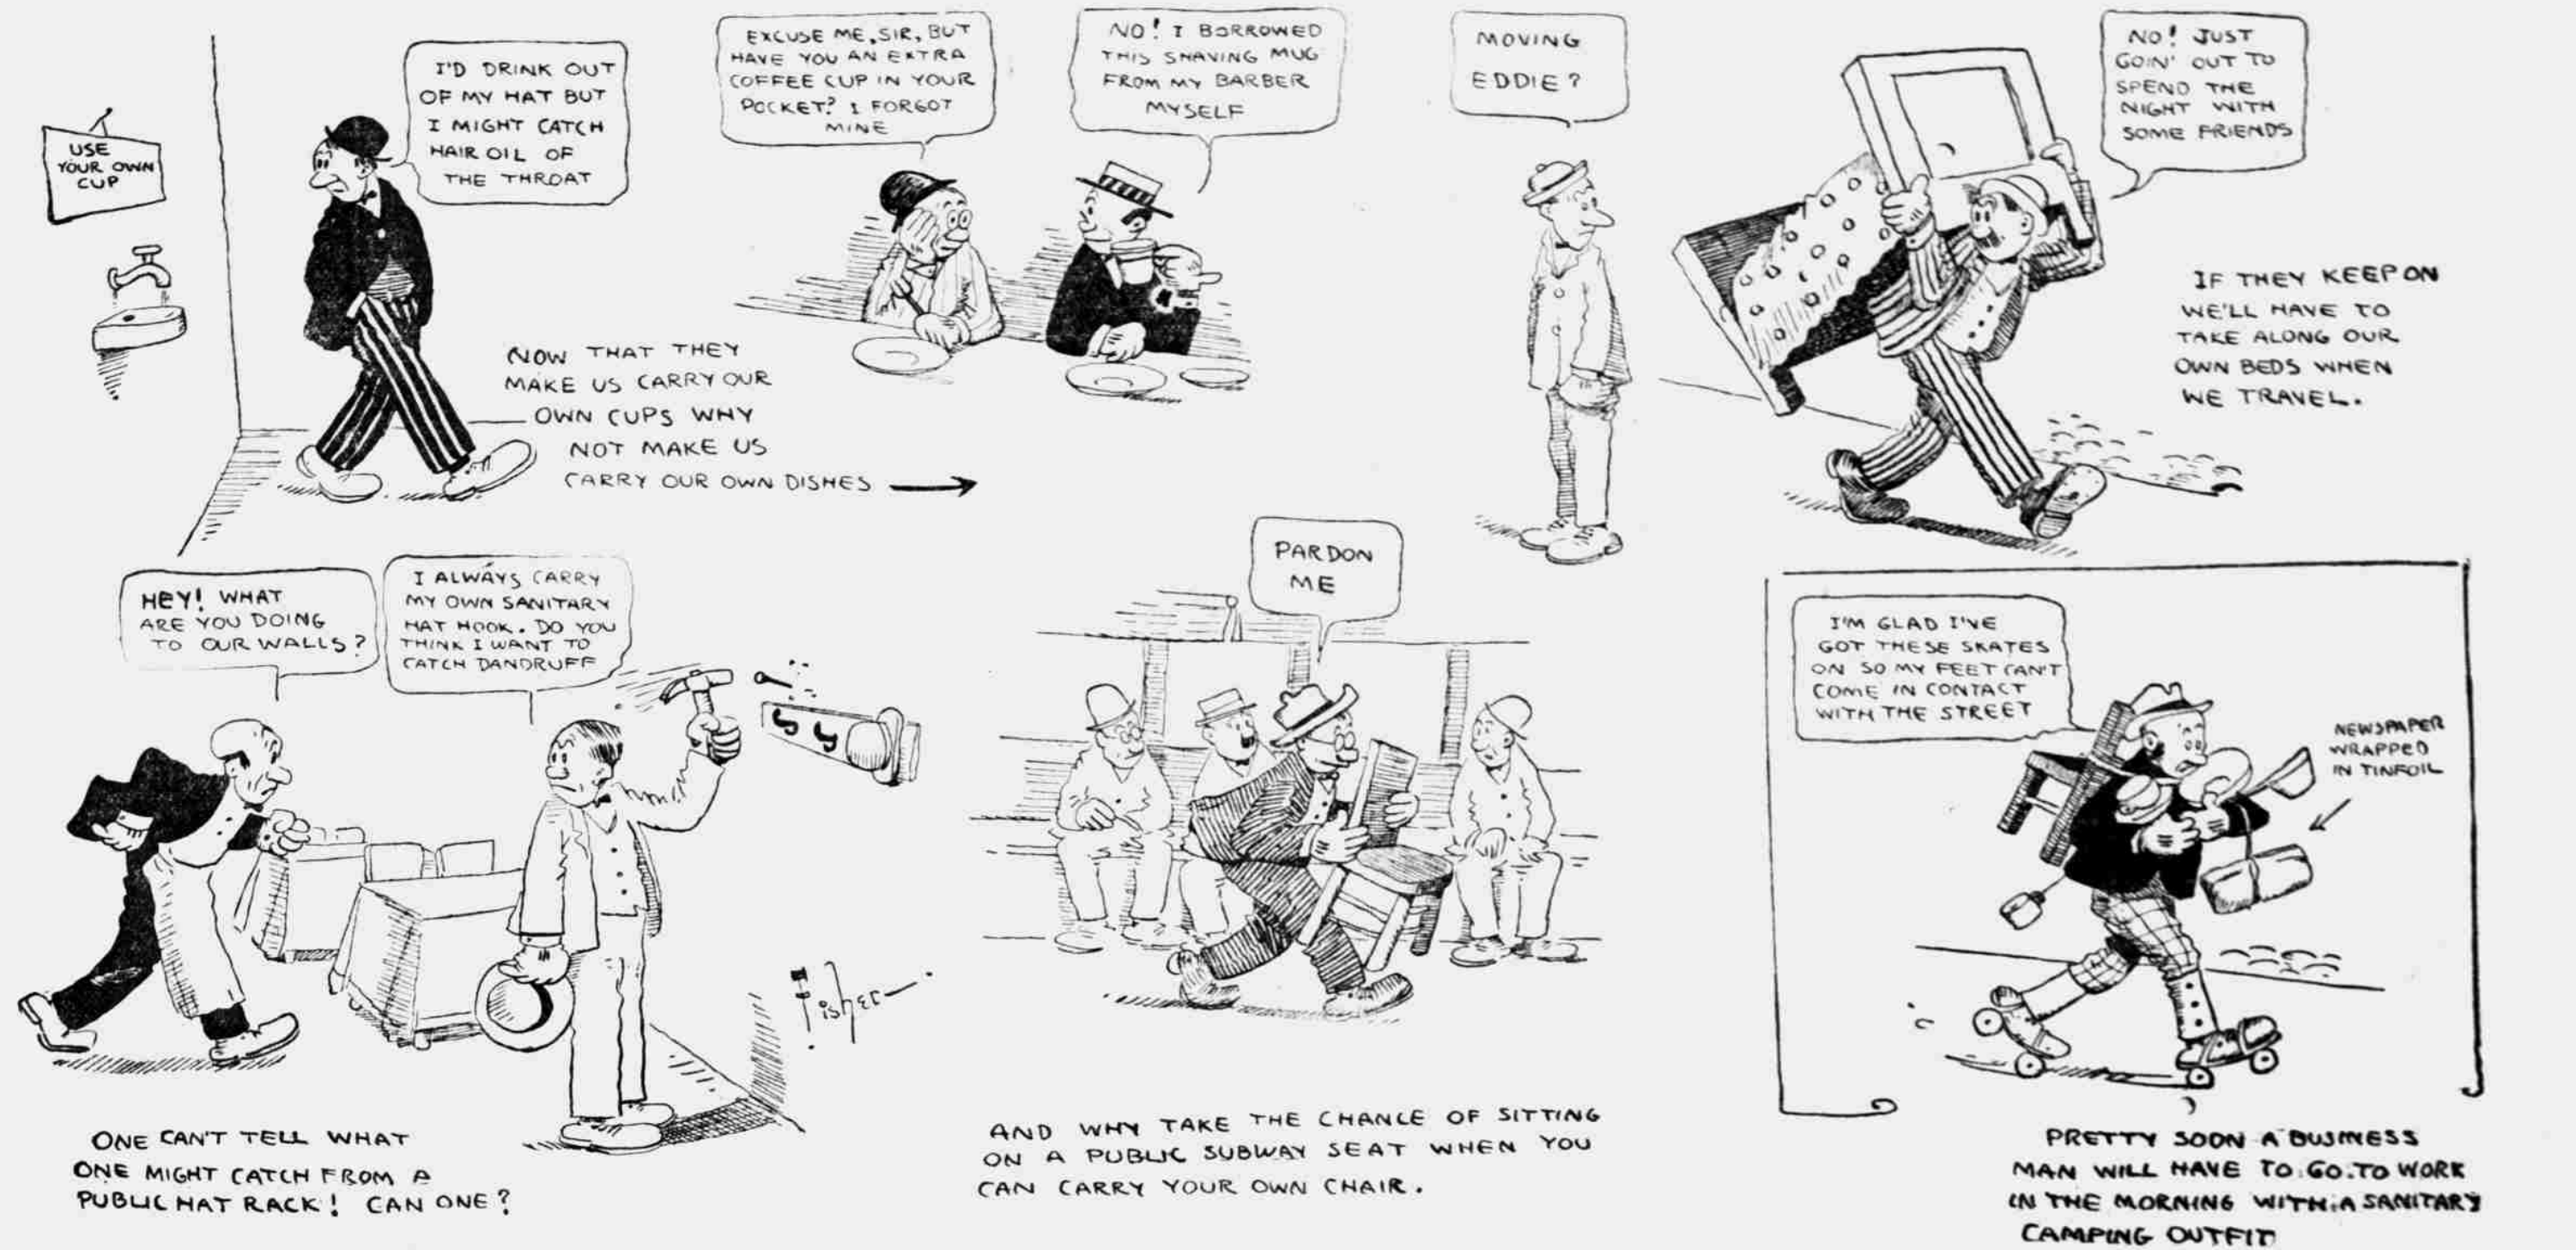

Foremost among the evidence of officials consider damaging to Davis are two letters telling of the murder of Bourne by Italians while he was at Jackson, Miss. Authorities also have a specimen of Davis' handwriting, and it is said this compares exactly with that in the two letters.

The accused man stoutly declares his innocence and is little affected by the charge.

Other Court Cases.

These cases also will doubtless come up for investigation: C. E. Mattix, charged with assault with intent to kill; C. B. O'Hara, cruelty to animals; Charles Malston (colored), criminal assault; E. C. Earle, forgery. Mattix's trouble started when he beat up on Philip Weber, of Richmond, Ind., when he caught him in company with his wife, Georgia May Mattix.
