

Athletics Win First Game of World's Series

PHILADELPHIA 6; NEW YORK 4.
NEW YORK, October 7.—In a game replete with hard hitting, sensational base running and fast infield work the Philadelphia Athletics defeated the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds today by a score of 6 to 4. Marquard, knocked out of the box in the fifth inning, was replaced by Crandall, who in turn gave way to Tesreau in the eighth.

The Giants opened the scoring in the third, scoring one run when Merkle beat out a hit, was advanced to second by Marquard, and scored on a hit to right by Doyle.

Home Run Baker came back in the fifth with a homer, scoring twice for the Athletics. New York in this inning woke up to the seriousness of the situation with the score of 5 to 1 against them, and beat in three runs. McCormick batted for Marquard, who was to be replaced at the first of the sixth by Crandall.

The Athletics displayed their true batting ability for the first time in the fourth, when Collins and Schang tripled, which, with a single by Baker and a double by Barry brought in three runs.

Crandall, who replaced Marquard in the sixth was touched up for three high flies all of which fell safely in the hands of a Giant outfielder. The Giants likewise left the plate in one two three order in the seventh.

The Giants failed in their efforts to tie the score in the seventh. With one man out and two men on bases Doyle hit into a double play retiring the side.

Collins scored again for the Athletics in the eighth beating out a bunt, going to third on Baker's single and scoring on a double by McInnis.

POLO GROUNDS, Oct. 7.—As the Athletics and Giants took the field at 12:55 o'clock for the first game of the world's series, thousands of men and women were still pouring through the various gates. Dark clouds prevailed. The Giants began playing catch.

The Athletics lined up to bat. Eddie Collins hammered the ball against the right field wall, Rube Oldring smashed one into the left field seats, then home run Baker belted one into the right field stands. If the purpose of this heavy artillery practice was to get the goat of the Giants, it seemed to succeed to some extent.

On third reading council killed the bill for an ordinance for the improvement of one block on South G between Fifth and Sixth streets by a vote of 8 to 5, the majority of the councilmen expressing themselves as believing that the improvement was not warranted since no houses abutted on the block.

Upon motion of Councilman King, council voted to go on record commending the executive committee of the Fall Festival for the boost given the city in conducting the successful event.

The president of the board of works reported that the gas lines would reach the city next week. However, W. A. Bond, city attorney, said service would not be given before December 1, owing to delays in getting the

REPORTS 10 CASES OF SCARLET FEVER

City Health Officer Believes No More Cases Will Develop.

By the end of the week, most of the ten cases of scarlet fever in the city will have been released from quarantine, according to City Health Officer Davis. He says there is no danger of an increase in the disease and that unless new cases develop, the city will be free of scarlet fever within two weeks. The ten cases which are now quarantined have been in quarantine much longer than the law requires, the health officer says.

SWINDLER OF ELKS IS ARRESTED HERE

New York Man is Caught Working "Hard Luck" Game Here.

Because a member of the local Elks' Lodge had a post card from Meriden, Conn., warning the members to be on their guard against Thomas A. Murray, holding membership card No. 669, Murray's plea for funds with which to get to Chicago led to his arrest by Sergeant McNally last night.

Murray arrived in town last evening at 7 o'clock and went to the Elks' club where he asked members to advance money so he could continue on his way to Chicago. When Murray presented his card which was the same as that given on the warning, police headquarters were notified.

That he had been traveling over the country getting money from different lodges was the statement made by Murray after his arrest. He said a member of the Elks' Lodge at Niagara had cashed a check of $25 for him on the First National Bank at Wallingford, N. Y. Although he had carried an account in this bank, he had no money in it when he gave the check to the Niagara Elks.

A telegram from Secretary H. A. W. Pragenman, of the Meriden lodge, who was notified of Murray's arrest, authorized the local officers to take Murray's membership card, and let the law take its course. The lodge at Niagara has also been notified, but no word has been received from it.

Murray is being held for further investigation.

RAISE TAX RATE AT SPRING GROVE
Citizens Increase Rate Five Cents Because of Improvements.

The tax rate for Spring Grove was raised five cents upon recommendation of officials of the community at last evening's monthly session of the council. Many new street and other public improvements necessitated the raising of the tax rate for the ensuing year.

The election committee of the council held a meeting shortly after the regular session and decided that a citizens' convention, to nominate a ticket for the November elections, would be held Monday evening, Oct. 20th. The city clerk, treasurer, two trustees and a marshal will be nominated by the mass convention.

Party politics does not have much strength in the election of the community, but at times the preliminaries are hard fought. No person has started a campaign for the nomination of any of the officers at this time although it is expected that in a few days the candidates will be in the field.

Lindley Says Students Are Not All Scholars

That a student is not necessarily a scholar was the general theme of a very able discussion given today to the students of Earlham College in chapel exercises by Professor Harlow Lindley of the history department.

Prof. Lindley took up the proposition that it is just as possible for a farmer, a shop worker or a day laborer to have a deep insight into the truths and beauties of nature and politics as it is for the professor, the financial magnate or the man of leisure. In other words the matter of a man's occupation need not have anything to do with his particular aesthetic feeling or ability.

Must Use Schooling.
Prof. Lindley developed the idea that a real scholar is not the man who attends college and stores up in his mind an abundant accumulation of dry facts, but that the real scholar is one who can derive fundamental truths from college courses, which will give him a working knowledge of human nature that can be applied in everyday life. The real scholar is the one who can read the things of the past, not with the idea of remembering the events for their own sake, but looking into the past with an idea of being better able to interpret the things of the present and of predicting the things of the future.

"Every man," said Prof. Lindley, "has a right to exercise his greatest influence on his fellow men, and the realization of this fact should stimulate every man to get the very best information that is to be obtained in order that his influence may have the best effects on society."

Giles Urges Friendship.
Supt. Giles of the Richmond schools was present at the chapel exercises and was introduced to the students of the college by Pres. Kelly as a "Freshman" who has come to the city to mingle with the students and with the college as a whole. Supt. Giles made a few remarks to the effect that he hoped the friendly feeling which has so long existed between the city schools and Earlham College might continue.

CHURCHES APPOINT SYNOD DELEGATES
Olive Branch Lutherans to be Represented at Louisville Next Week.

Delegates to the Olive Branch Lutheran Synod at Louisville, Ky., next week, from the First Lutheran church will be appointed by the church council tonight. The Second and St. Paul's churches have named their representatives. The synod is one of the largest in this section of the United States as churches in Southern Indiana, Tennessee, Kentucky and Ohio will be represented.

Many visitors from the Richmond churches are expected to attend some of the sessions. The delegates from the Woman's Missionary society of the Richmond churches are: Mrs. Anna Engelbrecht, Mrs. William Roney, and Mrs. Adam Barish, First church; Mrs. William Deitmer, Second church, and Mrs. Emma Spertling, St. Paul's church. Mrs. Lee B. Nusbaum will act as recording secretary for the synod.
