

SULZER ASKS BOSS TO CALL OFF TRIAL

Son of T. F. Ryan Testifies Executive Requested This Step.

$25,000 BRIBE OFFER

Impeached Man Spurns Acceptance of Large Sum of Money.

ALBANY, New York, Oct. 7.—Allen Ryan, son of Thomas F. Ryan, the trust magnate, testified before the court of impeachment today that Governor Sulzer had requested him to get Delancy Nicoll to use his influence with Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, to call off the impeachment trial. This was the first time that any testimony had been brought out to show that Sulzer had appealed to the men who had ordered his impeachment. Ryan said Sulzer told him he positively wanted Murphy seen and he was willing to do what was right if the impeachment could be dropped.

When Ryan had completed his story, Thomas Boardley was introduced to say that he had offered Governor Sulzer $25,000 and that it had been refused. The court by 23 to 42 refused to admit this testimony. The court of impeachment today decided in executive session to submit the testimony made by the Republican members of the court influenced by their state leaders, Senator Elihu Root and William Barnes.

Court Reverses Stand. Presiding Judge Cullin had barred this testimony and had been upheld upon the appeal from the decision. The vote today upon which the court reversed itself was 41 to 14.

Young Ryan, recalled to the stand, admitted that he had made an effort to ascertain the attitude of the Republican senators upon the validity of the Sulzer impeachment as requested by the governor.

Ryan today testified that Sulzer wanted the court to vote that the assembly did not have the right to impeach him or try him, and had asked him (Ryan) to get Nicoll to do these things. Sulzer told Ryan to tell Nicoll he had ten Democratic votes in his favor. Ryan told Sulzer he would do what he could, but did not see Nicoll. Instead he went into the country and forgot about it.

FILES SUIT AGAINST CITY OF RICHMOND

Mrs. Jennie Taylor Demands $3,500 Damages for Personal Injuries.

Asking $3,500, Mrs. Jennie Taylor, wife of George Taylor, 131 Chestnut street, today filed suit in the Wayne circuit court against the City of Richmond.

Mrs. Taylor and her eleven-year-old daughter were walking across the Doran bridge on the night of August 7th, when a projecting spike in the plank walk caught the dress of the former, throwing her forcibly to the walk and causing injuries to her head, shoulders, back, limbs, side and ribs, it was alleged in the complaint.

Mrs. Taylor says she has had the constant services of physicians since the accident. She served a legal notice of the fall to Mayor Zimmerman, but no action was taken nor investigation made of the case, she says.

C. Mackay Far From Alienation Suit

Clarence Mackay, the multi-millionaire head of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Companies, whose wife, one of the most beautiful and intellectual women in America, is said to have been served with notice of a suit for alienation brought by Mrs. Katherine Ketcham Blake. Mr. Mackay left for Europe, incognito, last June, accompanied by his three children on the day on which he is said to have had an appointment with his wife. It is known that Mrs. Mackay was not aware of her husband's plan to take the children for Europe. Mrs. Blake's husband is Dr. Joseph Blake, the noted surgeon, and the papers in the case are said to have been served soon after Mr. Mackay's departure.

Optimistic Regarding Night School Venture

The opening session of the night school will be held tonight in the auditorium of the Richmond high school building.

Up until late this afternoon more than five hundred persons have taken advantage of the night sessions, but I expect about twenty-five more by tonight," announced Principal Pickell, who will have supervision of the evening sessions.

For the last two days Principal Pickell and assistants have made tour of the industrial and business houses, handing out circulars telling of the night school work. Hundreds of shop boys and girls have availed themselves of the opportunity and will report for work tonight.

Get-Acquainted Session. The first session will be for the purpose of getting acquainted, and no books will be needed tonight. It is planned to divide the students into classes, and then each teacher in charge of a class will make the necessary assignments for the next session, which will be held Friday night. The school will start at 7:15 o'clock.

Principal Pickell is optimistic regarding the success of the venture and expects to maintain a large attendance throughout the twenty weeks of school. Many students took advantage of the opportunity to register in the school by telephone. Last night more than thirty names were placed on the roll in this manner.

Many Subjects Taught. Practically every subject taught in day school will be available to the night pupils. Principal Pickell has selected a teaching force of twenty instructors to handle the night classes. Those on the faculty will be as follows: Miss Emma Bond, sewing; G. Andrew Steeley, commercial arithmetic; J. P. Santer, mathematics; Miss Edna Johnson, German; Robert Nohr, physical training for men; Miss Keturah Parsons, cooking; Prof. Vickrey, manual training; C. O. Mays, manual training; Miss Belle Bishop, typewriting; Prof. Gillespie, shorthand; Miss Alice Locke, free-hand drawing; C. E. Strait, manual training; S. V. Cook, science; W. C. Conrad, debating and English; R. A. Wishard, history; Miss Kelsey, millinery; A. M. Tschaen, penmanship; Miss Harriet Thompson, English, and W. O. Wissler, history.

SPENCER REGARDED REMARKABLE CONVICT

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—In spite of his dope dream confession Spencer is a remarkable murderer," said Captain Halpin today. "I am sure he has killed several persons. He is the most remarkable prisoner ever arrested in Chicago."

Spencer today admitted he had lied about several crimes he confessed and about others he said he was mistaken. He still insisted that his victims numbered more than a score. Evidence had been obtained that supported his confession of the Mrs. Annabel Wright in Chicago. Evidence tending to support Spencer in his confession of the murder of a girl named Jessie Connors of St. Joseph, Mich., was received today. The sheriff at St. Joseph wired the Chicago police today that he had found evidence of such a crime.

CANDIDATES FILE EXPENSES TO DATE

Nominees Have Until October 18 to Place Reports in Clerk's Hands.

All candidates for city offices in the coming election with the exception of Democratic candidates for council, have filed the reports of nomination expenses with the clerk. These men have until October 18 to file their reports.

The last of the Republicans, B. B. Myrick filed his report yesterday with no expenses, no promises made and a contribution of $5 for the general party expenses.

Of the four Democratic nominees who have given an account of their campaign for nomination only one, Henry Farwig, candidate for mayor, had any expenses. Farwig reports $2 for livery hire, with no promises made. The others, Isaac Burns, candidate for city clerk, Henry Steinbrink and E. A. Fulle, councilmanic candidates, said they spent no money in securing their nominations.

CHANGE IN HOUR TO HOLD SERVICE

Beginning Sunday evening the services at St. Paul's Lutheran church will start at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30 o'clock. This action was taken at the third quarterly meeting held last evening in the church parlors. Throughout the winter this change will be in effect.

Chris Behring, who, until a few days ago had been sexton for a period of twenty-five years, was presented with a gift consisting of $25 in gold as an appreciation of his long and faithful service. C. W. Seine was chosen to succeed Behring. Seine formerly was a janitor in the Richmond public schools.

The report of the various committees showed the church to be in a prospering condition. An increased membership was reported. During the past quarter many repairs have been made to the church property.
