

BEGIN FIRE STATION AT FOUNTAIN CITY

Expect to Push Work and Complete Building Before Winter.

FOUNTAIN CITY, Ind., Oct. 7.—Work on the new fire engine house has been commenced and will be pushed forward to an early completion.

El H. Thomas is erecting a new house in the south end of town which he will make his home. A number of people from Fountain City and vicinity are planning to attend the Fall Festival and Home Coming at Winchester this week. There is some talk of getting up a Booster's party from Fountain City.

Mr. and Mrs. Eular Clark have gone to Louisville, Kentucky, to spend a week with the former's sister, Mrs. Ida Innis and family.

Mrs. Axie Hampton has advertised a public sale of her household effects for next Saturday afternoon shortly after which she will leave for the east to spend the winter with her son, J. B. Hampton, at Rutherford, New Jersey.

Will Give Play.

The young people of Fountain City are planning for another home talent play to be given some time this fall. The play given last fall was a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gardner and son of Richmond, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Gardner over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nixon of Chicago, have been the guests of his mother, Mrs. Louise Nixon. Mrs. Nixon will probably return to Chicago with them to spend a few weeks after which she will go to the Gulf coast for the winter. Miss Margaret Nixon will accompany her on her trip south.

Miss Ethel Graham, of Richmond, was the guest of Miss Marie Rotts, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brooks and daughter Miss Esther, motored to Muncie to spend Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Clark.

New gardeners in the area have practically completed their fall road tax work and have taken out an unusually large amount of gravel this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Townsend were up from Richmond Sunday the guests of relatives.

Breaks Ribs in Fall.

"Duke" Jarrett, brother of J. M. Jarrett, of this place, was severely injured last week when he fell on a heavy timber and broke three ribs while at work on a bridge south of Milton. Mr. Jarrett is foreman of a bridge construction gang under I. E. Smith, of Richmond.

Mrs. Walter Faber and children, of Fort Harrison, Kentucky, were visiting here with her mother, Mrs. J. C. Fulghum, a few days.

Mrs. Henry Stanton, of Richmond, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eli H. Thomas, previous to leaving for Detroit, Michigan, to join Mr. Stanton, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Irvin Haisley, of Spiceland, and Mrs. Marion Shreve, of Indianapolis, were visiting their mother, Mrs. Matilda Clements two days last week. Charles Price, of Winchester, was in town last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hensley are the parents of a baby boy, born last Wednesday. Alva Haisley, of Winchester, was shaking hands with old friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Orlando Catey, of Williamsburg, was in Fountain City Saturday, enroute home from Springfield, Mo., where she attended the wedding of her son, Murray Parsons. The newly married couple will make their home in St. Louis where Mr. Parsons is district manager for the Goodyear Rubber company.

Mrs. Ruford Wooley and baby are visiting Mrs. Woolley's sister, Mrs. Clarence Pickett, at Dayton, Ohio.

CHRONIC DYSPEPSIA.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellsville, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.

(Advertisement)

MASONIC CALENDAR

Tuesday, October 7, 1913, Richmond Lodge No. 196, F. & A. M. Stated meeting and work in Master Mason degree, commencing promptly at 7 o'clock.

Wednesday, Oct. 8, 1913, Webb Lodge, No. 24, F. & A. M., 90th anniversary celebration of Webb Lodge.

IF CONSTIPATED OR BILIOUS "CASCARETS"

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels.

Get a 10-cent box. Take a Cascaret tonight to cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous, upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—ore merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.—Adv.

GOV. W. SULZER IS CONFIDENT

PHOTO BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

GOVERNOR WILLIAM SULZER, who is confident that he will be acquitted by the court of impeachment before which he is being tried in Albany.

FAIRHAVEN, OHIO

L. S. Foley is visiting in the Queen City.

Mrs. Van Dyke returned from Cincinnati Saturday.

Miss Faye Ramsey and Mr. Marion Lybrook attended the Fall Festival at Richmond Friday.

Several of the Morning Sun high school girls were here Friday visiting the high school.

Mrs. Ida Wilson and Miss Bead of College Corner called on Miss Sarah Larch one day this week.

Mr. James Stewart and family visited Mr. Jacob Stewart and family Sunday.

Messrs. Clem Ramsey, Orla Ramsey, Morton Doty, Harry Austin and James Pierson attended the Hamilton fair Thursday.

Miss Laura Hawes visited Mrs. Cramer at Richmond this week and attended the Fall Festival.

Mrs. Mabel Simpson and Miss Abbie Gillingham called on Miss Mabel Evans Saturday evening.

Miss Emma Fisher visited Mr. Matthew Brown and family this week. Other guests at Brown's Sunday were Mr. Bert Berradaile and wife, Mr. Oscar Humbert and son, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hicks of Milton, in honor of the fortieth wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Kaufman, of Cambridge City.

Mr. Matthew Brown and wife leave this week for Nebraska.

MILTON

MILTON, Ind., Oct. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bertsch and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bertsch, near Milville.

Mrs. Amanda Needham entertained as her guests, Mrs. Maggie Burns of Rushville, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilde Burns of Memphis, Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Clifton have been entertaining at their guest Mrs. Mary Grimes, of Connersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Brattain entertained as their guests at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Kidwell, Mr. and Mrs. George Yohler, Mr. J. J. Kellam and son, Mr. and Mrs. George Keever, Miss Mae Keever and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller and daughter.

Louis Johnson and Lloyd Parkins were hunting walnuts south of Milton Saturday and brought in about six bushels, Saturday afternoon.

Entertains Guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunt had as their guest, Sunday, Miss Etta Mustin and Howard Cox, of Cambridge City.

Mrs. E. B. Newman had as her guests at dinner Sunday, Mrs. Eliza, both Atkinson, of Milton and Miss Charlotte Newman, of Cambridge City.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bryant entertained as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Bryant and family, of Dublin, Mrs. Mary Bryant of Harrisburg and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bryant and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Wagner entertained at dinner, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams, of south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kellam and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Kellam, east of town. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Williams, of Cambridge City, were also guests.

R. P. Calloway and aunt, Mrs. Ma Linda Barton, entertained as their guests, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Canby and daughter, of Richmond and their guest, Mrs. Prather, of Georgetown, Ohio.

Mrs. Martha Ward has closed her work at the overall factory at Cambridge City. She had worked there several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Crook and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Beeson and daughter, of Cambridge City, autotod to Springfield to visit the museum Sunday.

Mrs. Julia Ball returned Monday from Indianapolis where she visited her sons, John Seiver and George Wilson, over Sunday.

Miss Mary Caldwell left Monday enroute to Knightstown, where she will attend the wedding of Miss Minnie Simmons, Wednesday evening.

Lynville Wallace and Mrs. Anna Wallace were guests at dinner, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Griffin, of Connersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Kirlin, of east of town, entertained as their guest Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Jackson and family, of Centerville, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Cramer of north of East Germantown, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kirlin, of Milton.

F. M. Jones remembered several of his neighbors and friends with post.

AGENT GIVES TALKS "PRETTIEST GIRL" FINDS HUSBAND

Cobb Tells Farmers to Select Seed Corn.

In connection with the corn seed selection meetings conducted by County Agent Cobb this week, a list of suggestions has been issued by Cobb who believes that the farmers will find better results from their corn crops next year if they will follow the advice in looking out corn for sowing at this time.

"The heavy frost will start soon," said Mr. Cobb. "After the corn has been struck by the frost it is much more difficult to select it. Heretofore it has been the custom to wait until husking time or until the following spring to select the ears and the result has been unsatisfactory."

Meetings for the purpose of furnishing further information to farmers started today at Centerville and will continue over the county until all farmers have had a chance to hear the talks which Mr. Cobb will give. The talk this afternoon was at the farm of H. J. Commons, south of Centerville.

cards from Toronto, Canada. They write that they are having a fine time. Among those from Milton who attended the funeral of the late John Flinn, at Cambridge City, Monday morning, were R. E. Calloway, W. L. Parkins, Walter Templin, W. H. Brown of Milton, Masonic lodge. The Rehoboth Lodge will meet in called meeting, this evening.

Miss Lorene Warren spent Sunday with the Misses Mary Jones and Lucella Lantz, at Earlham.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Higham entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hackleman, of Harrisburg. Other guests in the afternoon were James Murphy and a friend, from Connersville, and the Misses Mabel Scott and Agnes Connell.

Visit Mother.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Warren and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Warren and family, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Warren.

Mrs. Charles Croswater and family are here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Colbert Croswater.

Glenn Elwell is attending St. Mary's military school at Dayton.

Mrs. Sarah Husey returned home from a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Park Manlove, near Hagerstown, Monday.

Miss Nellie Ward spent a few days last week with relatives at Brookville. Friends at Milton regret that Mrs. John Flinn and family, who accompanied the body of her late husband, John Flinn, to Cambridge City for burial, could not come here and spend a few days. She had to return immediately.

Mrs. Susan E. Wilson was able to go riding Sunday.

Mrs. Will Verkes of south of town, entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Harris and daughter of Dublin, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Usher and family, Mrs. Elizabeth Bertsch, Miss Etta Kaufman, of Cambridge City, L. B. Smith and daughter of Hagerstown, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hicks of Milton, in honor of the fortieth wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Kaufman, of Cambridge City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Bradbury, Messrs. W. H. Bradbury, E. B. Harned of Richmond, and A. W. Bradbury, of this city, were the guests Sunday of Mrs. Martha Mundell.

Mr. John Stahr and daughter of Richmond, were visitors Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marson.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Porterfield of Boston, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Warner Gard and Mr. and Mrs. Rife Gard, of Westville, motored to this city Sunday and called on Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Steele.

Oscar Fisher of this city, one of the older residents of the town, died suddenly Monday morning. He was apparently in his usual health and had come in from a trip down town a few minutes prior to his death. He was in the act of putting up a stove, when he was stricken. Turning to his wife, he re-

COBB TO ATTEND AGENTS' MEETING

Social relations of farmers will be the chief subject of discussion at the conference of county agents at Lafayette October 13 and 14, which will be attended by the Wayne county agent, A. D. Cobb. This is one of the questions which Mr. Cobb is dealing with at present.

Mr. Cobb has made a study of the social relations of the farmers in this county and organized one association of farmers which is called the Columbia Farmers' association.

CAMBRIDGE CITY

A. K. Steele sent Monday in Indianapolis.

O. L. Calloway returned Monday evening after having spent Sunday with Mrs. Calloway.

Mr. N. Study and daughter, Mrs. May Boden, spent the day Tuesday in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Charles Myers attended a meeting of the Priscilla Club, Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. C. McCormick of Milton.

James White, of Columbus, Ohio, spent Sunday with friends in Cambridge City.

Miss Charlotte Newman entered upon her duties as stenographer for the Paul Casket Company, Monday morning.

New Castle Visitor.

Miss Goldie Miller spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Erie McNutt, of New Castle.

Charles Hebbler, and Mrs. Mary Kaufman, and daughter Marie, of Richmond, were visitors Sunday.

End That Sour Stomach! SAMUEL'S "3-P" Does It!

Indigestion and All Its Symptoms Just Vanish.

You Can Eat What You Want

Many a man and woman is to-day suffering the discomfort and distress of a bad stomach, indigestion, bloating, no energy and feeling generally "rotten" all the time who can quickly get rid of it if they will begin using Samuel's "Three-P" capsules.

A prescription after the formula of a noted French physician, with all its ingredients plain, simple and powerful, the ingredients that are used and endorsed by other physicians all over the world.

Thousands of men and women take these harmless "Three-P" capsules after heavy meals, eat what they want and never suffer stomach distress, but only business indigestion, but build up the whole system, making one feel full of the energy that makes life worth living. Don't deprive yourself another day of the pleasures of eating, drinking and enjoying life. Get Samuel's "Three-P". You are sure to be happy over it.

Good druggists everywhere sell Samuel's "Three-P" capsules, two sizes, 25c and 50c. Or order direct from The Samuel Chemical Company, Cincinnati, Ohio. Sold by Clem Thistlethwaite's drug stores and other "live" druggists everywhere. Insist on Samuel's "Three-P". There's nothing "just as good."

(Advertisement)

Miss Marie Taylor, a young New York bud, who was described this summer by the Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch as "the most beautiful girl in America," and who is now rumored to have plighted her troth with one of the many eligibles who have been following in her wake for the last year or more.

mond, were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Ward and Miss Cora Hebbler.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Drake have returned to Indianapolis after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hamilton.

Miss Elizabeth Wissler returned from Richmond today in which city she has spent the past few days with friends and last evening attended a meeting of the Trifolium Literary Society at the home of Miss Tina Engelbrecht.

Henry Schneider of Richmond is spending a few days in the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Ward.

Mrs. J. E. Brooks and daughter, Miss Beesie, will go to Cincinnati at the close of the week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Miller of Hyde Park.

Mrs. Henry Kedzie of Memphis, Tenn., arrived Monday to visit her sister and niece, Mrs. Case, and Mrs. Charles Billheimer.

David Wissler of New Castle spent Sunday with M. L. Young and family.

Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Stratton and son visited relatives in Knightstown Sunday.

Richmond Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Bradbury, Messrs. W. H. Bradbury, E. B. Harned of Richmond, and A. W. Bradbury, of this city, were the guests Sunday of Mrs. Martha Mundell.

Mr. John Stahr and daughter of Richmond, were visitors Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marson.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Porterfield of Boston, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Warner Gard and Mr. and Mrs. Rife Gard, of Westville, motored to this city Sunday and called on Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Steele.

Oscar Fisher of this city, one of the older residents of the town, died suddenly Monday morning. He was apparently in his usual health and had come in from a trip down town a few minutes prior to his death. He was in the act of putting up a stove, when he was stricken. Turning to his wife, he remarked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

HOG CHOLERA LOSES COUNTY BIG AMOUNT

11,305 Swine Die From Ravages of Disease in Wayne County.

Hog cholera and other diseases of swine cost the farmers of Wayne county last year, 11,305 animals, valued at $82,506. The total loss in the state of Indiana exceeded $3,500,000, according to the annual report of the state statistician.

From 1900 to 1910 the number of deaths from hog cholera has shown an alarming increase with the years 1904 and 1911 standing out as the ones in which the heaviest toll was reaped.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.

marked that he felt queer and sat down in a chair. His wife hastened to him, but he had expired before she could reach him. Mr. Fisher was seventy-four years of age and was twice married, the first time to Flora Watson of Crawfordsville, who died while her family of three children were quite small. The second marriage was to Miss Margaret Pumphrey of Cambridge City. The widow, two sons, Charles Albert Fisher of Chicago, Emmett A. Fisher, of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. John Martin and Miss Rose Fisher, of this city, survive him.