

DISCOVER NEW LAW IN 1913 STATUTES

County Officials Find Trans- fer Tax Law Has Local Bearing.

Another new law has been found on the 1913 statutes, which is part of the inheritance tax law. It is the transfer tax law, which provides for the recording of receipts for the payment of the inheritance tax.

Only one inheritance tax has been paid since the law went into effect, it being that of the heirs of Philip Miller. The one per cent of the estate less a small discount was about $89. To obtain a duplicate receipt for the amount, the administrators of the estate paid fifty cents as provided by law.

The duplicate receipt showing the payment of the inheritance and describing the amount of the inheritance of the various heirs, is the one which may be recorded. The heirs of Philip Miller estate did not take advantage of the law, probably because nothing was known of it.

Books have been sent for in which to record the duplicate receipt. The amount of the fee for recording the receipt was not stated in the law and consequently, should any heirs desire to have a record made of their receipt, the county recorder would be unable to transact business with them until the state department replies to his letter.

The necessary books for the recording of farm names under the 1913 statute, have also been sent for. So far, no one has made application to record a farm name, in this county.

JUNIOR CLASS ELECTS

Charles Semler Heads 1915 Earlhamites.

The Junior class at Earlham college chose the following officers at a meeting held in Lindley Hall, this noon: Charles Semler, president; Howard Elliott, vice president; Luella Wells, secretary; Cyrus Lancaster, treasurer; Howard Kinne, marshal; Irvin Schultz, vice marshal; and Margaret Cox, chairman of social committee.

Sixty-five students and members of the Earlham Athletic association held the annual business meeting in Bundy Hall yesterday at noon. R. Lamb was chosen president; Howard Kinderman, vice-president; Robert Fisher, secretary; M. Mills, treasurer; H. A. Brown, graduate manager; Harris Cox advertising manager; F. H. Little, tennis manager; H. Little, freshman; Harris Cox, sophomore; Morris Bogue, junior; and Paul Wolf, senior, as members of the student council. John Cox and Harris Cox were selected to represent the association in the college social committee.

Coach Reagan will represent the school at the May session of the Indiana College Athletic Association. At this meeting the prospects for college athletics will be discussed and any recommendations for amendments in the present constitution of the association will be considered.

WORLD SERIES NOTES

Judging by their work in Wednesday's game, Plank will be able to come back stronger than Matty. Despite the hard game in which he was placed, the Gettysburg southpaw seemed to be working with utmost ease all the way, while Matty looked to be putting everything he had on the ball. Followers of the Mackmen have always admitted that Matty's first game was the one they feared and the score shows they had the right idea. But those who opined that good Eddie Plank was all in, must have felt foolish when they saw this 40-year-old veteran toying with the National league champs. With any kind of ball playing Plank should have won in nine innings, but this is not to be taken as a reflection on Mathewson, who once more demonstrated he is the wonder of the age.

Some of those Gotham fans who have the idea the sun sets as soon as it goes over the Hudson river, are telling the folks the Giants deserve extra credit for winning with a crippled team. Let them call it a crippled outfit if they wish, but just put it down sub are the gents who won the game for the New Yorkers Wednesday, leaving the great Matty out of the game.

Barring his needle work, Larry McLean is the superior of Chet Myers in every department of the game. He is surer hitter when matters of importance are at stake, for he has no nervous system, and everything is play for the former Red-Leg backstop. He has a much better arm and he doesn't have to wind up like a pitcher to throw the ball to second base.

The world's series career of the Indians shows the latter to be absent in a pinch, while Larry is the lad, who started the rally for the Giants in the tenth inning Wednesday. Larry is just as fast, or perhaps just as slow, as Myers on the bases, and excepting a little inside stuff the Indian was never missed. In fact, it looks as if the Giants were benefited when he was hurt in Wednesday's practice.

J. Leslie Bush, Connie Mack's latest twirling star, is not yet 20 years old. He hails from Brainerd, Minn., which is the home town of Chet Bender.

While on their way to the station in taxicabs after the game of yesterday in New York, Murphy, Bender and McInnis were assaulted by hoodlums, who threw several stones at them before the police dispersed the crowd.

DEMOCRATS FILE EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

Reporting no money spent in their campaigns for nomination or no promises made, five Democratic candidates for the council filed their expense accounts with the city clerk this afternoon. Those who filed reports are Addison Mumford, Charles C. Harlan, William E. Wilkins, Joseph M. Welterman and Frank Bramcamp.

RAILROAD PERSONALS

Glen Donner, Pennsylvania freight foreman, of Logansport, is visiting in Richmond today.

WRITES NEW BOOK DESERTERS ASSAULT EARLHAM PROFESSOR PRINTS CLOTHING DEALER

EARLHAM PROFESSOR PRINTS LECTURES ON ETHICS.

Dr. Herschel Coffin, head of the department of psychology and philosophy at Earlham college, has written a book on "The Social Conscience." The book is made up of a series of lectures which Dr. Coffin used in his courses last year and he expects to use the book as a text book for his course in ethics during the second semester if it comes out by that time.

The book is intended primarily as a text book for colleges as a normal school.

Dr. Coffin takes up the subject of ethics from a social point of view, treating the social conditions from the institutional side of society. He devotes five chapters in the latter part of the book to the five institutions which have to do directly with the social conditions of society, namely, home, school, vocation, state and church, and he develops as his criterion the "socialized personality."

Books have been sent for in which to record the duplicate receipt. The amount of the fee for recording the receipt was not stated in the law and consequently, should any heirs desire to have a record made of their receipt, the county recorder would be unable to transact business with them until the state department replies to his letter.

The necessary books for the recording of farm names under the 1913 statute, have also been sent for. So far, no one has made application to record a farm name, in this county.

DEALING IN WOOL BROADENS MARKET

CONSERVATIVE ESTIMATES GIVE TOTAL TRANSFERS AS FULLY 3,800,000 POUNDS.

BOSTON, Oct. 10.—Dealing in wool has broadened in the local market, though the aggregate of sales does not quite measure up to that for the previous week. Conservative estimates give a total transfer as fully 3,800,000 pounds. This is composed largely of territories, graded and in the original bags, but also contains a fair proportion of foreign fine wools and domestic fleeces.

Manufacturers show a little more readiness to pay asking prices, though it is claimed that dealers are more disposed to meet the views of buyers. London continues to show strength with American buyers taking considerable wool mainly cross-breds. Receipts of wool in pounds for the week ended and including Wednesday were as follows:

1913	1912
Domestic 1,917,330	2,545,654
Foreign 134,524	3,350,463
Total 2,051,854	5,876,127

Total receipts of 2,051,854 pounds compare with 3,392,611 for the preceding week of which 2,806,400 were domestic.

Receipts in pounds from and including January 1, 1913, as compared with the corresponding period in 1912 were as follows:

1913	1912
Domestic 140,688,360	211,517,204
Foreign 50,272,291	110,694,575
Totals 190,960,951	322,211,779

JEWS ARE TO HOLD PASSEOVER SERVICE

Passover will be observed by Richmond Jews, beginning this evening with services in the Odd Fellows hall and concluding tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock. The services will be conducted by a Rabbi from Cincinnati.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS TO MEET TONIGHT

Football players who desire to try out for the Richmond Independent team are requested to report to Geo. Brehm's store at 8 o'clock this evening. A meeting will be held at this time to discuss plans for the coming season and to make some arrangements for future games.

Judgment by their work in Wednesday's game, Plank will be able to come back stronger than Matty. Despite the hard game in which he was placed, the Gettysburg southpaw seemed to be working with utmost ease all the way, while Matty looked to be putting everything he had on the ball. Followers of the Mackmen have always admitted that Matty's first game was the one they feared and the score shows they had the right idea. But those who opined that good Eddie Plank was all in, must have felt foolish when they saw this 40-year-old veteran toying with the National league champs. With any kind of ball playing Plank should have won in nine innings, but this is not to be taken as a reflection on Mathewson, who once more demonstrated he is the wonder of the age.

Some of those Gotham fans who have the idea the sun sets as soon as it goes over the Hudson river, are telling the folks the Giants deserve extra credit for winning with a crippled team. Let them call it a crippled outfit if they wish, but just put it down sub are the gents who won the game for the New Yorkers Wednesday, leaving the great Matty out of the game.

Barring his needle work, Larry McLean is the superior of Chet Myers in every department of the game. He is surer hitter when matters of importance are at stake, for he has no nervous system, and everything is play for the former Red-Leg backstop. He has a much better arm and he doesn't have to wind up like a pitcher to throw the ball to second base.

The world's series career of the Indians shows the latter to be absent in a pinch, while Larry is the lad, who started the rally for the Giants in the tenth inning Wednesday. Larry is just as fast, or perhaps just as slow, as Myers on the bases, and excepting a little inside stuff the Indian was never missed. In fact, it looks as if the Indians were benefited when he was hurt in Wednesday's practice.

J. Leslie Bush, Connie Mack's latest twirling star, is not yet 20 years old. He hails from Brainerd, Minn., which is the home town of Chet Bender.

While on their way to the station in taxicabs after the game of yesterday in New York, Murphy, Bender and McInnis were assaulted by hoodlums, who threw several stones at them before the police dispersed the crowd.

DEMOCRATS FILE EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

Reporting no money spent in their campaigns for nomination or no promises made, five Democratic candidates for the council filed their expense accounts with the city clerk this afternoon. Those who filed reports are Addison Mumford, Charles C. Harlan, William E. Wilkins, Joseph M. Welterman and Frank Bramcamp.

RAILROAD PERSONALS

Glen Donner, Pennsylvania freight foreman, of Logansport, is visiting in Richmond today.

BOOK DESERTERS ASSAULT CLOTHING DEALER

CAPTURED IN UNDERGROWTH OF WILD REGION ON PATO- MAC RIVER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson, a second-hand clothing dealer, and with desertion, were captured today in the dense undergrowth of a wild region on Potomac River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Private Joseph Dennison and Albert R. Roberts of Company C, Engineer corps, U. S. A., charged with assaulting Abraham Yockelson,