

HAUGHTON REFUSES TO NUMBER TEAM

Harvard Coach Objects to Convict-Like Means of Identification.

PRINCETON APPROVES

Yale Coaches Stand Ready to Fall in Line For Improvement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Percy D. Haughton coach of the Harvard football team, yesterday kicked the wadding out of a nice little plan that would have kept lots and lots of perfectly respectable reporter persons from ultimate confinement in mad houses, and incidentally added about 99 44-100 per cent to the pleasure of the spectators whose dollars make football a paying proposition. Percy executed such a horrible deed while fully cognizant of the benefits that the adoption of such a plan would bring about, and also after it was explained to him that Yale and Princeton authorities thought the scheme a mighty good one, and one in which they would gladly join if it were universally adopted.

The plan simply called for the numbering of the players who participate in the three big games each year in the east—Yale vs. Princeton, Harvard vs. Princeton and Yale vs. Harvard. Not Convicts' Game.

Haughton voiced his sentiment, perhaps after recalling the fact that the inmates of prisons are numbered. But he forgot to recall the equally important fact that prisoners are numbered to facilitate their identification. And so Haughton came forth with this objection:

"We are not staging a convicts' game. I prefer to have my men known as Tom, Dick and Harry, or not at all, if numbers are to be the only means of identification."

Haughton intimated that the public, in its clamor for the numbering of players, might go to blazes, or some equally terrible spot, holding to the belief that the games are staged for the benefit of the sports loving public, but merely to settle the football supremacy among the colleges and to provide the college boys with a little exercise.

Haughton evidently overlooked the fact that it is the public's money that indirectly pays his salary of $8,000 or so each year for about two hundred hours of work.

Princeton Man Approves.

In direct contrast with Haughton's attitude is that of Ross McCleave, chairman of the football advisory committee at Princeton, who declared: "Princeton always has approved the plan. It is no more than right that the players should be numbered so that the spectators who are paying money to support the game may know which men are making certain plays."

"We stand ready to adopt the plan, but, of course, do not wish to take the initiative. If the other big universities agree to the plan, we will gladly will put it into use here."

At Yale Coach Jones and Captain Ketcham declared they would gladly agree to any plan which would add to the pleasure of the spectators.

The adoption of the numbering plan would add greatly to the pleasure of the sport and make it possible for the spectators to follow the game in an intelligent manner. As matters now stand, less than one per cent of the spectators know the different players.

Prince of Wales and Germany's Crown Prince

Two recent and striking photographs of the Prince of Wales and Germany's Crown Prince, Frederick William, in military uniforms.

uniform of his favorite regiment. The two photographs make an exceptionally interesting comparison in view of the assertion frequently made abroad that the Prince of Wales is being made into a mollycoddle by his royal mother, Queen Mary, while the German Crown Prince has been made an extremely manly young man by his very warlike father, Emperor William II.

THREE JUNIORS TIE

The former record was eight feet eleven inches. Keeler finished second and Gates third.

EASTERN ELECTIONS ATTRACT ATTENTION

Probably the most awaited news from eastern elections last night was that from New York City where the Fusion candidate triumphed over Tammany with the selection of a Republican majority in the General Assembly.

Democrats triumphed completely in Massachusetts where a governor and the entire state ticket was elected in a four cornered fight. The state was carried by a majority of 50,000.

Henry C. Stuart was elected governor of Virginia on the Democratic ticket. New Jersey Democrats claim a safe plurality for James J. Fielder, who succeeded President Wilson in the gubernatorial chair of that state and had the support of the administration in his campaign.

NEW SUITS ORDERED FOR BASKETBALL TEAM

New suits for the varsity basketball squad of the high school have been ordered by Director Nohr for the following season. The shirts will be red with the letter "R" across the breast and the trousers will be gray instead of white. The trousers will have a red stripe down the seam. The color of the socks will be red and white. Much objection was raised last year because the team did not have uniform suits.

FILE COMPLAINTS AGAINST 2 GIRLS

William J. Cummins, former Tennessee drummer, whose conviction by the Appellate Division on the charge that he was a party to the theft of $140,000 from the defunct Carnegie Trust Company has been confirmed by the New York State Court of Appeals. As a result of this decision Cummins must serve a term of 8 years and six months in State's prison.

STEER BITES ITSELF

Animal Belonging to W. Jennings Attacked by Rabies.

Biting and tearing its own flesh, a steer belonging to W. Jennings, living on the Straight Line pike, went mad, Monday, and had to be killed. So far as is known the animal did not attack any of the other stock on the farm. It is believed one of the rabid dogs which bit several children in Boston township during the early fall attacked the animal. The dogs of the township are at present under a ninety-day quarantine to prevent the spread of the disease.

Clyde Smith, of this city, has been working with him for the past two months. He returned home for the winter yesterday. Medsker will make his home in Kansas City.

WALSH WINS RACE

Democratic Gubernatorial Nominee Easy Winner.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 5.—A plurality of 50,000 votes gave David L. Walsh, Democrat, the election to the office of governor. The Democratic leaders claim a complete victory in all state offices. The legislature remained Republican and with larger majorities.

The governor-elect will succeed Governor Foss after one term as lieutenant governor. He was elected to the office last year by almost 200,000 votes, the largest number of votes ever received by a Democratic candidate. He is forty-one years old.

Charles Sumner Bird, the Progressive candidate for governor, created a sensation in political circles by polling more votes than the Republican candidate, Augustus P. Gardner. He was an easy second in the race.

Cherry fritters can be served with meat as a separate course or as dessert. To make them prepare a batter of a cupful of flour, a teaspoonful of salt and half a teaspoonful of baking powder mixed with a tablespoonful of melted butter, a well beaten egg and enough water to make a thin batter. Steep ripe, pitted cherries until they are just tender—but do not cook them to pieces—and sweeten them. Drain them and add them to the batter. Drop it in spoonfuls into deep fat and fry brown. The juice drained from the cherries can be substituted for water to moisten the fritter batter.

Sour cherries are needed for cherry sherbet. Stone a quart of them. In the meantime boil together a quart of water and a pound of granulated sugar for fifteen minutes. Add the cherries to the hot sirup just as it is taken from the stove and strain until it is perfectly cold. Stand aside through a fine wire sieve and freeze. When you take out the dasher stir in a meringue made of the white of one egg sweetened with a tablespoonful of granulated sugar. Pack in ice for an hour or two.

Very Few Players Come Out For Practice.

FRANKLIN, Ind., Nov. 5.—The football squad was given a hard workout yesterday in preparation for the Hanover game. Football has slumped considerably here and the coach is having a hard time getting his men out for practice. Injuries to several players make the possibility of a victory over Hanover look slim.

Champions Alone Make Good Living According to Malottki.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—"Unless you are a champion, there is no money in prize fighting," declared Frank Malottki, known in the prize ring as Spike Kelly, to Municipal Judge Hyatt in the court of domestic relations. He was taken into court to make him pay his wife for the support of their child.

No Promotion.

The late Bishop Doane of Albany, a strict conservative, had his own views as to woman's place in the world. No feminist this good Tory bishop, no advocate of "newness" of any sort.

Bishop Doane believed in marriage of the real old fashioned kind, and to bridegrooms at weddings he used sometimes to make a little speech.

"My young friend," he would say to the pale and nervous bridegroom, patting him on the back, "you are now embarking on a long, hazardous voyage, and I bid you remember the Finnish proverb:

"For the Finnish sailors have a proverb to this effect: 'The man who on the ship of matrimony signs as mate will never get promoted.'"

RUFFLES AND FRILLS A-PLenty WITH JUST A TOUCH OF FUR

The only hint of winter in the gown today, unless it be a tailored street frock, is the strip of fur that trims it. In its long, slender lines this dress suggests a Directoire design, and a decidedly quaint effect is given by the easily be drawn through a bracelet were it not for the "hoop" at the bottom of the tunic. It may seem a trifle incongruous to have bands of fur on flimsy blouses that are scarcely more than breadths of lace veiled in chiffon, but what matters incongruity if the effect is smart and new? Certainly a rippling line of fur edging a transparent tunic gives a wonderful touch to a gown. Flouncings of net on the softest, most supple of taffetas is the charming combination seen in many of the dancing dresses. A suitable model for such materials is seen in 7972. The underbody.
