

ROMANCE OF FLOODS HAPPILY CULMINATES

Dr. Chas. Pavey and Louise Fielding Tell Story of Engagement.

TWAS WORK OF FATE

Bridegroom Run Down and Taken to Hospital Where He Met Bride.

A romance of the spring floods of 1912 calling up visions of hillsides of gold baked beans and water mountains of state bread with water to be had for every purpose except drinking was brought to light yesterday at the union station when Dr. Charles Pavey of Albany, New York, and Miss Louise Fielding of St. Louis met there and left a short time later to seek a license to wed in Covington, Ky.

Dr. Pavey is a lieutenant in the New York national guard. When the first wild reports of flooded Ohio cities reached the east, he rushed at once to New York City and caught the Paterson relief special which left for Dayton within a few hours after the news of the catastrophe was received.

Miss Fielding was visiting a sister in Youngstown at the time the waters of the Miami left their banks and submerged the city. She was a trained nurse and identified with the Red Cross service. Harkening to the call of her profession, she immediately started for the scene of the inundation. Traveling by steam, automobile and for the last few hours of the journey in a farmer's wagon she reached the city before the waters had scarcely started to recede. She was placed in charge of the temporary hospital which was placed at the Longfellow school house where a relief station had been established.

Fate jerked the strings blindly in her usual able manner, the lieutenant was run down by an automobile and taken past half a dozen temporary morgues and hospitals to the Longfellow school house where he met Miss Fielding and Cupid took charge.

When military law was lifted the lieutenant returned to his home. Miss Fielding left a few days later for St. Louis. Before they separated arrangements were made to carry on a correspondence.

The affair took the usual course laid down by Laura Jean Libby and other authorities on what shall happen when injured army officers are cared for by Red Cross nurses.

The couple arranged to be married in Dayton by an Episcopal minister, who became acquainted with them at the relief station. Owing to a change in schedule of trains, the prospective bridegroom got in town ahead of time, while the bride was delayed several hours. The latter was compelled to leave the city before she arrived.

The lieutenant at once wired her that they would meet in Richmond instead and he married her. On his way over a loquacious traveling man, who never suspected the cause of his acquaintance's questioning, informed the prospective bridegroom that non-residents can not be married in Indiana. He also told him that objections of this nature matter not in Kentucky.

So the couple stopped over half an hour in Richmond, told their story to an inquisitive newspaper man and then left Covington, Ky.

ASKS $5,000 DAMAGES

Wambsgans Alleges He Lost Hand By C. & O.'s Negligence.

Demand for $5,000 for personal damages was entered in circuit court by Albert Wambsgans against the C. & O. railroad company. The loss of a hand and of wages from incapacity to work, are named as separate items for damages.

Wambsgans was working for the company on a steam ditching machine train under orders of a superintendent. He says the superintendent instructed him to release a pulley which had been caught, and while he was doing this his hand and fingers were mangled. Amputation of the hand was necessary.

EXPLAINS METHOD OF STAMP SELLING

There seems to be considerable misunderstanding regarding the method of distribution of Red Cross Christmas seals in Richmond, according to Dr. S. Edgar Bond, of the Wayne County Anti-Tuberculosis society.

Seals have been placed on sale in a large number of downtown stores. The money derived will go directly to the society.

Arrangements have been made, whereby the selling campaign will be under the charge of the Domestic Science association. This organization will be assisted by a large number of women's clubs of the city. A house to house canvass will be made.

The money thus derived will be divided equally between the Anti-Tuberculosis society and the organization selling the seals. Half of the money obtained by the society will be retained in this county and the other half divided equally between the state and national organizations. The Anti-Tuberculosis society will have full charge of all sales made in the county outside of Richmond.

President at Work

Is he tracing a map of Mexico or planning a new currency bill? This picture made a few days ago in the Executive Offices of the White House shows President Wilson at work at his desk. Standing by his side is the popular "Joe" Tumulty, his right hand man and secretary. Much has been written about how the President works. He is said to operate his own typewriter, transcribe his own shorthand notes. Very often when discussing issues with callers he makes stenographic notes on a pad and it was said not long ago that he made shorthand notes of his Mobile speech on his cuff and referred to them as he spoke.

RECRUITING OFFICER REJECTS FOREIGNERS

Corporal Says All Recruits Must Be Able to Read and Write.

Because they were unable to read and write English, Mike Baranski, a Russian who had served in the Russian army, and Antony Leonardi, an Italian, were rejected for enlistment by local Recruiting Officer Abbott. Both were anxious to become American soldiers and left the station much disappointed.

Through a twelve-year-old boy, who interpreted for him the Italian, Leonardi, told Corporal Abbott he had wanted to become an American soldier ever since he came to this country. Although he could get the meaning from simple passages written in English Leonardi could not pronounce the words, and was able to use only a few English words.

Two reasons are generally given by foreigners who apply for positions in the army, according to Abbott. It gives them a chance to improve their education. Foreigners who have sufficient knowledge of the language to be admitted to the army, then receive training at the posts and barracks during the winter months. By the time their period of service has expired they have the fundamentals of an education which will enable them to rise above their fellow countrymen who have spent the same length of time working in the ditching and quarries.

Soldiers in the United States army are better housed, fed and clothed than those of most any other army in the world, said Corporal Abbott, which also is an inducement to the foreigners. These men are more saving than the American born soldier and will save a large part of their pay during their three years in the service, which enables them to start up in some kind of business for themselves.

MILK WAGON DRIVER INJURED IN ATTACK

Sporadic Strike Troubles Still Worry Police of Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—J. E. Sanfur, 27, driver of a milk wagon, was probably fatally injured by a brick hurled from a street car this morning. The brick struck Sanfur squarely in the stomach and he collapsed. A police emergency squad immediately began a search for the man who threw the brick.

"My future action here will be governed by developments later," said John B. Densmore, counselor of the federal department of labor, today. "If, on the return of any number of teamsters to work, the conditions remain acute, I shall ask for another conference with team owners with a view to conciliation. Otherwise I shall remain here until after Sunday as an observer of conditions."

"Indianapolis can hardly realize what it owes to President Tobin of the Teamsters' International Union, for his prompt action in averting a general strike. I am positive that his efforts to what was rapidly becoming a general demand among other labor leaders for a general strike."

MEN MASK AS WOMEN

Masquerade Is Complete Surprise to Fair Sex.

HAGERSTOWN, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown entertained at a masquerade party Thursday evening. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Whitesell, Joe Teeter, Frank Petro, Ora Wheeler, Frank Geisler, Bert Wycoff, Charles Teeter, John Teeter, Will Porter, Charles Working, Mrs. Emma Williams and Miss Hilda Jessup.

The ladies were invited by Mrs. Brown, as they thought, to a mask party of the fairer sex, and left their husbands at home to spend the evening alone. The gentlemen, however, also received invitations, but as a surprise to their wives were asked to say nothing and come to the home of Mrs. Brown at a later hour. The men banded together, dressed as women and made their appearance a half hour after the women arrived.

It was a complete surprise to the ladies, many of them having been caused much worry over the loss of appetite of their husbands at supper. A number of the men had come from work in a hurry, saying to their wives they were going to Cambridge City to a lodge meeting and would not have time to eat supper.

Mrs. Brown served a dinner in three courses at 7 o'clock, after which a hundred was played until a late hour.

GEN. HUERTA ORDERS DRAFTS FOR ARMY

All Classes Included in Conscription Plan of Dictator.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 6.—Extraordinary efforts are being made by General Huerta to increase his army. A bill was drafted today providing for general conscription throughout the federal districts and adjacent territory. It orders recruits to be chosen by lot and all males of military age are subject to its provisions.

Hitherto the government has made the lower classes bear the brunt of the warfare, but hereafter members of all classes must take their chances. This is likely to alienate many influential Mexicans who have hitherto supported the dictator, but he will leave no possible means of strengthening his army, unused.

Congress is expected to pass the bill immediately. The finances of the government are becoming worse daily. Today women were thrown out of work by an order preventing the making of clothes for the army. There are now 15,000 idle workers in the city.

General Maure today was appointed military commander of the capital. His appointment shows that Blanquet's influence is supreme in the cabinet.

MAJORITY SPEAKS ENGLISH LANGUAGE

Foreign Born Prefer English Tongue to Those of Mother Countries.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—That preponderance of foreign born white people in the United States speak the English tongue is revealed in a report on the native languages of the foreign white stock in the United States about to be issued by Director W. J. Harris, of the Bureau of Census, Department of Commerce.

The statistics in this report, prepared under the supervision of William C. Hunt, chief statistician for population, with the assistance of Dr. Daniel Folkmar, expert special agent, show that 31.1 per cent of the foreign white population of this country use the English tongue. German ranks next with 27.3 per cent while Italian is the next highest with 6.7 per cent. Polish follows with 5.3 per cent, and then follow in order Swedish, French and Norwegian. These eight tongues make up 85 per cent of the total, leaving 12.5 per cent distributed among the other foreign tongues.

These facts seem to contradict the popular impression that the influx of immigration from the south European countries is giving the latter representation of the total population of the United States in Latin, Greek and Slavonic languages.

How small a factor the news of immigration from southern and eastern Europe really is up to the present may be better shown by comparing it with the total white population of the United States. Of the total population of 100,000,000 the total white population of the United States in 1910, numbering 81,731,957, the so-called "white stock" constitutes 60.5 per cent and the three great linguistic families of foreign stock from northwestern Europe constitute 27.1 per cent, making a total of 87.6 per cent. The elements from southern and eastern Europe constitute, therefore, less than 13 per cent of the total. Of the two principal Latin mother tongues—the French and the Italian—constitute less than 5 per cent and the two principal Slavonic mother tongues—the Polish and the Bohemian—constitute also less than 5 per cent, leaving all the remaining mother tongues another 5 per cent or less of the total.

REPRESENTATIVE INDIANAPOLIS SALES

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—A nominal decline in prices which did not apply to all grades, followed a heavy receipt of hogs. Both local and outside demands are brisk and profit clearance was made. Heavier grades old mostly 10 cents lower and lighter grades averaged steady.

Extremely limited supply of cattle and calves at the finish of the week of light receipts induced early buyers at an advance of 10 to 25 cents over cattle. Feeders were unchanged, as were calves steady.

Sheep—There was a good outlet for a small run of sheep and lambs at strong prices, generally showing an advance of 25 cents over a week ago.

SUFFRAGET STALLS SECRETARY BRYAN

Asks if Women Have No Rights in Republican Government.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The first militant suffragist outbreak against an official of the American government was staged today when Secretary of State Bryan was challenged at the convention of the National popular government league with the cry, "How about justice for women?"

The secretary had just concluded a fervent address in behalf of popular rule declaring that no government is strong except in proportion that it represents the will of all its people. A tall slender woman arose in a seat near the front of the G. A. R. hall where the meeting is being held and called out, "How about women, Mr. Bryan? Are not women people?"

Her act "floored" the secretary for a moment. A dozen other women with angry gestures chimed in: "Yes, how about women? Answer that Mr. Secretary."

Mr. Bryan turned to the audience and struggling to control his voice, said: "Madam, I have no doubt that in all your work, you have followed your conscience and your judgment," said the secretary.

ONLY ONE ACCIDENT IN HUNTING SEASON

Richmond Man Is Only Victim of Hunt Accident.

EATON, O., Dec. 6.—With but a single accident reported, the open season for killing rabbits closed Thursday in Preble county. Laws, of Cleveland.

The offices of street commissioner and engineer at present are held by Robert P. Stephens and C. A. Burns, respectively.

TRAIN ROBBERS GET $10,000 SILK BOOTY

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Daring train robbers, who boarded the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern fast express train at Toledo, robbed the sealed car bound for Omaha of $10,000 worth of furs, plumes and silks early today. The police of Chicago, South Chicago, LaPorte, South Bend and Elkhart, the only stops made by the train after leaving Toledo, were searched for the bandits.

According to officials of the Lake Shore the door of the Omaha car was broken and as the train sped westward the thieves had ample time to search the valuable cargo leisurely.

Police Chief Gorman notified the recruiting station at Dayton, and is holding Ott until he receives instruction from the army officers.

WOMEN WAIT FOR PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—President Wilson's "waiting policy," as regards Mexico, will have nothing on the "waiting policy," adopted by the committee of fifty-five, left there by the suffragist convention to impress the nation's executive with the need of a constitutional amendment giving the vote to women. They will not leave until they have presented their plea. While they waited today for the President to recover from his illness the committee turned its attention to uplift work, investigating the city's "tenderloin," to ascertain white slave conditions here, as a basis for a demand upon congress for legislation against it.

School lunches are served at a nominal cost to elementary school children in 41 American cities, in 200 English, 150 German and 1,200 French communities.
