

EXPECT TO ERECT GOLDFINGER BLOCK IN NINETY DAYS

Palais Royal Proprietor and Vaughan Heirs Refuse to Discuss Terms of Exchange, Said to be $125,000

More specific plans of Henry Goldfinger, who is negotiating with the heirs of the late E. G. Vaughan for the purchase of the old Vaughan building at Eighth and Main streets were learned today. It is said the deal will be completed in a few days and that the purchase price is in the neighborhood of $125,000.

Mr. Goldfinger did not discuss the transaction. He did not desire that anything be said publicly which might in any way hinder the negotiations which he now has on foot.

He denied the report, however, that any theatrical men from Lexington or any other city were in Richmond today to arrange for the location of a vaudeville or motion picture theatre in the new building but that all negotiations which he has had have been with local men.

It was learned that the store rooms, which will be sixty by fifteen feet in dimensions, will rent from $75 to $225 a month. As far as can be ascertained at present, all of the fifteen store rooms will soon have occupants.

Altars Plans Some.
The announcement of Mr. Goldfinger's plans yesterday was welcome information to hundreds of Richmond people who have condemned the dilapidated Vaughan building for years because of the shoddy appearance which is augmented by the fact that it is located on the central corner of the city. A solid new building of the proportions planned by Mr. Goldfinger would give the entire business section a better appearance, it is said.

It was reported today that Mr. Goldfinger had altered his plans and would erect a two-story building and that the second floor would be taken by a hotel man who would convert it into a European hotel of high class.

After the completion of the deal and the acceptance of architect's plans, construction work will be started with despatch. It is said part of the plan include the completion of the structure for occupancy in two and one-half months and not more than ninety days at most.

The negotiations are being carried on entirely between Mrs. Lewis G. Reynolds, formerly Miss Mary Vaughan and Mr. Goldfinger, the attorneys for the two not being actively interested but remaining behind the scene. Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Goldfinger said the plans would be made public after the deed for the property had become the property of Mr. Goldfinger.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to express our sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted us in our hour of grief and especially we wish to thank the Eagles and Moose lodges and the Bartenders' Union for the impressive services held before our departure.
(Signed.)
Mrs. Elizabeth Blumenberg and Family

Open Season For Reunions Comes When Jigger Crop Becomes Ripe Children Frolic in Shady Woods

Every person in Wayne county who has a relative or relatives, the more the better, is doing it. In fact, hunting for them is planning and looking forward to it. The Browns, Greens, Blacks, Whites, Grays, Blews, Redds and all other colors of the rainbow are doing it on a large scale. Second only to them follow the Smiths and the Joneses, which are also doing it on an extensive plan.

Briefly, this is the open season for family reunions. Anybody can have a family reunion without asking the city or state any odds. No license or permit is necessary.

To hold a family gathering only a few things are essential: A family, a gray-haired sire, two or more babies in arms, a wood or shady grove, a swimming hole, baked chicken, chicken fried, stewed chicken, chicken boiled, fifty-seven varieties of cake, pickles, pies and jelly, hard-boiled eggs and at least nine million jiggers.

Evolution of Reunions.
The first family reunion of which history tells was the return of the prodigal, with the subsequent killing of the fatted calf. Since that time the evolution of the family reunion has been very rapid. It is no longer necessary for a member of the tribe to leave the family roof and grovel with the swine, living on corn husks, to get the proper stage settings for a family reunion.

Members of the clan decide on a meeting place, set the date and all is ready. The seven-passenger cars, as do some of the more fortunate city brethren, although most of them are content to take an interurban or swelter along in a hot day coach on a jerk-water accommodation.

On the next day an event a family reunion does not transpire and then pass immediately into oblivion. It is preceded by a long period of anticipation and followed by pleasant memories.

LAWLER TAPS MAN IN MAKING ARREST

Harvey Compton is in city jail this afternoon with a badly nicked head and Officer Lawler has another nick in his faithful club.

"Harvey said I couldn't take him to jail and I convinced him that he was mistaken," remarked Lawler as he washed the bloodstains off his hands.

"He has been separated from his wife and he went to see her this afternoon at the old Akron hotel and took the baby. She called for assistance and when I arrived I told Harvey to beat it. I told him to take the baby if he wanted to as he had as much right to it as she did. He told me that he did not have to go, that he had no intention of going and that he would like to see me make him move on. I had had trouble with him before so without wasting any words I hit him over the head with my club and knocked him down. He kept right on fighting, however, until I put the bracelets on him and then he tried to kick me."

Compton was brought to the city building in the police automobile. Lawler shows no effects of his battle. Compton is a Kentuckian.

Explorers of America Receive Recognition in Native Land

Unveiling statue of Clark and Endicott at Weymouth, Eng. Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain is shown pulling the string. The insert is of Louis A. Cook, representative to the unveiling from Weymouth, Mass.

The above photograph was taken at the unveiling of the monument erected to the memory of John Endicott and Richard Clark at Weymouth, Eng. Clark and Endicott started from Weymouth during the Elizabethan period to explore the Western Hemisphere, Clark going to Newfoundland, and Endicott landing on the shores of New England, where he founded the state of Massachusetts, and was its first governor. Louis A. Cook represented Weymouth, Mass., at the ceremonies, bringing with him a pair of shoes from the Massachusetts city. These shoes were presented to the mayor of his family, and one pair was presented to the girl who fitted them. Cook imposed upon the Mayor of Weymouth the task of seeking the girl in the manner of a modern Prince Charming. [Copyright by International News Service.]

POLICE GRIST

While Walter Johnson, colored, was drinking a glass of beer in a north end saloon yesterday, when George Gay, colored, entered and applied a name to him which is usually taken as an insult if not accompanied by a smile. And as Gay was minus a smile Johnson smote him. Johnson got $1 and costs for assault and battery, and Gay the same dose for provoke, although Mayor Robbins told him he deserved a larger fine.

Joseph Demoro, Italian, was fined $10 and costs for stealing a bicycle from Joe Hussen from the front lawn of 1425 North F street.

Harry Burges drew a fine of $1 and costs for provoking Ed Reddinghaus to attack him. Reddinghaus drew a like fine yesterday.

TEDDY SAILS HOME FROM ENGLISH PORT

Roosevelt Will Not Run for Governor of New York—
Sore Throat Troubles Him.

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., June 18.—A warm farewell was given today to Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who sailed for New York on the Imperator after a whirlwind visit of less than ten days in Europe to attend the wedding of his son, Kermit.

Just before the Imperator sailed Colonel Roosevelt told a representative of the International News Service that he would not be a candidate for governor of New York. "I absolutely refuse to run for the governorship," he said.

Crowds cheered the ex-president in London and there was a friendly demonstration on the streets here and on the pier when the colonel went on board the big Hamburg-American liner.

W. H. Page, the American ambassador, the members of the embassy staff, Lord Bessford and several other notable persons were at the railway station in London when the colonel left.

Colonel Roosevelt looked in good health despite the throat weakness which will prevent him from taking an active part in the approaching political campaign in the United States.

"If any one expected me to go into this campaign vigorously, I can not do so now," said Mr. Roosevelt, who had been warned by Sir Sinclair Thomson, the famous throat specialist, that his larynx would not stand any severe strain.

WANTS DIVORCE AFTER DESERTION

The disappearance of Carl Huber, a railroad engineer, a year ago, is again brought to notice in a divorce suit filed today in circuit court by his wife. Huber eloped May 8, 1913, with a well known woman with whom he had associated for the two years previous.

Mrs. Huber charges infidelity and abandonment and makes the assertion that he is an unfit person to care for the seven-year-old son, William C. Huber, who is now making his home with his mother. The couple was married May 20, 1903, and lived together until the elopement of Mr. Huber.

Free Demonstration Saturday

MR. F. G. SMITH, representing the manufacturers of "THE DETROIT VAPOR" Gasoline and Oil Stoves, will be at our store for ONE DAY ONLY. If you have not seen or heard of "The Detroit" stove, call SATURDAY and see it demonstrated. This make is different from all others, and by far the best stove ever put on the market. No wicks or perforated metal rings. The blue flame is directly under the kettle, thereby obtaining all the heat possible from the oil or gasoline. Those owning a stove of this kind will find the talks by Mr. Smith to be both interesting and beneficial.
