

THIEF STEALS RINGS AT LANDWEHR HOME

Police Search for Man Entering Home Early Saturday Evening.

An investigation of the theft of four valuable rings and a gold watch by a burglar at the home of Raymond Landwehr on South Tenth street, Saturday night, has so far revealed no clue as to the identity of the house breaker.

While Mr. and Mrs. Landwehr were away from home Saturday evening a burglar entered the house by way of a transom over a pantry door. He made a complete investigation of the contents of the building and took the most valuable things he could find.

W. W. Burgen, a young colored man, had a narrow escape from having a burglary charge filed against him today for breaking into the basement of the Feltman shoe store, Main street, Saturday evening. It was ascertained, however, that Burgen did not enter the building to rob. He is what the police call a "peeping Tom," and was gazing through a sidewalk grating when discovered by a policeman. He drew a fine of $5 and costs and a ten days' jail sentence when arraigned this morning on a charge of loitering.

Burgen entered the building by dropping down a man hole into a coal chute. He also had to crawl over a number of electric wires, risking his life in doing so. About six years ago he broke into another Main street store for the purpose of peeping through a sidewalk grating.

Spend Honeymoon on Small Boat Crossing Atlantic From New York

Mr. and Mrs. Signe Sivard and the power lifeboat in which they will try to cross the Atlantic ocean.
Mrs. Signe Sivard will be the first woman to cross the Atlantic in a small boat. She is planning to spend her honeymoon with her husband on his trip across the ocean to demonstrate the capabilities of his thirty-foot power lifeboat to foreign shipbuilders. "No, this will not be my first long trip in a small boat," says Mrs. Sivard. "I once rowed two other girls from my home at Gothensburg to Fredrikshal and back—240 miles. The papers called us three girls in a boat."

STRIKE ORDER SENT TO BALL PLAYERS

Fultz Orders Diamond Stars of Leagues to Quit Game Wednesday.

NEWARK, N. J., July 20.—A strike of baseball players under contract in the American and National leagues has been ordered by President Fultz of the baseball players' fraternity, who sent on ultimatum to the national baseball commission today.

Mr. Fultz also mailed orders for a walk-out of players in both major leagues on Wednesday morning, providing the commission by that time has not rescinded its ruling in the case of Player Kraft, who, according to Fultz, must draw salary from the Newark club in the International league instead of the Nashville league in the South association, which owns him.

Ban Johnson, president of the American league, telegraphed the president of the National league to meet him in this city tomorrow to discuss the Kraft case. Mr. Johnson declared that if the players obeyed the strike order every baseball park in the circuit would be closed, and all salaries would be stopped. In addition each player who goes on strike, says Johnson, will be heavily fined.

NOHR TO DIRECT CHAUTAUQUA MEET

The athletic program on the last Saturday during the Chautauqua, August 29, will be arranged by Robert Nohr, physical director of the high school, under whose direction the annual meet of the Chautauqua boys will be staged. Mr. Nohr has just been appointed by the Chautauqua directors and has started to outline the events, which will probably be arranged in classes to give both the older and the younger boys a fair chance.

thing, a desire to win. That is a good thing and should not be killed. It should be properly controlled.

Suggest Slow Gears.
"The remedy for this is the practice of self-control, consideration for others whether in or out of the car, and certain new laws. Every one who desires to run a car should possess a certificate of proficiency, issued by a legally constituted officer. The driver should be held responsible under some circumstances. No car should be permitted on the public highway which is geared above twenty or twenty-five miles an hour. These would not eliminate accidents, but they would greatly reduce them.

"He drives furiously who drives through life without preparation to meet God. Many men are so engrossed that they have neither time nor inclination for such preparation. They win success, but not the kind that is of imperishable worth.

"It is the character that actively engages in wrong doing, that strenuously pursues evil, if given the right direction becomes the faithful, aggressive Christian. It is not because he has received more grace than some one else. It is because the man with the 'go' in him has become a Christian."
