

CITY TO HOLD BACK $132 ON HYDRANT RENT

Bond Advises Refusal of Rental of Intermediate Taps Under Commission's Latest Ruling.

ACT NOT EXPLICIT

City Attorney Will Bring Question of Charges Before Utilities Body for Immediate Decision.

City Attorney W. A. Bond gave the board of public works his opinion today that the city had been overcharged $132.82 for fire hydrant rentals for the month of September by the Richmond City Water Works company. He held that under the rules regulating the service of the company, recently authorized by the Indiana Public Utilities commission, the company did not have the right to charge rentals for the twenty-nine intermediate hydrants, which were installed by the city at its own expense.

He told the board when it made a settlement of its September hydrant rental bill to deduct the charge for intermediate hydrants and that he would bring the matter to the attention of the commission at once.

Mr. Bond said that he knew it was the intention of the commission that no charge should be made for intermediate hydrants although this fact is not set forth clearly in the commission's recent ruling.

Means More Revenue.
President Davis of the board today estimated that should the company be permitted to charge for intermediate hydrants it would derive from the city an additional income of $1,540 a year.

The board today approved four public improvements completed this year, the total cost of which amounts to $18,945.94. The improvements were: South G street, curbs, gutters and walks from South Eighth to Ninth streets and gravelled roadway from South Ninth to South Thirteenth streets. Cost, $1,774.21.

Cement alley between West Main and Southwest A streets. Cost, $1,446.36.

A combination sewer system on Center street from Northwest Second to Northwest Fifth streets. Cost, $4,864.48.

Paving of Main street from the bridge to Fourth street. Cost, $7,860.89.

RUSSIA'S WAR DOPESTERS KEEP STRANGE SILENCE

[BY LEASED WIRE.]

PETROGRAD, Oct. 12.—Beyond stating that the operations of the Russian troops were proceeding successfully against the Germans in East Prussia and that an artillery duel is raging between the Russians and Austro-German armies on the Vistula, the Russian war office maintained silence as to the situation today.

Owing to the meagerness of news due to secrecy made necessary by the operations, it is believed movements along the Vistula are reaching a decisive stage. It is apparent that a peculiar situation has developed in western Russian Poland.

On Friday German artillery began operating between Sandomierz and Iwagnerod on the Vistula. The latter fortress is sixty miles from Sandomierz and 56 miles southeast of Warsaw. The Germans are thus penetrating Russian territory south of Warsaw, while the Russians are striking with games and music. A delicious luncheon was served. The guests were Misses Ruth Hiegar, Louise Snedeker, Grace Deem, Edith Adams, Agnes Brown Messrs Lee Beach, Gustav A. Sander, Leonard Beach, Joe Iesley, Omer Puthoff, Frank Hickman, William Armbruster, Carl Armbruster and Andrew Armbruster.

Mrs. Paul Comstock of the Keystone apartments North Fifteenth street, has gone to Port Wayne where she will attend a meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 12.—Yale expects a battle next Saturday, when the Blue plays Notre Dame. The demand for tickets is so great that it is estimated fully 12,000 people will be present.

The Yale coaches believe that Notre Dame will test the strength of the Blue as no rival, except Harvard, can this year. No attention has been paid in the Yale practice to the style of game any eleven was expected to play, but a defense will be worked up for the Notre Dame forward passing. The Yale defense has been left till every department of play was well developed but it is not believed Yale can defeat Notre Dame without careful coaching for the open game, in which the Indiana collegians excel.

There is little hope that Aleck Wilson will be able to run the eleven in the Notre Dame game. He is recovering from water on the knee. Johnny Baston has developed into a splendid quarterback sub, running the eleven with even greater dash than Wilson. MacLeish of Chicago, Tommy Cornell, Roberts and Brann, were injured in the first accident crop of the season, but are all back in the lineup.

RESERVES OUTPLAY WESTVILLE'S TEAM
Slugging and rapid work on the bases enabled the Fairview Reserves to trim the Westville team 16-6 at Rattiff's party yesterday. The Reserves hammered everything that Hawkotte offered all over the lot. Harmon Zyon's work at bat featured the game. Claude Knight pitched a consistent brand of ball, keeping the visitors' runs well-scattered. Ora Bell accepted all chances that came his way without a bobble, exhibiting some classy fielding.

Miss Agnes Saunders has returned from Memphis, Tenn., where she had been visiting Mrs. Margaret Webb for the past ten days.

Colonel Henry Backman of Newport, Ky., spent Sunday with friends in this city.

Mrs. Ben Norris entertained Friday evening in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. The evening was spent socially and with music and games. A luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo E. Massey announce the engagement of their daughter at German territory north of the Polish capital.

The Russians are also steadily advancing into German territory from the governments of Lomza and Suwalki. Every possible obstacle to the Russian march into East Prussia is being set up by the Germans. After evacuating Lyck they destroyed the bridges over all canals and streams in order to impede Russian pursuit.

Though the Russians continue to storm and capture the German positions in East Prussia their advance, is of necessity slow. This strengthens the belief that Poland, the ancient battleground of a conquered but subdued nation, will be the field on which the decisive battle of the present campaign will be fought.

Winter is coming on much earlier than usual this year. Already the weather is intensely cold and the first snow has fallen.

ROUMANIA CROWNS FERDINAND ITS KING

Oath Given New Ruler by Parliament Assembled in Bucharest.

ROME, Oct. 12.—Prince Ferdinand was proclaimed King of Roumania Sunday under the title of Ferdinand I, to succeed the late Carol I, according to a dispatch received from Bucharest today. It adds that parliament has been called into session for today to act upon "matters of great importance. The formal ceremony of administering the oath to the new king will also take place.

Rumors that King Carol was poisoned by members of the Roumanian war party are denied in official dispatches received here.

Ferdinand I, the new king of Roumania, was born August 24, 1865. He is a nephew of the late King Carol. As the late king had no children, the succession was called upon his brother, Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, but he renounced his rights in favor of his son, Prince William. The latter renounced his rights to the throne in favor of his brother, Prince Ferdinand.

Prince Ferdinand was crowned Prince of Roumania in 1889 and four years later he married Princess Marie, daughter of the late Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Goethe. The oldest child of King Ferdinand and Queen Marie is Crown Prince Carol, who was born in 1893.
