The public libraries of the state now are operating under something over a dozen different laws, and to simplify and codify these laws the Indiana Library Trustees' association, the Library association and the Indiana Federation of Women's clubs are acting together to bring the matter before the next legislature. The committee appointed by the federation of clubs has been doing active work, and libraries have been established and rearranged through members of the committee. Miss Mary A. Moffett of Elwood is chairman of the federation of clubs.
