State Nobel Prize Commission.

Kansas is to have a Nobel prize-commission of its own for the purpose of honoring those of its citizens who have done great and noble deeds. It is a sort of Legion of Honor, based upon achievement. It is an excellent idea. It is a recognition of merit, based upon high performance of things done for the happiness and ennoblement of men.

It will be a high honor in that state for a man to hold a Kansas Nobel prize. That would create a class consciousness that would reflect credit upon a community. It would throw deep in the shade the wealth class, the cultured class, the official class, the aristocratic society class, and make pre-eminent and truly honored those people who achieved some great benefit to the state—a benefit so manifest as to excite praise and esteem in the hearts of all the people.

These triumphs may be within one's own calling. Whatever is really and surpassingly great within the province of a mechanic, a farmer, a doctor, a writer, an artist, a musician, a lawyer, a merchant—any place where achievement is noble and beneficial—should be made subject to the commission's judgment; and to still further guarantee the merit of such a prize, not more than one should be issued in any one year.

There ought to be such a commission in every state. It would beat all the fairs and competitive exhibits that can be contrived in accomplishing the truest public welfare.—Ohio State Journal.

WHEN BRIDGE BURNS COUNTY IS ISOLATED

[BY LEASED WIRE.]

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 14.—A big reward was offered today by the commissioners of Fountain county for the arrest of the persons who fired the long wagon bridge across the Wabash river Sunday morning. Fountain county was isolated from Warren and Vermillion counties until the commission leased a big barge to be used as a ferry.

The bridge, erected in 1854 as a tollgate, was owned by Enos Nebeker, afterward treasurer of the United States, and made him immensely wealthy before the county purchased it and made it free.

ZOO WILL WINTER IN FLOWER HOUSE

Safely housed in the large greenhouse at Glen Miller park, the monkeys, parrots, alligator and caviar will spend the next several months among the tropical vegetation and climate of their native lands.

Park Superintendent Ford has found the greenhouse an admirable place in which to house the less hardy members of the Glen's animal family, and says the animals seem to feel very much at home in their new quarters. A pool is provided for the alligators, and the even temperature of the greenhouse seems more satisfactory to them than the outside conditions even in the summer.

Nature has provided the bears and elk with a thick protective coat of winter hair, and no special arrangements will be made for them. The bears do not hibernate as they are supposed to do in their native haunts, but sleep in the back pit at night, and are out every day in the open pits.

Worries Overcome, Evidence
Brushed Away. The Skin Cleared.

And now, why should S. S. S. do all this? Simply because it is Nature's antidote, a remedy of searching influence. It contains a powerful, natural ingredient, that sweeps its way to the skin. And in doing this it not only annihilates destructive germs but causes them to be so connected that they are easily and harmlessly voided, expelled or destroyed and then driven out through the natural outlets of the body. Thus let S. S. S. be your safeguard in all blood troubles no matter what they are. It won't fail you. Get a bottle today of any druggist but refuse any and all substitutes. SICK, SOUR STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS

"Pape's Diapiesin" Makes Upset
Stomachs Feel Fine in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps—head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Adv.
