FOUR QUINTETS ASK CONTESTS WITH Y. M. C. A.

Roach Considers Two-Game Series With Kokomo Y. Which Played Fast Ball Last Season.

Fear of Injury Before Connorsville go Causes Nohr to Cancel Practice Scheduled With "Y."

Four high class teams have made application for games with the Y. M. C. A. team. The Kokomo Y, which last year made one of the best records an association team ever made in this state, wants to book two games in a row. If possible Coach Roach will take them on. The expense would be only a trifle more than for one game. Coach Roach believes it would be a good thing for the sport in Richmond to play the double bill.

The Dayton Gymnastic class, which defeated the local team the first time out last year, has also written for a date. The Little Giants of Dayton want a date, but asked for a guarantee, but as Roach does not want the team in games of that kind, the request may be refused.

The High Standard is the third team out of Dayton to ask for dates with the local team. A game probably will be booked. Roach expects to start the season not later than November 14. Practice will be held between the high school squad and the Y team last night, did not materialize, as Nohr did not want to take a chance on having any of his men injured, because of their game Friday night. Instead, the Y team played a second team and did not have much trouble in scoring.

HE AND PRESIDENT BURY THE HATCHET

Colonel George Harvey, former editor of Harper's Weekly, who at a conference at the white house, made up his differences with President Wilson and agreed to forget henceforth the famous break of 1912 which threatened to upset Mr. Wilson's political career. The break came when Mr. Wilson frankly told Colonel Harvey at the Manhattan club that he believed he would be far better off without the support of Harper's Weekly in his presidential campaign.

Three Baseball Wonder Workers

Bill James, Manager Stallings and Dick Rudolph (at right), snapped just before the second game of the world's series opened. These are three wonder men of the Boston Braves. Stallings at the helm has engineered the Braves' wonderful fight, and James and Rudolph are the men who have given the most aid. Rudolph won the first game from the Athletics and James is credited with the second victory.

BOSTON BRAVES DEPOSIT $2,800 EACH IN BANKS

Thirty World Title Winners Pass Up Wildcat Schemes and Gold Brick Investments for Farms and Sound Securities—Luxuries Make Little Appeal, But Sound Propositions Receive Attention of Stallings' Crew.

BY FRANK G. MENKE, Sporting Editor of The International News Service.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—Promoters of wildcat schemes are hereby warned to pass up the Boston Braves. The world's baseball champions are wise young men, and they have resolved that not one cent of their winnings of $2,810 each will fall into the hands of promoters.

However, persons who have good farms to sell, or who control banks that pay good interest may approach the champions, risking the possibility of being booted across the threshold. The boys are open to reason on the questions of farming and banking.

"I'll kill the first person that approaches me on the subject of investment," declared John Evers. "I've lost it all. No more investments. My little roll goes right into the bank, and the soundest bank I can find."

Gowdy's Investment.

"Going to use some of your honey-mooning," Gowdy was asked. It may be recalled that Hank, the batting hero of the series, was reported as about to become a benedict.

"I always wanted a little bungalow," said Rudolph.

Charles Schmidt, the huge first baseman, will use his money in the purchase of a home in Baltimore. Schmidt, who is wealthy, owns several large butchershops in Baltimore, but says he won't buy any more—at least, not with his world's series money.

Rabbit Maranville, the whirlwind shortstop, said he is going to put his money in the bank.

Rabbit Hides his.

"All the other money I get hold of is going into the bank too," said Maranville. "My ball playing days will be over some time, and when they are I want to have enough money laid aside to enable me to start in a good paying business."

Charlie Deal, third baseman, is going to buy a farm near Wilkesbarre, Pa. Harry Grey, the utility infielder, will buy a farm near his home in Palestine, Tex., and Josh Devore, suboutfielder, will buy a farm near Chillicothe, Ohio—his home town.

Pitcher Bill James will buy some stock in a mine in Placer county, California. "It's a good paying proposition, and it's safe," said James, "so that's where my money will go. No fooling it away for me."

Believes in Banks.

Ted Cather, outfielder, will place his wad in the bank "until such time as I see a good safe investment."

Outfielder Whitely will buy some real estate with his share, and Larry Gilbert, another outfielder, will do the same with his.

Pitcher Crutcher was the only Brave who admitted the possibility of part of his money being spent in the purchase of a "moderate priced" automobile.

The Braves, it seems, are not afflicted with automobiles as were the Red Sox, Giants and Athletics.

Pitcher Tyler and Cochrane are among those who will buy farms. Tyler wants to get one somewhere up in New Hampshire near his home, while Cochrane will buy a farm near Luling, Tex., his home town. Catcher Bert Whaling, who hails from Seattle, will be another farm purchaser. He has picked out one in the state of Washington.

Also Wants Farm.

Joe Connolly, outfielder, will put his money in the bank for the time being. "Later on I may buy a farm around Woonsocket, R. I.," he said.

The winnings of pitcher Paul Strand and Utility Infielder Mitchell and Pitcher Davis will go into the bank. Herbert Moran, outfielder, admitted that "I might spend a little first, but the great bulk goes into the bank."

Pitchers Cottrell and Hess are looking around for some "safe share investment." "When I find it, that's where my money will go."

"Them's my sentiments," said Cottrell.

J. Carlisle Smith, the third baseman, is in a hospital suffering from a broken leg, but Smith, who is of a thrifty nature, undoubtedly will put his money in a bank.

DIFFERENT CAPTAIN FOR EACH CONTEST TO LEAD H. S. FIVE

Coach Nohr Adopts Unique Plan to Spur Individual Players to Play Fast Basketball.

Something unheard of in basket ball will be started in the high school this year. Listen! A different captain will be appointed for each game instead of having one man to captain the whole season. Whether this will benefit the team or not is unknown but it caused one of the star players to quit the squad. The local school team was left without an experienced man for captain this year, because the entire team was graduated.

Three positions on the team this year probably are settled, being Ernie Porter, forward; Lanning, center and Bavis guard. The other two positions have not been filled. Whoever starts them in Connorsville Friday will have to keep on their toes as others will be ready to step in their places.

Richmond hopes to win this game, and the boys are determined to win because of the intense rivalry.

[BY LEASED WIRE.] NOTRE DAME, Ind., Oct. 14.—Notre Dame practiced six hours Tuesday in preparation for the Yale game on Saturday. This was a record for a single day's practice at Notre Dame. Lathrop and Keefe, both men who were out on account of injuries, were out for practice. Both may get into the Yale game. Eichenlaub returned and took a light practice. He did not take part in the scrimmage.

C. O. D. MAIL GROWS

Post Office Handles 508 Parcels in Month.

Within the past six weeks or two months, citizens of Richmond have become aware of the advantages of the C. O. D. system of the post office and a big jump in receipts from that source has been the result. The insurance for parcels is not so popular. Last month 508 C. O. D. parcels were mailed from the post office. As the money is returned by money order, the money order department has been given more work. The biggest day the department had was last week when 209 money orders were cashed, many for C. O. D. returns.

PHONE COMPANY ASSISTS FANS

Through the courtesy of the Richmond Home Telephone company, nine telephones supplying bulletin stations of the Palladium were placed on one loop during the playing of the games and were thus in a position to get the returns as quickly as they were received.

A fan stationed at a telephone in the Palladium office called the plays into the phone and the nine stations at the same time received the results without the loss of a second in transmission.

The clear storage clubs, drug stores and business houses on the loop appreciated the courtesy of the company in perfecting the arrangement, and the Palladium management shares their sentiment.

CITY TEAM NEEDS TWO MORE BACKS

The City Football team is rapidly rounding into shape and will soon be ready to take on any team near Richmond. Negotiations for games with Dayton, O., West Alexandria, Muncie, Fort Wayne, Greenville and other towns who boast of good teams are on. The next practice will be held Sunday morning at Athletic Park at 9 o'clock. There will be a short signal practice followed by scrimmage. Two backfield men and line men are still needed to make the local team one of the best in this section of the state.

COHAN GETS $17,000

[BY LEASED WIRE.] NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—George M. Cohan won $17,000 when the Braves took four straight games from the Athletics. As George Stallings is known as "The Miracle Man" and as Mr. Cohan has a play of the same name now running, the theatrical man thought it "up to him" to back the team of Stallings. After the Braves had won the first two games Cohan, who already had bet heavily that they would win the championship, laid several hundred dollars, on which he got odds of 5 to 1 that they would take four straight.

WHEN YOU HEAR THAT DINNER BELL!

Does Your Mind Go Back to the Days When You Could Eat Like a Farm Hand?

The memory of an appetite is a wonderful thing. The loss of stomach power—the ability to eat—the yearning after good old-fashioned food—that condition is pitiful. Why can't you realize what thousands of others have demonstrated?

Look at the above illustration. Most every one remembers such a scene. Fancy yourself with your food now. Fancy yourself able to eat as one of these men can eat.

Use a little common sense and look at your stomach trouble in a practical manner. Something has gone wrong with your digestive apparatus. Set your body machinery aright. Stomach Dyspepsia Tablets are Nature's own way to digesting food. By eating one of these tablets after each meal you digest that meal. Digesting that meal means easing the work of the stomach, intestines, liver and pancreas and storing up new materials for digesting future meals.

Eat what you will and when you will but always carry a little Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet in your pocket. In a short time you will be surprised at the gladness spirit with which you look on food.

Go to your druggist anywhere and buy a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets this very day.

To anyone wishing a free trial of these tablets please address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich., and a small sample package will be mailed free—adv.
