

CHURCHES END BRANCH SYNOD WITH ELECTION

Missionary Societies Close Convention, Electing Officers and Delegates to Biennial Conference.

HAAS IS A DELEGATE

Returned Mission Workers Address Church Members at Evening Meeting With Stories of Experiences.

Members of Olive Branch Synod and of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary societies of Olive Branch synod in convention at the First English Lutheran church, had the pleasure of hearing two Lutheran missionaries last night and this morning.

The closing meeting of the convention is in session this afternoon. The women's convention was scheduled to elect officers for the coming year at 3:30 this afternoon.

E. M. Haas of this city was the only delegate elected to the general synod on one ballot. About thirty ballots were cast in selecting six delegates. The three lay delegates are E. M. Haas, city; B. C. Bowman, Muncie, and E. E. Waddington, Indianapolis. The three clerical delegates are S. S. Walz, Louisville; T. A. Estelle, Muncie, and J. B. Grove, Edinburg.

Haas Twice Delegate.

The general synod meeting is a biennial convention, which will be held in Akron, O., next May. It convenes for ten days for all synods in the United States. All expenses of the delegates are paid, and to be elected is considered by Lutherans as a distinction. Mr. Haas was a delegate to Washington, D. C., four years ago at the general synod.

Dr. J. C. Heckart, president of Wittenberg college spoke at the morning session in the interest of the Wittenberg endowment fund. He was followed by Dr. William Habey, superintendent of the Lutheran Orphan's Home at Springfield, O.

Another delegate chosen today was William P. Rilling, of Louisville, who will attend the anti-saloon league convention at Atlanta in June. The president of the synod, C. A. Miller, D. D., of Louisville, said that the remaining delegate, who will be sent in exchange with the general council, would be selected this afternoon, and that committees would be selected for the coming year at the same time.

Women Conduct Session.

The session last night was conducted by the women's convention, and the members of the synod were guests. Mrs. J. M. Curran of Moravia, Liberia, Africa, and Miss Katherine Fahe of Gunture, India, were the speakers.

The women gave interesting examples of their work and the hardships with which they contend in their respective stations. The missionary to India has been in the work twenty years, and is able to see the progress, which always slow, has been going forward more rapidly of late.

Both the missionaries declared that their fields are excellent for scattering the Christian religion among the aborigines. The work is helped by the increased interest taken in the United States and the consequently increased gifts.

There was special choir music and a special missionary offering which amounted to $22.44.

Dr. Hays of the Deaconess Mother house of Baltimore spoke of the work of the institution. He said that a class of sixteen has just completed graduation.

Mrs. Helen Beegle of Springfield, O., field secretary of missionary work in this country, spoke before the convention of women this morning. She meets with the Olive Branch Missionary society each year.

A round table on missionary work was conducted by Mrs. William Sudhoff of this city.

When Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Curran left at noon today, the members of the women's convention gathered in the basement of the church and sang, "God Be With You," and "We'll Meet Again," as a farewell tribute. Mr. and Mrs. Curran were pleased with their reception here and will return Saturday to remain until Monday. They will speak at one of the Lutheran churches.

Name Committees.

The committees which were appointed in the women's convention yesterday afternoon to serve for the next year follow:

Mrs. M. B. Nichol, Oxford, O., president's report.

Mrs. W. M. Kimbree, Louisville, Ky., corresponding secretary's report.

Mrs. A. E. Renn, Indianapolis, treasurer's report.

Mrs. W. W. Criley, Indianapolis, historian.

Mrs. Minnie Johnson, Broad Ripple, thank offering report.

Mrs. Edna Bunker, Muncie, missionary band secretary's report.

Mrs. J. F. Kayhoe, Nashville, Tenn., young people's department.

Mrs. T. T. Myrick, Louisville, Ky., box work.

Mrs. William Sudhoff, Richmond, literature committee.

Mrs. Charles Johanning, magazine secretary's report.

Mrs. Perry Steele, Lyons Station, letters and papers.

Mrs. C. H. Schnelle, Richmond, claims.

Mrs. A. C. Miller, Louisville, Ky., resolutions.

In an interview Count Albert Apponyi, formerly Hungarian Minister of Public Education and Privy Councillor to the king, decried the idea of dividing up Austria-Hungary according to the race of the inhabitants. It would be as absurd there as in the United States, he said.

WHAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well-fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on given products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisurated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I can not see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisurated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisurated magnesia as directed above, and see if I'm not right."—Adv.

BOY OFFERS CHECK; HELD ON SUSPICION

Robert Walters, aged 18, who says his home is at Walton, Ind., was taken into custody last night because of suspicious actions, and was held today pending an investigation of his case.

The boy sold a ring for one dollar, and later asked a clerk in the Hull restaurant if he would cash a check on a Montpelier (Ind.) bank. He was told that no check of his would be honored. When arrested it was found that the boy had a check book of the First National bank of Montpelier, and stubs showed that checks to the amount of over $900 had been issued. Whether Walters has an account at this bank is not known, but an inquiry has been made by Chief Goodwin.

Chief Goodwin says Walters answers almost perfectly the description of a boy reported missing from his home in Kansas City, although he does not tally perfectly with the photograph accompanying the notice. The photograph is a poor one, however.

Walters says he has been hunting for work in Montpelier, Kokomo, Richmond and other places.

Merchants of Richmond will be instrumental in securing information which will assist the Central Bureau for Charity and Social Service in working out its cases, said John Meipolder, secretary, today.

This plan was suggested recently by John Fosler, who says merchants find cases which no one else could discover. They secure information which would not only bring new cases, but would prevent abuse of charity in old cases.
