MAY WHEAT DROPS AS MARKET CLOSES

Price of Bread in Chicago to Advance as Wheat Goes Up.

[BY LEASED WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—In the last fifteen minutes of trading May wheat broke from $1.40 to $1.38 1/2, and closed with a net loss of 2 1/2 c from yesterday's finish. July wheat was carried down in the same movement to a net loss of 2 1/2 c. The cash market stood up, the best grades closing at $1.39.

There was no news to warrant the decline in futures, according to the board of trade experts, and the break was attributed to nervousness of traders over what might happen before Monday.

The Chicago crowd, the most of whom have consisted of bears, took profits heavily all day, especially toward the finish. Other western markets were lower, but the price of the best grades of flour in Minneapolis advanced 20 cents a barrel. This brought the top to $7.20 compared with a normal price of about $5 a barrel.

The price of bread will be advanced in Chicago, according to the big bakers, as soon as the contracts with the miller expire. The little bakeries have been badly hit and many of them have stopped operations.

Other grains followed wheat futures in the break on the board of trade just before the closing. May corn closed 1/2 c and July 3/4 c under yesterday's final figures. May oats lost 1/4 c and July a full cent. January oats, being near the cash, declined.

LEGISLATORS REST AS SESSION CLOSES FOR INITIAL WEEK

Members Anxious to See Appointments to Big Committees of Both Indiana Houses.

[BY LEASED WIRE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 9.—The first day of rest since the opening of the Indiana general assembly found most of the legislators remaining in the city to be part of the gossiping crowds in the hotel lobbies.

The greatest interest centered today in the appointments of committees in both the house and senate.

Legislators preferred to withhold their views and to abstain from discussion of pet measures they may have up their sleeves, on account of the possibility that such views or discussion might keep them off some committee.

The only scheduled meeting today was that of the commission which investigated conditions of working women in Indiana.

LEGISLATION FOR WOMEN. INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 9.—A difference of only four hours' time divides the commission appointed by Governor Ralston to consider working conditions of women in Indiana and the proposed law to regulate working hours. A poll of the members of the commission, taken just before a secret meeting in the Claypool hotel, showed a majority in favor of a fifty-four-hour week. A few of the members favor fifty hours as a week's work.

JOHNSON LEADS MEN OF FRIENDS' CHURCH

Benjamin Johnson was re-elected president of the Men's Bible class of the South Eighth Street Friends church, at the annual meeting last night. Other officers were elected as follows: William B. Martin, vice president; William Wickert, secretary; Flinkey Newlin, treasurer; David A. Dennis, teacher. Annual reports were read, and it was decided to hold quarterly social meetings at the homes of the members in the future.

POSTPONE HEARING ON MAGEE'S CASE

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 9.—A week's postponement was granted today in the hearing of the injunction suit, which seeks to restrain Lee Magee (Leo Hoenschmeyer) from managing or playing on any other baseball team than the St. Louis Nationals. Magee, it is alleged, broke his St. Louis contract and is now acting as manager for the Brooklyn Feds.

Water Bills (Meter Bills) due January 1st.

ASK TURNKEY JOB FOR CHARLES MORGAN

Business men along Main street petitioned the county commissioners today to have Charles Morgan appointed guard for insane and jail turnkeys. The place occupied by Rice Miller on an indefinitely extended term.

Among the petitioners are Frank A. Stiens, George Brehm, Fred Kennedy, George J. Becker, William Mathews, Oscar Williams, G. W. Bricker, W. R. Bloom, Frank Meyers, Solomon Frankel, Ed Feltman, Charles Grottaus, Solomon Fox and many others.

RED MEN INSTALL OFFICERS FOR YEAR

The nineteenth anniversary of Hokenadqua tribe of Red Men will be celebrated the first meeting night in February by formally opening the new lodge rooms with a smoker. The first meeting in the rooms which are those formerly occupied by the Bell Telephone company in the Odd Fellows building was held last night. New officers were installed.

Elect officers are Thomas Woods, prophet, Lantz Newman, sachem; Ralph Bowman, senior sagamore; Charles Way, junior sagamore; Cliff Haworth, chief of records; James Howarth, collector of wampum; C. W. Genn, keeper of wampum, and E. P. Ireton, trustee.

JENKINS SAVES CLOCK

Atwood Jenkins was granted permission by the Odd Fellows Building association last night to place the First National bank clock in the Odd Fellows' building. He will purchase the clock from John Hipskind, who has the contract for wrecking the bank building.

The works will be installed on the interior wall about three stories high and the face, illuminated at night, will be fastened to the corner of the building above the second floor. It will be some time before it is installed and running.

GREEN ASKS CHIEF TO OBTAIN RELEASE

James Green, sentenced to a life term in the Michigan City penitentiary last November for the murder of his brother-in-law, U. S. Clark, this city thinks six months behind the grim stone walls will be amply sufficient for him.

Today Chief Goodwin received a letter from Green, urging him to "see Mr. Fox and fix it up so I can get out of here the first of May."

CLUB MAKES STUDY OF RATE SITUATION

A decision of the Commercial club's stand on the passage of a 2 1/2-cent fare law for railroads of Indiana by the legislature probably will be reached Monday when the Commercial club railroads committee meets. The meeting will be held at 1:30 o'clock. The road committee will meet at noon Monday in the Y. M. C. A. to make plans for the good roads exhibition.

Deaths and Funerals. BOLSER.—Short funeral services for David Bolser will be held at his home at 112 North Fifth street, this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. W. O. Stovall will conduct the services. The body will be taken to Buena Vista tomorrow morning for further services and burial.

SEWING SOCIETY HOLDS DISCUSSION

The Caroline Reeves sewing circle of the Ninth street Baptist church met in regular session with Mrs. Scholer, 602 South Twelfth street Thursday afternoon. After a brief discussion of the third chapter of the Second Epistle of John, the financial report of the circle was made by Mrs. C. C. Goins, showing more than $300 had been placed in the church fund in three years.

Mrs. M. M. McCurdy gave a brief talk on the National W. C. T. U. convention. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Doty on Sheridan street.

MAKE P. O. FIXTURES.

The Louck and Hill company of this city has just completed the installation of the furniture for the new United States postoffice and court house building at Dayton, O. The firm also furnished a large portion of the postoffice furniture for the new United States postoffice building in Washington, D. C., which was completed a short time ago.
