HOGS AT YARDS EXCEED SUPPLY OF STOCK CARS

Glen Miller Market Holds Three Loads Over From Saturday—Joe Meyers Receives $1,200 For Pigs.

The railroads were unable to furnish cars to handle the hogs at the local stockyards Saturday so three carloads were carried over. The railroad company reported that stock cars were in demand wherever there was a loading chute.

Hog receipts at the Glen Miller yards were unusually heavy during the week. Light receipts on the large markets early in the week strengthened the price and brought out lots of hogs. With Chicago and Pittsburg closed on account of the foot and mouth quarantine, the price slumped on Saturday.

Local receipts were as follows: 326 hogs, 22 calves, 20 cattle. The top prices on hogs were $8 for heavies and $6.50 for light.

Joe Meyers delivered 88 head of June pigs that averaged 210 pounds, just the kind the market is demanding. They brought $1,200.

Harry J. Malone brought in 22 head that averaged 315 pounds and sold at $6.50, the top for the week.

Market Fine Durocs.

Frank Bird and Ernest Davenport had in 75 hogs of the Duroc breed that averaged 265 pounds, one of the best consignments made this season.

Charles Stigleman delivered 29 Poland China hogs, farrowed in May, averaging 241 pounds and selling at $6.50.

E. Timmons shipped 5 car loads for the local firm from New Paris during the week.

The fact that the local yards got out 12 car loads of hogs above the local killing demand, demonstrates that the country is full of hogs.

WHEAT HITS $1.56 ON GENERAL JUMP

Bull Sentiment Prevails and Bears Unable to Stem High Tide.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—May wheat closed at $1.56, a gain of 4½¢ over Saturday and within ½¢ of the top price today. July, closing at $1.37½, was ½¢ under the high and 3½¢ over final figures last week.

Bull sentiment ran rampant in the final hour of trading and nobody would listen to bear reports. Every other wheat market in the country advanced from 3 to 7 cents, the most of them showing net gains of 5 cents. Fairly heavy sales of cash grain at $1.58½ was the prime factor in the advance.

Corn started up with wheat, but an enormous amount of profit taking kept the close for both months within ½¢ of Saturday's final figures. The close was: May 82½¢ and July 84½¢.

There was a very large trade in oats: May at 61¢, closed ½¢ lower, and July at 58½¢, was ½¢ above Saturday.

PAY HIGH PRICES FOR HORSES SOLD ON LOCAL MARKET

400 Farmers and Buyers Bid, Team of Good Draft Mares Bringing Sum of $500.

More than 400 farmers and buyers attended the local horse market Saturday, and the fifty head of horses and mules sold at good prices. The top price of $500 was paid for a team of good draft mares, and a team of mules brought $400. A number of good mares sold from $190 to $235. The majority of the animals were taken by farmers living within a radius of 20 miles of Richmond.

George Taube, a Cincinnati buyer, attended the sales and bought 14 head. He said the Cincinnati market was showing a strong demand for good horses of all classes and predicted much higher prices in the near future.

Gus Taube shipped fourteen head to Indianapolis for foreign army buyers. These animals were for artillery purposes and weighed from 1100 to 1250 pounds. Mr. Taube said that most of the foreign buyers were demanding heavy animals now, but that the Italian buyers were taking cavalry horses weighing from 1000 to 1100 pounds.

FLOOD DANGER GROWS AS RAIN SOFTENS SNOW

(BY LEASED WIRE.)

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 1.—Flood danger in Indiana loomed large today following the warm weather that prevailed over the state Sunday and today. Nearly two feet of snow was rapidly disappearing, with a light rain today and all the streams in the state were showing the effect of the thaw. White river at this point was more than a foot higher today than it was Saturday night. Fall Creek, which overflowed its banks during the 1913 flood, was rising steadily.

Many small streams in all parts of the state were reported threateningly high. At Evansville, the danger of a big flood was increasing rapidly, and many farmers in the lowlands were moving their families to higher territory.

The ice that covers many of the streams of the state was still holding today, but it was likely to break up with a continuation of the warm spell by tomorrow.

BECK RECEIVES EMERITUS TITLE AFTER QUITTING

Congregation of Trinity Lutheran Church Refuses to Allow Pastor Completely to Sever Connections.

The Rev. Joseph Beck, for twenty years pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, relinquished active charge of the congregation, and was at once called as pastor emeritus. The congregation would not accept a resignation of the Rev. Mr. Beck and asked him to retain a passive leadership. Until a pastor is called to take active charge of the congregation, a temporary supply, probably a divinity student from Capital university, will occupy the pulpit. Steps in this direction were taken today by George Deuker, secretary of the parish.
