SONGS AND PRAYER START STOCK SALE

Innovation Tried by Clarence Smith Attracts Crowd of Breeders.

An innovation in the way of farm sales was held on the farm of Clarence A. Smith on the New Castle and Lewisville pike today. As announced on his sale bills the sale was opened with a prayer, and the singing of hymns. The announcement proved to be a good drawing card and a large crowd of hog breeders was present. Fifty head of immune, Duroc Jersey hogs were sold by Col. Albert Morris, assisted by Col. Lea M. James and Col. Guy Strong. The animals represented the best breeding in the country, and the sows were bred to such boars as Joe Orion S. 57307, a son of Joe Orion II grand champion at the Chicago International show.

SHIP HORSES TO SALE

Forty-five head of horses were delivered at Richmond today from northern counties in Indiana for consignment to the local horse sale Saturday afternoon. The animals are of uniformly good type, mostly suitable for farm purposes. There are several animals in the lots that will meet the army requirements, and it is hardly likely that the farmers will get a chance to buy them as there will be several buyers present Saturday who are making up consignments of animals for foreign army agents. With the animals which farmers are expected to consign to the sale there should be more than 75 horses sold Saturday.

FRANK WALKER STARS

The playlet "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," was given before an appreciative audience of about 200 people in the Sunday school auditorium of the Second Presbyterian church last night. The play brought out Frank D. Walker and Miss Ruth Bradley as they handled their parts with considerable skill.
In the opening act a trio of young men sang a number of popular songs. As a finale, Miss Bradley, recited "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," with a piano accompaniment, and a quartet of young ladies sang the last verse.

FALLS FROM COACH

Earl Lynn, 523 North Twenty-first street, fell when jumping from an express car on Pennsylvania train 27 this morning and bruised the back of his head. He was dazed and concussion of the brain was feared, but his physician said late this afternoon he would be able to return to his position of Adams Express money clerk in two or three days.

AWAIT PRIZE COURT ACTION ON STEAMER TAKEN BY ENGLAND

[BY LEASED WIRE.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 11.—The state department announced today that it would take no action in the case of the Wilhelmina, whose cargo of food stuffs destined for Germany was seized in Falmouth until the prize court decision is given.
Ambassador Page in London was directed to watch the case.
Acting Solicitor Nielson said the W. P. Green Commission company of St. Louis, shippers of the cargo, would have to defend the case and the government would make representations only after it had been established that the rights of the shippers had been invaded.
Charles A. Towne, counsel for the company, said the British government had offered to buy the cargo.

FLYING U. S. FLAGS DACIA LEAVES PORT

[BY LEASED WIRE.]
NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 11.—Off on a voyage that may prove her last and one that may involve the United States in serious international complications, the American steam Dacia sailed from this port this morning.
When the Dacia sailed the Stars and Stripes were flying both forward and aft. Captain McDonald said there were still American flags aboard that would be used on other parts of the ship should there be doubt as to the ability of British warships or war vessels of other nations to distinguish her colors.
The Dacia sailed with an entire American crew, with the exception of seven men. Four of these were Hollanders and the other three were Danes.
She is bound for Rotterdam, but her cargo 11,000 bales of cotton will be delivered at Bremen, Germany.

CHILDREN TO DONATE CASH TO RED CROSS

Lincoln's birthday Friday will be observed by the county schools in giving aid to the American Red Cross. Arrangements have been completed and the children are to bring money to the school houses. It is indirectly a call for aid for the war stricken countries where the Red Cross is helping the widows and orphans of the soldiers who have been killed in battle and persons whose homes have been devastated.
County Superintendent Williams said today that this is in direct violation of the policy of the Wayne county schools.
The teachers were requested to ask that each pupil bring one penny or more to school unless it will prove an embarrassment to a child to give anything.

BLACK POPE NAMED FOR JESUIT ORDER

Father Ledochowski Chosen
Head After Five Day Conclave in Vatican.

ROME, Feb. 11.—The Rev. Father Ledochowski of the Polish Order of Jesuits, was today elected head of the Jesuit order, or "Black Pope," as this office is known. The conclave at the vatican lasted five days. Before his elevation the Rev. Father Ledochowski was general of the Polish Jesuits. He succeeds Father Francis Wernz, who died shortly after Pope Pius X. A general of the Jesuits is elected for life, and from the day of his election he is absolute ruler of the order.
This improvement was not included in the Bavis Improvement program. The petitioners were Edgar F. Hiatt, Dickinson Trust company, Reveston Realty company, O. C. Krone and others.

BAKERS SEND APPEAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—In a drastic effort to prevent a threatened advance in the price of bread and other bakers' goods, the San Francisco Retail Bakers' association today telegraphed an appeal to President Wilson to place a federal embargo on the exportation of wheat and flour.

Tuberculosis Bill Obtains Support

[BY LEASED WIRE.]
INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 11.—Representative Miller's tuberculosis measure, which is being supported by Richmond's Terre Haute and many other cities in the state, was handed down from committee in the house this morning with favorable recommendation.
The bill is backed by the Marion County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.
It provides for the registration by physicians of all cases of tuberculosis with the local health authorities; for the free examination of sputum of all persons to learn whether they have the disease; for the disinfection of all premises vacated by tubercular people before the premises may again be occupied. No quarantine is provided for unless occasioned by malicious carelessness.

It is the attitude of the society that through this measure it will be able more successfully to combat the disease, and that unless the measure is passed, it will have but little opportunity to wage its desired battle.

CITY LETS GARDNER CULTIVATE GROUNDS ABOUT PEST HOUSE

Two improvement resolutions were confirmed today by the board of public works. One is for a sidewalk on the north side of North J street from Twelfth to Seventeenth street. The other is for curbs and gutters on North Twenty-first street from Main to E street.
The board renewed the privilege of an aged farmer for another year to keep a garden on the property purchased several years ago for a pest house. The ground is located on Newman's hill. Neither of the parties of the agreement receive any money but the action was taken to keep the ground in good condition.
J. E. Smith and the officers of the K. D. Cabinet company petitioned the board for sidewalks, curbs and gutters on Center street from Second to Fifth. A petition for macadamizing South Twenty-second street from A to B and for cement sidewalks, curbs and gutters was presented by Perry J. Freeman. Both petitions were handed to City Engineer Charles.

Owners of property in Reveston addition petitioned for permanent roadways in Reveston road, South C. and South D streets from Sixteenth street to the east side of Nineteenth street and in Seventeenth street from B street to its south terminus.
The improvement was not included in the Bavis Improvement program. The petitioners were Edgar F. Hiatt, Dickinson Trust company, Reveston Realty company, O. C. Krone and others.

FIFTY OVERCOME TO HEAR SUNDAY

[BY LEASED WIRE.]
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—More than 50 persons were overcome in a tremendous crush this afternoon to hear Billy Sunday deliver one of his best known sermons "Amusements." The tabernacle hospital was filled with women who had fainted. Sunday preached twice.

Professor Max Muller of Philadelphia, says the hobble skirt is 3,000 years old.

TRACES STOLEN BUGGY

George Lanier of Sycamore hill, who found the abandoned automobile a few days ago and the permit by which the owner was found, has again come in with valuable police information. Lanier saw the horse and buggy stolen at noon yesterday from the Sixth street hitching rack and secured a description of the man riding inside.
Thomas T. Davis, the owner, was notified. Lanier says the man was driving slowly and in no apparent hurry. Lanier was a neighbor of Davis, the owner of the outfit and recognized it. The outfit stolen is described as a light bay mare, fourteen hands high, 1,300 pounds, white bald face; storm top, piano box buggy, steel tires, McConaha make.

ACKERMAN GETS POST IN LONDON

Richmond Boy Takes Charge of London Branch of the United Press.

Advancement in journalism has come fast to Carl Ackerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ackerman of this city. His parents were informed today that he had been appointed manager of the London bureau of the United Press association, and sails for the British Isles Saturday.
Out of fifty applicants for the position, Mr. Ackerman was selected. He has been attached to the Washington bureau, where he covered the embassies, doing noteworthy work. Vice President Hawkins of the United Press, who was in Richmond a few weeks ago on business, said that Ackerman at the outset of the European war scored a number of "beats" from the French embassy.
Ackerman joined the United Press association eighteen months ago. After working for three months in the New York office, he was put in charge of the Philadelphia bureau, holding that position until the legislature opened in New York, when he went to Albany. He was subsequently transferred to Washington and given the embassy run.

Graduated from the local high school and Earlham college, Ackerman, after serving on both local newspapers, entered the Pulitzer School of Journalism, and soon became connected with New York newspapers, and ultimately with the United Press.
His London address is 179 London Chambers, E. C. He is accompanied abroad by his wife.

EMPEROR CALLS CONFERENCE TO CONSIDER WAR

Copenhagen Believes Kaiser
Dissatisfied With Progress in Eastern and Western War Zones.

[BY LEASED WIRE.]
BERLIN, Via Amsterdam, Feb. 11.—Emperor William held important conferences last night during which important phases of the military and internal situation were discussed. The Emperor informed his visitors that he was thoroughly satisfied with conditions as he found them on his tour of inspection in the eastern theatre of war, and is said to have predicted a complete triumph for the German troops over the Russians.
Among those who conferred with the Emperor were General von Moltke, former head of the general staff, General von Kessel and General von Aufsenberg. He discussed the military situation with these officers thoroughly and later received the ministers of commerce and finance.
After the conferences ended the officials were entertained at dinner by the Kaiser and Kaiserin.
KAISER DISSATISFIED.
Copenhagen Reports Claim Von Moltke Is to Return to General Staff.
COPENHAGEN, Feb. 11.—Close observers of conditions in Germany asserted today that the conference of Emperor William with General von Moltke and other army leaders in Berlin indicated that he was dissatisfied with the result of his armies' efforts. They predicted another shake-up in the German army administration by which General von Moltke would again become chief of the general staff and General von Falkenhayn would return to his work at the war office.
The Danish newspapers describe Emperor William's conferences in Berlin last night as "a hasty council of war to discuss a critical situation." The National Tidende Berlin correspondent hints that the German capital is being kept ignorant of the fearful slaughter in the eastern theatre and declares that the mysterious silence there forebodes great events which may change the course of the war.
