

SELLARS DRAWS LARGE CROWDS TO 2 RECITALS

Varied Program Appeals to Many Persons Attending Free Concerts at First Presbyterian Church.

Gatty Sellars, the well known English organist, who has made a previous tour of this country, gave three recitals, free to the public, in the First Presbyterian church, on Sunday evening, Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mr. Sellars knows how to please those mixed audiences which naturally are found at concerts open to the public since many non-musical people make up a large part of those attending, so he includes in his repertoire for such occasions compositions of a certain popular character, as well as the masterpieces of musical art written or arranged for the greatest of all instruments.

"Popular," however, is not used in its ordinary acceptance, since this organist, when appearing in churches, will not include what is termed this class of music in his program.

Popular Music Mind. But he plays "descriptive" pieces which frequently include, as did his program here, storms at sea, festivals interrupted by storms and compositions of that sort which appeal to the lay mind.

These pieces Sellars plays with great effect, one of the best being Rubenstein's "The Russian Patrol." His interpretation of such musical works as Mendelssohn's Fourth Sonata, presented Saturday evening, and the same composer's First Sonata, both written for the organ, was more interesting artistically, as were the Gullmarch on a theme of Handel, on Sunday evening, and Bach's Fugue in G Minor.

Draws Large Crowd. "The Pilgrim's Chorus" from Tannhauser, and the "March" from the same Wagnerian composition, given Sunday afternoon and evening, and the Elgar "March" Saturday evening, were three numbers peculiarly effective on this instrument and several of Mr. Sellars' own compositions, among the latter "Fancies" and "At Twilight," were charming in lyric quality.

The recitals were, altogether, enjoyable and interesting musically and were largely attended.

NOTICE.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church will be held in the church parlors on Thursday evening March 11, at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of electing five Trustees. E. E. BOWMAN, 1-11 Secretary Board of Trustees.

COUNCIL STANDS PAT ON STREET WORK PROGRAM

Indication are that the city councilmen will stand pat on their determination to put through all permanent street improvements referred to that body for final decision by the board of public works. The possibilities are that the greater part of the improvements initiated by the board will be referred to council as there are big remonstrances already filed or being prepared for every street paving project, except the one in Reveston, now pending.

Hears Paving Dispute. Tonight council will receive the North A street paving project. This was successfully remonstrated out of the jurisdiction of the board but was referred to council by a vote of two to one. Council will not have the opportunity to act on the resolutions providing for the paving of Ninth street from South A to Main, and North A to North E, and for the paving of North Sixteenth street from Main to North F. Both of these resolutions were rescinded by the board, except that part of Ninth street from Main to North A was ordered paved.

It will not be surprising if the paving of North A street is ordered by council by an unanimous vote. "There is only one way to provide public improvements and that is to order them made. If you defer to the wishes of the affected property owners there never would be any public improvements," said Councilman Weisbrot today.

Waide Favors Plan. "I don't know how the other councilmen feel about it but I am in favor of ordering the various improvements referred to council," Councilman Waide said.

"I think council will unanimously order the permanent improvement of North A street," Councilman Howells said.

On the recommendation of the city engineer the board today decided it would pay $1,500 as the city's share of paving North Ninth street, the total cost of which will be about $4,200, the entire cost of a sanitary sewer between Main and North A streets and the entire cost of a sanitary sewer between Main and North A streets and the entire cost of the paving in front of the post office. The improvements for this one block will cost the city in excess of $3,000.

On a protest the board postponed the construction of walks on Williams street until an investigation had been made.

The board ordered the widening of a certain section of West Seventh street.

The following resolutions were adopted: Cement roadway in the first alley south of Main street from Twenty-third street to the east corporation line; cement sidewalks on the east side of South Twenty-third street from Main street to the west side of Main street to South A street; cement roadway in the alley between South Sixth and Seventh streets from South A street to the first alley south of Main street; cement walks on the east side of South Tenth street from park place to South C street.

INDIANA HOUSE EXPECTS TO CLEAN SLATE IN TIME FOR ADJOURNMENT NEXT MONDAY

[BY LEASED WIRE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, March 1.—Although 597 bills have been introduced in the Indiana house since the opening of the Sixty-ninth assembly session, it was believed today that the slate will have been cleaned in time for adjournment one week from tonight.

Speaker Bedwell's action in killing bills by wholesale Saturday and the action of the house in passing and killing other bills previously, there to all senate bills to be acted upon. Further wholesale killing of bills by consent is expected to clear away all except the most important measures which are to be considered during the final week of the session.

A flock of letters protesting against

Senator J. R. Fleming's bill to abolish the offices of the state entomologist and the state board of forestry descended upon the house this morning. Every representative found one on his desk, signed by the Commercial Orchards company, Jessie J. Smith, president. The company was organized to cultivate orchards in Brown county. Its stockholders are men and women school teachers in all parts of the state.

In a report on the expenditures of the house up to Feb. 18, Speaker Bedwell today stated that a saving of $4,750.83 had been made on printing and supplies as compared with the same period two years ago. The cost of printing and supplies is given as $2,857.18 as compared with $7,608.81.

VISITS FIRST CHURCH

Men's Class Marches From Tabernacle.

Ninety-seven members of the Men's Bible class of the Central Christian church were guests of the men's class of the First Christian church yesterday morning. The men marched from the Central church in a body.

Just two years ago this class walked out of the First Christian church and organized the Central Christian church. The misunderstanding that led to the break has been healed, and an excellent spirit now prevails between the two congregations.

In the absence of the men yesterday morning, the women had charge of the school and taught every class. Mrs. George Chrisman acted as superintendent of the Bible school.

RURAL CREDITS BILL HELPS NEEDY FARMER TO NEGOTIATE LOAN

House Expected to Pass Appropriation Measure of $36,000,000 and Send Legislation to President.

The federal government has gone a long way towards helping the farmers when a "lean" year is encountered. The agricultural appropriation bill has been increased from $23,000,000 to $36,000,000. This was brought about largely by an amendment termed a farm credits bill. This amendment will enable the government to loan money on farm mortgage notes and these loans will be made through the national banks.

Unquestionably the farmers will profit by the government loans as the rate of interest will be uniform all over the country. These loans would run for ten years at 5 per cent or not less than $300 and not more than $10,000 to individuals. An issuance of United States twenty year 4 1/2 per cent bonds to establish a permanent fund of $10,000,000 to cover such loans is authorized.

Bill Passes Senate. The bill has passed the senate and a rural credits plan acceptable to the administration will be worked out. There are times when farmers are in need of ready cash to carry on agricultural projects, and they will undoubtedly borrow freely from the government. Present prices of farm products are exceedingly high and the farmers are in a sound position, but there may come a period when conditions will not be as favorable to them as they are now.

As long as profits are as big as they have been for the past few years the government will be asked to loan little money, but the farm credits bill will be highly appreciated in the "lean" years, and they come in every business.

It is now up to the house of representatives to pass the bill, as it will do much towards helping the farmer in time of need when he most needs substantial assistance. Realizing the good it will do the farmer the senate has already done its share.

AUTO BEE STINGS RURAL CARRIERS

Richmond post office probably will have the greatest per cent of automobile deliveries in the state next spring as the automobile bee has circulated among the carriers and a number of them announced they will purchase small machines soon.

There are now three carriers who use automobiles for delivery on rural routes. These carriers are envied by the carriers using wagon delivery.

There is a provision in the post office appropriations bill in congress which is of interest to the local office. This gives Postmaster General Burleson power to combine rural routes and give them to carriers using machines, paying $1,800 instead of $1,200 a year.

There are two or three routes out of the Richmond office which could be combined with others. Superintendent of Mails Handley said today. The bill has passed the house and is ready for senate.

BILL TAKES VOTES FROM OLD VETERANS

[BY LEASED WIRE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, March 1.—Seventy bills met death in the house this morning under the rapid-fire methods employed Saturday by Speaker Bedwell. Among the measures that went down today was the one designed to exempt chambers of commerce and similar organizations from being taxed.

Senator Ballou's bill prohibiting the use of lodge names and emblems by unscrupulous persons was passed by the senate today. A bill that would disfranchise many old soldiers who live at the Soldiers Home in Marion, was introduced in the house today by Representative Strange. The bill revives a fight that was made some years ago, and which was blocked by Colonel George W. Steele, governor of the home, and then a congressman from the district in which Marion is located. The Strange bill would prevent the veterans from voting at Indiana and local elections, and would make them go to their homes to cast their ballots. If they have no homes they would not have anywhere to vote.

RECEIVED CHARITY AID

Charles Coolman, 36, of 217 Main street, an unemployed resident, was brought into court today at the request of Trustee Edgerton, who had practically the same facts to present about the prisoner that sent a man to the penitentiary for one to seven years last week. Because Coolman's mind is believed to be weak, no charge has been placed against him. He said he had a wife, Bessie, and four children, Gertrude 12, Myrtle 9, Otha 8 and Russell 4, dependent on him, but it is not believed he was either never married or that he has no wife or family now. He received $5.50 in orders for coal, shoes and groceries in January.

ENGLISH BEAR HEAVY BURDEN OF GREAT WAR

[BY LEASED WIRE.]

LONDON, March 1.—Expecting an official announcement from Premier Asquith relative to retaliatory measures against Germany for declaring British waters a "war zone," an enormous crowd filled the galleries of the house of commons today.

When Premier Asquith arose shortly before 4 o'clock, a hush fell in the house, but the statesman had only arisen to move a new vote of credit for the prosecution of the war.

Premier Asquith then turned his attention to the official papers which had been issued by France, Russia and England relative to the responsibility for the war.

"The publications leave no doubt in the parliament's mind that the responsibility for the war is not the fault of this country," he said.

The cost of the war up to March 1 was estimated at $1,510,000,000 by Premier Asquith. This represented a daily expenditure of $7,500,000 in excess of the government's expenses in time of peace. The total war expenditure after April 1 will be $10,000,000 a day, said Premier Asquith. This includes the expenses of the army and navy and any extraordinary expenditures which might arise.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sad, low complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective.

They bring about that exuberance of spirit that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

SHIPPEES ASK OLD HOURS FOR FREIGHT

Manufacturers Dislike Earlier Closing Time at Offices of Railroads.

Manufacturers, wholesalers and other heavy freight shippers have entered complaints against the hours being tried out at the freight depots and as a result, the Commercial club directors will consider tonight asking the freight agents to return to the old hours.

Following complaints on the part of the shippers some time ago that their freight brought in late in the afternoon would not go out on the night trains, the closing hours were taken under consideration. The freight agents said it is impossible to clear all freight brought in during the last hour of the day and get it on trains.

As a remedy, the freight offices started closing early February 1 for one month. The closing hour was shifted to 4:30 on week days and 12:30 noon on Saturdays.

Notice to the Public:

H. V. McLeland Co., wholesale commission merchants, of this city, has been criticized frequently for selling its produce, fruits, etc. to local 5-and-10-cent stores; also for owning and operating "The Star Grocery," at 227 N. Sixth street, and selling high-grade groceries at less than regular price.

As a matter of self protection and for the benefit of the public who desire our product, we will on Thursday evening publish in both local papers the names of every grocer in Richmond who is not now buying merchandise from us, so that our many friends may secure our goods from those who are buying our goods.

During February, 1915, our business as commission merchants shows a gain of over 40 per cent over February, 1914. It is our intention to maintain this increase during the other 10 months of 1915 and to aggregate a total yearly business of over a quarter of million dollars. This means to the buying public that when business is operated on such a large scale that prices will be kept at the very lowest level. Protect yourselves, buy for less, save your money, buy fruits and produce from merchants selling H. V. McLeland goods.
