No Guess Work About This Bread

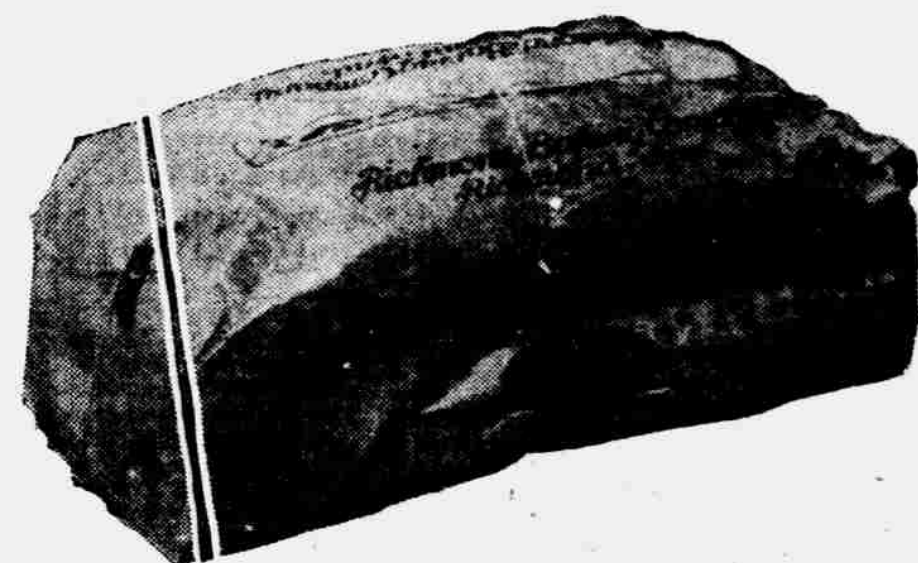

There are three mighty fine brands of bread sold in this town—and made in this town by Richmond people that deserve your special support. No—not alone for the sake of "Home Pride," but because the bread touches the spot and each brand is so very good, so fine in texture, so very appetizing, so generous in size, so pure, clean and wholesome and so fresh and invigorating that a single slice will make you want it at every meal.

Mother's, Golden Cream or Butter-Krust Bread is made by experts, in a scientific, systematic way, assisted by machines and ovens that are the very essence of efficiency so that there is no guess-work—every loaf is the same every day.
