WHEAT IN ADVANCE ON CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, March 30.—Wheat showed advances of 1 1/4 to 3/4c today and closed with 1/4 to 1/2c of the best prices reached. The strength was on the buying of May wheat here by New York as well as Chicago export concerns, and the report that there was a big export business at the seaboard at the close of the regular session yesterday. There was some investment demanded. The world's visible supply as compiled by Bradstreet, decreased 5,833,000 bushels the past week to a total of 163,663,000 bushels. Corn closed 1/4 to 1c higher and ruled strong. The world's visible supply decreased 2,556,000 bushels. Oats closed 1/4 to 1/2c higher and firm. Hog products closed lower.

SHIPS $9,000,000 WORTH OF HORSES

The exportation of horses and mules from the United States for use on the battlefields has been the subject of popular interest. No information was to be had as to the extent of the shipments until the department of commerce foreign trade summary was issued. The statistics show that in January there were shipped horses and mules valued at approximately $9,000,000, thirty times as many horses and sixteen times as many mules as were exported during the corresponding month in 1914.

The Belgian government has begun the purchase of 10,000 cavalry horses, in East St. Louis. The first lot of 600 sold to representatives of Belgium yesterday, will be shipped to Newport News, Va., then to be taken across the Atlantic. The contract price was said to be about $185, making a total of about $1,850,000.

CATTLE PRICES EXPECTED TO INCREASE AS SOON AS LENTEN SEASON IS OVER

Fear-seeing folks do not look with fear upon the future of the cattle trade. They feel, on the other hand, that a period of higher prices is going to follow the Lenten season. A widening of the breach between costs of common and choice steers is usual in the spring, and this year of all others it should be well under way in the next few weeks, for the obvious reason that choice quality steers are going to be very scarce.

Foot and mouth disease quarantine over a goodly part of the middle western country in recent months, together with the high cost of corn, has been a potent factor in causing a lot of liquidation. Few cattle went on feed following the outbreak of the disease, because feeding stock could not be shipped into the majority of section where normally a big supply is fed. This condition has meant a small summer supply, and, given anything like a decent consumptive demand for beef, a light crop of fat beefs must sell at a very good price.

A losing season is usually followed by a winning one. The cause ordinarily is a reduction in supplies, and the season ahead, being assured of a short beef supply as a result of the ravages of disease and its influence in starting much stock prematurely toward market, should mean a prosperous period for the feeder who has held his cattle to maturity.

Y. M. I. SPENDS $130 ON COSTUME RENTAL

Reserved seats for the Y. M. I. minstrel April 7 and 8 will be placed on sale at a Main street furniture store Thursday noon. It was decided at the rehearsal last night. The seat sale has been good and it continues, the committee will make arrangements to show the minstrel a third night.

The cast now has seventy-eight members. It stands as it will be shown on the stage of the St. Andrew's school. The programs will be issued in two or three days and all other arrangements will be completed.

Stage carpenters from a road show which played in Richmond last week were secured to plan stage settings and much money will be spent for that purpose. Plans were also made for the costumes of the chorus and end men. The rent for the costumes for the two nights will be $130.

Rehearsals were held Sunday and Monday and will continue tonight, Wednesday night, Friday night and every night next week.

DELAYS SCHOOL PLAN

The matter of building a township high school will not be referred to the township advisory board until 1916, Trustee Edgerton said today.

The board met at 2 o'clock and went over the township accounts. They expected later to adopt preliminary plans for two school buildings, a $5,000 two-room building north of Spring Grove to replace the College Hill school and a $2,000 one-room building without basement to replace the antiquated building at Elliot's Mills.

BRYAN ASKS RELEASE OF MEXICAN PRISONER

JEFFERSON, Mo., March 30.—Through the efforts of United States Senator Pomerene, Secretary of State Bryan has finally moved to aid Leonard Worcester, the American employed by a St. Louis concern and held prisoner by General Villa's adherents at Chihuahua, Mexico. Worcester formerly lived at Greensburg, Ind.

News to this effect was received here today by G. O. Beede, brother of Mrs. Worcester, who has been active in behalf of his relative. The message read:

"Bryan cabled today to Corrothers to release Worcester at once."

What effect this message will have remains to be seen. Fears were expressed that unless some means of affording protection were provided he might be murdered if released from prison.

Worcester has been in a Mexican prison for five weeks, through no fault of his own, but due to a financial dispute between dealers in zinc and the St. Louis firm he represented.

MOVES WRECKED F-4

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Secretary Daniels today received a cablegram from Admiral Moore at Honolulu announcing that Commander Smith of the First Submarine Division has succeeded in moving the lost submarine F 4 300 feet shoreward from the point where she was located last night. A dispatch last night declared that the F 4 was lying under 23 feet of water 2,800 yards from Honolulu light house.

MATAMORAS BATTLE THREATENS BORDER

WASHINGTON, March 30.—With three batteries of the Third Field artillery enroute to Brownsville, Texas, President Wilson and his cabinet today took up the threatening situation along the Mexican border by the battle at Matamoras, Maj. Gen. Funston, commanding the American troops along the border has gone to Brownsville to take personal charge of the troops there. He, however, has no authority to act except on specific orders from Washington.

FIGHT FOR LIVES.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 30.—Am

ushed by Villista troops, six hundred Carrancista cavalrymen are fighting for their lives twenty-five miles south-east of Aguprieta, according to couriers who reached Aguprieta shortly after midnight, with appeals for help for the Carrancista soldiers. The Carrancistas were taken by surprise while returning to Aguprieta from a raid. Soldiers were killed at the front by the Villista, but the survivors took refuge in the hills closely pursued by the Villistas.

The popularity of chocolate as a food and drink is shown by recently published statistics placing world's consumption of cacao in 1913 at 251,582 long tons. In consumption the United States ranked first, followed by Germany, Holland, France and England.
