CONVERSION OF FAMOUS EVANGELIST STILL ENTHUSES OLD TIME FANS

NEW YORK, April 27.—The story of Billy Sunday's conversion to religion while he was one of baseball's greatest stars, is an old, old story, but the fans seem never to tire of hearing it. In response to numerous requests, here is the story again, as it appeared in the April issue of the Baseball Magazine. Sunday tells the story and adds a few new features:

"About twenty-eight years ago I sauntered down State street in Chicago one Sunday afternoon with some baseball players. We went into a saloon and had several drinks and then started down the street again. When we reached a vacant lot at Van Buren street, there stood some men and women, with Harry Monroe as their leader, singing gospel hymns and playing a cornet. We sat down to listen.

"I had heard those same hymns back in the little Methodist building at Ames, Ia., where I used to go to church. When the men and women had finished singing, Harry Monroe said: 'Boys, we invite you to come to the Pacific Garden mission to listen to the story of some down-and-outers—girls who have sidestepped, but are now going square.' I followed along to the mission, and I liked the meeting, and went back to others the following nights.

"One night I went forward and got on my knees and gave my heart to God. Then I went over to the West Side and joined the Jefferson Park Presbyterian church. I was keeping company with a young woman, Nell Thompson, who is now Mrs. Sunday. Nell was a Presbyterian, so I became a Presbyterian. If she had been a Catholic I would have become a Catholic.

"One afternoon we were playing the old Detroit team, and we were fighting hard for the championship. We had them beat by one run when it came up to the last half of the ninth inning. Detroit had men on second and third, with two out. Charley Bennett, their old catcher, was at bat.

Utters First Prayer.

"Charley caught a low one on the nose. I saw it coming out to right field like a shell out of a mortar, and it was up to me. There were thousands of people out in the field, for the grandstand and bleachers had overflowed. I whirled and went with all my speed. I could do one hundred yards in ten seconds from the crack of the pistol, and I had run the bases in fourteen seconds. I was going so fast that day that you couldn't see me for the dust. I yelled to the crowd, 'Get out of the way!' and they opened up like the Red Sea for the road of Moses.

"And as I ran I offered my first prayer, and it was something like this: 'God, I'm in an awful hole. Help me out, if you ever helped mortal man in your life; help me get that ball. And you haven't much time to make up your mind.'

"I looked around and saw that I was about under the ball. I shot out my left hand and the ball struck—and stuck. I fell under the feet of a team that stood there, but bumped up with the ball in my hand."
