The Indiana Keramic club held a guest meeting this afternoon at the Art Institute and had for a special guest Mrs. Ada Bernhardt of Richmond, who gave a talk on "China Painting." Mrs. Bernhardt is a daughter of Mrs. Louis Stubbs, one of the charter members of the Keramic Club. Mrs. Bernhardt was the guest of Mrs. F. B. Clark who entertained her at luncheon—Indianapolis News.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Floyd at Dublin, when their daughter, Miss Leonora Floyd, was united in marriage to Mr. Earl F. Snyder, son of Rev. Mr. Snyder, of Huntington. Bishop Floyd, grandfather of the bride, pronounced the ceremony. Lilies of the valley, carnations and ferns were used in arranging the rooms. Pink shaded candles and white wedding bells also added to the attractiveness of the appointments.

Miss Mary Gilbert sang "O Promise Me" and "At Dawning" with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Floyd Gilbert. The bride wore a pretty gown of white messaline and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

They were attended by Mr. Everett Floyd and Miss Viva Snyder of Huntington. Miss Effie Wolford and Mr. Paul Beckett of this city, were among the guests.

Mrs. Mary Price will be hostess Wednesday afternoon for a meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Grace M. E. church at her home, 215 North Fifteenth street.

The Mary F. Thomas W. C. T. U. met Monday afternoon in the lecture room of the Morrison-Reeves library. Mrs. Mary Keevor gave the Scripture reading and Rev. Conrad Huber of St. Paul's church offered prayer. "Sabbath Observance" was the subject of a talk made by Rev. Huber. Mrs. D. W. Stevenson told "How Temperance Work Helps Missions," and Mrs. Harris had for her topic, "Saving Sunday for America." Mrs. Dietemeyer talked on "Why We Need a W. C. T. U. Missionary." Mrs. Homer Sexton of Bloomington, Ind., suffered from digestive and stomach disorders for a long time. She tried to find relief, but it seemed a long way off—until she tried May's Wonderful Remedy.

The first dose gave her relief and started her on the way to health. She wrote:

"Your medicine did me a world of good. I have taken your treatment and believe it has cured me, and I have told all my friends about it. I am ever so thankful."

May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and if not satisfactory money will be returned. Adv.
