"PROTEA."

Two nations are about to enter into a treaty and the third nation is anxious to learn of the terms thereof. To secure the desired information the charming adventuress Protea is engaged. She undertakes the task provided she can have the assistance of a certain man who is at the time serving a prison sentence—The Eel. His release is ordered and the pair start on their task. From this point the spectator is carried through a succession of thrills and surprises, changes of costumes, rapid and startling, and feats of skill and daring that keeps him gasping with expectancy.

OPEN LITTLE THEATRE.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., June 8.—DePauw's "Little Theatre," which was opened this year, is being equipped by the students of the university under the supervision of Prof. Harry B. Gough, head of the public speaking department. It is expected that next year practically every organization represented at DePauw will donate something to the "Little Theatre" and before another year elapses DePauw will have one of the most complete theatres in the middle west.

NO RICE THROWING.

BAYONNE, N. J., June 8.—The throwing of rice and old shoes at weddings in the new $200,000 St. Henry's Roman Catholic church, will not be permitted. The pastor, Rev. Peter E. Reilly, said he did not want the new church "mussed up."

RICH GIRL TO WED HOWARD H. SPALDING

James B. Forgan, president of the First National Bank, announced today the engagement of his ward, Miss Catherine Barker, to Howard H. Spalding.

She is only nineteen and four years ago, her father, John H. Barker, died leaving an estate of $30,000,000, in trust for her in the First National Bank.

Miss Barker has been the heroine of interesting adventures which have given Mr. Forgan moments during his year of guardianship. She has received more letters proposing marriage than perhaps any young woman in Chicago.

BURGLARS FILL UP AT MILTON STORE

MILTON, Ind., June 8.—Burglars entered W. P. Moore's grocery at some time during Saturday night. The cellar window through which the coal is put in the cellar, was not securely fastened. They made their entrance through this. Instead of sawing a panel from the upright door leading from the cellar into the grocery, the burglars sawed out a part of the wall. To do this they had to go through two thicknesses of plastering. They took three overall suits and three supposed pairs of gloves but the gloves proved only be for one hand the mates being left. Either the fellows only wanted one glove, or else did not know that mates were not together. They ate beans, cheese and other commodities kept in the grocery. They also found a sack containing 200 pennies. They came, they went.

SUFFRAGISTS MEET.

CHICAGO, June 8.—Campaign methods formed the chief topic of discussion of the delegates to the National American Woman Suffrage association at its closing sessions at the Hotel LaSalle today. General discussion was allowed on the question, and the various delegates told of the work in their states and made suggestions for improvements. Practically the same sort of program was followed regarding publicity methods. Charles T. Hallinan, chairman of the National publicity bureau, led the work.

Spain contains more than 11,500,000 acres of unproductive land.

THE USE OF SOAP SPOILS THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary multifield coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multifield coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Adv.
