

CHRISTIAN CHURCH MAKES BIG OFFERING ON CHILDREN'S DAY

Milton Congregation Listens to Excellent Program of Songs and Recitation at Annual Celebration.

MILTON, Ind., June 15.—The Christian church observed Children's Day exercises Sunday evening. The church was filled. The following program was given: Church orchestra; song by school; scripture lesson by four boys; invocation, the Rev. F. C. McCormick; recitation, Gen. Thompson; recitation, Candus Kimmel; introduction to program, Harry Doty; song for cradle-roll, Elizabeth Warren; song, by the school; introduction for the service on Japan, Miss Lillian Wilkinson; "The New Cable" class of boys; song, Junior girls; orchestra; lantern procession, class of boys; reading, Isle Thorburg; introduction, Mrs. Harry Doty; three little Japanese girls, by Eula Leverton; a class exercise with solo by Eula Leverton; orchestra; All About Japan, Mrs. F. C. McCormick's class of boys; song, Mrs. Harry Doty's class; reading, Dean Manlove; song, Margaret Thurman of Richmond; reading, Raymond Kinsinger; exercise by class boys, under direction of Mrs. Jones; boys' chorus; recitation, Charles Clifton; song by the school; offering, and its appeal by the Rev. F. C. McCormick; orchestra. The offering was between $63 and $65. A sad feature was the presentation of $4 by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kirlin for their little daughter, Barbara, who died a few months ago. The little girl had been saving birthday gifts and the money in her trunk was presented in her name.

The Misses Ruby Moore and Blanche Moore entertained in a very happy manner in honor of their sister, Miss Mary Jane Moore, on Saturday afternoon and on Monday afternoon Mrs. R. P. Lindsay and Mrs. Linda Barton gave a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Moore at the home of Mrs. Barton. The appointments were all simple and very pretty, roses and carnations forming the decorative features and the dining room was especially beautiful as a rose bower, as it were. There were about fifty guests in attendance, those from out of town being Mrs. Chas. Kniese, of Cambridge City and Miss Mary Greer of Connersville. The guests were entertained by guessing contests and the converting of the letters found in the words kitchen, cupboard, ice chest, pantry and cellar into menu lists. For the best list a favor was given by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Parkins are at Crawfordsville to attend the commencement of their son, Ivan Parkins, from Wabash college, Wednesday.

The Doddridge Chapel Sunday school observed Children's Day with a fine program, Sunday morning at the regular hour for the school and public worship. The offering at the church was $12. The Rev. F. M. Westhafer gave a talk.
