

W. HASKELL MARRIES MISS JESSIE LANTZ AT HOME IN MILTON

Popular Young Woman Becomes Wife of California Man in Beautiful Ceremony at Her Home.

MILTON, Ind., June 23.—One of the prettiest social events of the June month was the wedding of Miss Jessie Lantz and Walter Haskell which took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, L. F. Lantz. In the dining room where a two course luncheon was served, the flowers were pink Killarney roses in a white basket forming the chief center piece for the table laid in white. Six candles in glass candlesticks with pink decorations graced the table. In the living room the flower was the crimson rambler lending a tone of richness to the otherwise simple features.

At the appointed hour Miss Mary Jones presided at the piano and sang: "At the Dawning," "Sweetheart," and "Sweetest Story Ever Told." As the clock struck 4, with Miss Lulu Faust, presiding at the piano, and amid the sweet strains of "Here Comes the Bride," the procession in the following order moved down the stairway: First came the Rev. F. M. Westhafer, officiating minister and the bridegroom, Walter Haskell, followed by Deborah Lantz of Pendleton, and niece of the bride, who bore the ring in a white Calla Lily. Then came the bride, wearing a lovely gown of white crepe de chine with dainty lace trimmings and carrying a bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride's roses. She came leaning on the arm of her father, L. F. Lantz. The bridal party passed down the stairs and into the parlor where they arranged themselves in proper order before the beautiful wreathed arch where the Rev. Westhafer pronounced Walter and Miss Jessie Lantz husband and wife, the bride being given away by her father, Mr. Lantz. At the close of the ceremonies the dainty luncheon was served, the bride and groom and their young friends occupying the dining room where the Misses Marie Elwell, Miriam Parkins, Mary Jones, Lulu Faust, Lillian DuGranrut and Serena Houshour served. The bride's cake was cut by the bride. There were about fifty-five guests in attendance, the out of town people being Mrs. Emily Haskell, mother of the groom from Redlands, California; Robert Haskell, brother of the groom from Miami, Arizona, Mr. and Mrs. Park Lantz, of Petoskey, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lantz and daughter of Pendleton, brothers of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Will Morris, Mrs. Martha Morris, Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, all of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris, of Fairmount; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leibhardt, Henry Leibhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Knight, relatives of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Smeiser from Richmond; Mr. Howe and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Newberry Howe of Delphi, Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haskell left at 6 o'clock for Indianapolis. They will stop in Chicago, and go from there to San Francisco to visit the Exposition and will be at their home at Redlands, California, July 4.

The Boosters club will meet Thursday evening and a miscellaneous program has been prepared for an excellent entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ferris entertained as their guests Sunday, Frank Connally and Mrs. Lena Denton and daughter, of north of East German town.

Long Trouble Yielded to This Medicine

If you are suffering with serious lung trouble, pay a full investigation. Eckman's Alternative, a remedy which has caused many recoveries. One follows:

"Gentlemen—In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia, and later by Lung Trouble. In the winter of 1904, I had a cough, a high fever and raised quantities of avulsing stuff, and later I had many hemorrhages, at one time three in the same consecutive day. There was no physician treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alternative was recommended by a friend, and after a sufficient quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the start. I gained strength, weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage, and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well." (Signed) ANNIE F. LOUGHREN.

Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial asthma and severe rheumatism, lung affections and up-building of the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitute. Small size, 1 oz., price, $2. Sold by leading druggists. Write for booklet of remedies. Write for booklet of remedies.

GIVE 50 GIRLS JOBS AT GLOVE FACTORY

With business becoming the heaviest in the history of the concern, the Indianapolis Glove company is employing girls as fast as applications are made. Since the firm moved into its new quarters two months ago, fifty girls have been given employment, and recently twenty more were added to the pay roll.

The management has ordered fifty more machines and with their arrival a girl for each machine will be needed.

Unless the girls are obtained all the orders now on hand will not be filled.

Inexperienced girls are employed at times, and assistance is given them for the first six weeks to enable them to obtain a suitable amount of wages at piece work. The more experienced girls earn from $8 to $14 a week. Last week there were sixty girl employees who received more than $9 for the week.
