WHEAT SHOWS LOSS ON CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, June 29.—Wheat closed at losses of 1/4¢ to 1/2¢, and there were declines of 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ for corn and 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ for oats. The long range forecast issued by the weather bureau promises a week of fair weather with high temperature. Considerable wheat was sold on this. Cash trades were small at 10,000 wheat, 170,000 corn and 365,000 bushels of oats.

Provisions were up the smallest fraction, and the trade was better.

OLD TRAIL BOOSTERS PREPARING TO INVAD HAGERSTOWN TOMORROW

Old Trails boosters, working in behalf of the Good Roads County-wide celebration, to be held at Centerville next Monday July 5, are to make a great demonstration in northern and northwestern Wayne county tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Promptly at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the boosters will assemble on North Tenth street near Main and a flotilla of automobiles, commanded by L. S. Bowman, Albert Chamness and Horace Kramer will set forth on a crusade which will culminate in a great celebration at Hagerstown in the evening.

After leaving Richmond the boosters will visit Middleboro and will then swarm upon Whitewater, arriving there at 4:30 o'clock, where the Franklin township reinforcements will join the party headed by the White-water band. The next stop will be Fountain City, where good roads enthusiasts will be again reinforced by a large delegation of New Garden township boosters, headed by the Fountain City drum corps.

Fountain City will be reached about 5 o'clock. Williamsburg will be invaded about 5:30 o'clock where a small army of Green township recruits will join the ranks for a drive upon Economy. There more recruits will be enlisted and the invasion of Hagerstown by way of Dalton will be launched. About the time this division of boosters will sweep into Hagerstown another division, organized in Centerville and recruited from enthusiasts in Abington, Canter, Harrison and Clay townships, will invade Hagerstown from the south.

Dr. I. S. Harold, prime mover in the big county-wide good roads celebration July 5, today issued a statement reminding farmers to prepare their wheat specimens for the township and county exhibits at Centerville next Monday.

POLICE UNDERSTAND HOW TURKS SURVIVE DARDANELLES FIGHT

Crack on Head With Hatchet
Fails to Kill Jim George, Victim of Mysterious Assault.

Richmond police now have an inkling why the Allies are experiencing so much difficulty in exterminating the Turks along the Dardanelles.

One subject of the Sultan, going by the name of Jim George and living at a boarding house at 714 North Thirteenth street was smitten on the top of his head some time yesterday with the blunt part of a hatchet by an unknown fellow countryman and was removed several hours later, about 6 o'clock last evening, to Reid hospital, in an unconscious condition and apparently dying.

Today the hospital authorities announced that Jim George's condition was not serious and that he was feeling quite well.

"Judging from the condition of the wound the smack that Turk got over the head, was powerful enough to fracture a mule's skull," one of the police officers said today.

Mystery Clouds Deed.

Circumstances in connection with the murderous attack on George are veiled in mystery. He was found in his bed unconscious about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon by two fellow boarders when they returned from work. His money and other valuables were not molested but his room was in great disorder, indicating a struggle before he was knocked out with the hatchet blow. The apple of Jim's eye, his photograph, had been knocked off its stand and several records were broken.

Chief Goodwin and Prosecutor Reller tried to get some accurate information on the case today. From the little information obtainable the arrest of Mehmet Mustife and Sam Bell, both Turks, living at the home of Mike Charles, another Turk, 1018 North G. street, resulted. A Turk who assisted the police in unraveling the case said that a neighbor saw Sam Bell and two other men, run out of the house at 714 North Thirteenth street last yesterday afternoon.

George was conscious a short time last night, after his removal to the hospital, and he said that he "saw Bell." He did not state who attacked him, however, but the police have some evidence showing that Mustife knocked George down with his fist and Bell hit him with the hatchet. The motive of the attack has not been ascertained.

DISMISSES SUIT.

The recent compromise of the suit of Harry Aiken against the Pennsylvania railroad for $5,000 damages, brought about the dismissal of the suit from circuit court today at Licken's expense.

EXPERTS CLAIM HARRY K. THAW IS SANE MAN

NEW YORK, June 29.—That Harry K. Thaw was never insane at the time he killed Stanford White or before or after the act, was the declaration today of Dr. Charles P. Bancroft, superintendent of the New Hampshire hospital for the insane. Dr. Bancroft was a member of the New Hampshire commission that declared Thaw sane after his escape from Matteawan and is the chief expert alienist aiding Thaw in the present sanity hearing.

That Thaw expressed regret for his crime, said Bancroft, was the chief evidence that he was not insane at the time. A paranoiac always believes his act justifiable. The expert swore that Thaw's act was that of a man actuated by a real report than by a delusion. Finds Him Sane.

"The New Hampshire commission," said Dr. Bancroft, "found no evidence whatever of a paranoiac. It appeared from the evidence that the evidence that the killing was not due to an illusion or hallucination, but rather to an actual report. We found no evidence that Thaw was insane. A paranoiac never expresses regret for his act as Thaw did to me. He said the moment Stanford White lay dead before him he knew the deed was wrong and regretted the killing. A paranoiac always believes his acts of violence are justifiable."

WESTCOTT CAR FIRM BEGINS ADVERTISING

The creation and maintenance for the Westcott Motor Car Co. of an advertising bureau, extensive in its scope and entailing the expenditure of a considerable fund of money has been begun through the acceptance of the services of Mr. F. Tracy Ross as advertising manager.

The company's officials several weeks ago decided to inaugurate a nationwide advertising campaign having as its object the placing of the Westcott Motor Car upon the highest plane of automobile quality and efficiency. In reaching this decision, the officials had in mind the appropriating of a vast sum of money for this purpose.

The 1916 model of the Westcott car will be on the market within the next few weeks and no detail known in the advertising business will be lacking to make this car an undisputed leader in the automobile industry.

Mr. Ross has been connected with an international advertising bureau with headquarters in Rochester, New York, and has had much experience in this field. He was selected from more than two hundred persons who made inquiries regarding the opening. Mr. Ross began his duties at the office of the factory Monday.

Three dollars a pound was the price of tea when it was first introduced into England.

LACK OF FUNDS CHECKS INDUSTRIAL SURVEY

Whether an industrial survey of Richmond as a guide in shaping vocational courses in schools is worth the $1,500 it probably would cost, and where the money should properly come from, is a question the public education committee of the Commercial club will have before it this week.

The committee will hold its meeting at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. It is understood the sentiment of the members is for the industrial survey, but the lack of funds with which to make it, is the chief obstacle which the members will endeavor to overcome.

The survey is offered by Indiana university. The tabulation of the results probably will cost $600. This includes figures showing the percentage of each kind of skilled and unskilled labor employed in the city, the supply of labor on hand and many other points.

There is a movement on foot to ask the school board to stand part of the expense, equal to the salary of a good teacher for one year. Secretary Haas said today some of the members are opposed to raising any of the money by popular subscription.

Other committees which will be active this week are the public health and public committees. The public health committee opened a meeting at 4 o'clock this afternoon with Dr. Parry who is making a government health survey of the city. The meeting's purpose is a discussion of what has been accomplished since the survey started. The publicity committee will meet Friday night with the public health, public welfare committees and the Central bureau governing board to make arrangements for the appointment of committees to plan the entertainment of the Indiana State Conference of Charities and Correction in October.

VAUGHAN WANTS OIL FOR PARK DRIVEWAYS

Walter Vaughan, a resident of North Tenth street, called upon President Davis of the board of works today and urged that the driveway in Glen Miller park be oiled.

"Then there would be a row," remarked Building Inspector Hodgkin. "There are no walks in the park and people would be getting their clothes covered with oil, and that would mean trouble for the city. The city has just had to pay a woman because she sat down on a freshly painted bench and ruined her dress."

"Let the people walk on the grass until the oil on the driveways has dried," Vaughan replied.

Vaughan stated that he had noticed while in Cincinnati and Muncie that all park driveways had been oiled. "If they can do it in those places they can do it in Richmond," he said.

President Davis considered favorably a suggestion of oiling one park driveway at a time, closing it to traffic until the oil had dried.

FOREIGN PEACE CLUB ORGANIZES IN COUNTY

Neutrality armed with good fellowship is the policy adopted by many Italians and Hungarians of the city, who reached this state without the aid of diplomatic notes or cabinet resignations. Today articles of association of the "Richmond Hungarian and Italian club of Richmond, Indiana, United States of America," were recorded in this county.

One section of the articles reads: "That the objects and purposes of this corporation shall be for all social and mutual benefits of its members to promote good citizenship among the Hungarian and Italians to associate themselves together in general social entertainment and do all things which are incidental for the purpose here contained."

The five directors represent the two nationalities from which the club's name was taken. They are Ambrus Bandura, Raymond Paxton, Thomas Bandura, Lewis Ference and John Paradeso. It is understood the membership books will not be restricted to Italians and Hungarians. The club will be called "The Hungarian-Italian Club," and will have rooms on North Fourteenth street near G.

SECRET SERVICE MEN GUARDING HUERTA AGENTS

Old Dictator Denies Discussing New Revolt With Old Federal Agents Meeting at El Paso.

MANY ARMIES BOUGHT

EL PASO, June 29.—Although he persistently denies that his presence upon the Mexican border has any political significance, Gen. Huerta who is charged with conspiring to violate the neutrality laws, conferred with many former Mexican federalists and federal sympathizers today.

"Only friendly calls," exclaimed General Huerta, "but I want to repeat that I have no intentions of violating American neutrality. I am tired of fighting and revolution. I love peace."

In addition to his visitors, Gen. Huerta also received many telegrams, some of them which were in code. It is charged by representatives of Gen. Villa and Gen. Carranza that Orozco has been busy for some time recruiting idle Mexicans and sending them across the border in small parties. Orozco is also said to have purchased large quantities of arms, ammunition and other war supplies which are stored in warehouses. This information is said to be in the possession of United States secret service men who are here keeping close watch upon the agents of the numerous Mexican political parties.

Among the recent arrivals here are some of the members of the Cientifico party, followers of Gen. Diaz who fled to this country when Diaz was overthrown by General Madero. All apparently are wealthy, registering at the best hotels. They refuse to talk. United States secret service agents are not at all satisfied with the assurance of Huerta that he will make no effort to jump the $15,000 bond. They shadow him and Orozco wherever they go, and even follow them upon motorcycles when the Mexicans go out for an automobile ride, causing Gen. Huerta to make complaint to the federal officers.

CARNIVAL EXHIBITS TO CROWD OF 1,000

Approximately one thousand people attended the opening of the Mangrove United Shows, which last night began a week's engagement here on the ground adjoining the Doran bridge.

All of the thirteen shows which comprise the carnival were not opened last night because of the delay in reaching this city from Troy, Ohio. The management says that all of the acts will be given tonight, however.

One of the features of the opening of the carnival last night was a free exhibition of trapeze acting by Mr. and Mrs. Geyer. The spectators were loud in their applause throughout the performance. Both actors are former Richmond residents and Mr. Geyer is a son of Ed. Geyer, who has long been associated with theatrical business.

A parade was given this afternoon including the two bands which accompany the shows.
