With the program practically completed, arrangements for the most part are in readiness for the opening of the fifty-ninth annual convention of the colored Grand Lodge, F. & A. M. of the state of Indiana, which convenes in Richmond next Monday, Aug. 16, and lasts until Thursday night, under the auspices of Quinn Lodge of this city.

While the exact number of Masons who will attend the convention cannot be estimated, it is expected that the number present will exceed five hundred.

The Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons will convene on Monday and the Grand Commandery of Knight Templars will convene on the following day. There will be receptions each evening to the two different organizations.

On Wednesday evening, the members of the two lodges will assemble in the A. M. E. church to open the convention formally. Squire Frank T. Strayer will deliver the principal address on "Virtues of Masonry." Mayor Robbins will make the welcoming address and will be given a response by J. W. Williams of Indianapolis, a high officer of the lodge. The welcome address on behalf of the local lodge will be delivered by W. B. Arnold. D. W. Caine will make the response.

Thursday, which is designated as "Gala Day" will open with a parade, followed by a picnic, ball game and exhibition drill by the Knights Templars at Athletic Park. A prize of $125 will be given for the team winning the grand prize drill of the Knight Templars which will be held in the evening at the Coliseum. A promenade and ball will follow the exhibitions drill.

CATTLE DISEASE HITS ILLINOIS COUNTIES

Although an outbreak of the hoof and mouth disease has been reported in states adjacent to Indiana, Dr. Wagner, local federal inspector, does not believe the disease will hit Wayne county.

Government quarantine was ordered in six Illinois counties, one Minnesota, one Michigan county, and in Posey county, this state. By quick action the cases were isolated, and the spread of the disease through an affected serum was curtailed.

Invents New Wireless Apparatus

PROFESSOR SHEPARD AND SOME OF HIS WIRELESS APPARATUS.

At the left is Professor B. K. Shepard and his little wireless control box. In the center a small boat which he steers by wireless, and at the right, a part of the mechanism worked by the wireless.

Professor B. K. Shepard, a member of the faculty of Tufts College has invented a new wireless apparatus which he now uses to steer a seven foot boat, an auto, fire a cannon, blow horns, ring bells and perform other remarkable feats. In Professor Shepard's apparatus there is no ground wire as in the Hammond invention. He is now working on a wireless submarine destroyer. An advantage of this invention is that in case the torpedo misses its mark, it can be steered back to the sender and used again.

Chautauqua Notes

Advance Information About Program and Speakers of 1915 Assembly.

The Cathedral choir, mention of which was made yesterday, is the largest strictly vocal organization doing chautauqua work. The choir consists of nine people—a double mixed quartet and accompanist—and is presented not only as a company of artists to entertain but as a suggestion of a choir ideal. Each member is a trained church singer with lyceum and chautauqua experience, but the bringing together such a company whose voices harmonize and blend properly, has been a big task. Their repertoire includes a number of oratorios by the most famous composers of sacred music one of which will be rendered at each performance. The choir will also be heard in a number of secular solos, duets, quartets and choruses, as well as some of the well known operas.

In marked contrast to, and immediately following, the Cathedral choir, will come the Suwanee River quartet under the direction of John Gantt, who has been proclaimed "the greatest colored basso in the United States." Their jubilee work, southern songs and plantation melodies are inimitable and they will no doubt please all who admire the class of music made famous by our colored friends.

Quartet to Come.
The second week of chautauqua will be remembered for its especially fine music and will be ushered in by the Music Makers, the only white male quartet that will be on the program this season, and they can be with us but one day. The quartet is exceptionally fine and what will be lacking in quantity, because of their short stay with us, will be made up for in quality. Be sure to hear them Sunday August 22.

Following the Music Makers will be the C. Edward Clarke Concert company, who also can be here but one day, enroute from Chicago to West Virginia, but their evening program will be one of the really artistic treats of the assembly. Were it not for this company being fully able to fill the date enroute their price would almost prohibit securing them at all.

And then comes the incomparable and inimitable Schumann Quintette, led by Karl Lampert, formerly first violinist of the Theodore Thomas orchestra and famed on two continents for his playing and musical lectures. The Schumanns do not sing, nor do they play rag-time, but they present a program of high grade compositions from the old masters and present it in such a way that one never tires and their programs are a delight and inspiration. Mr. Lampert's talks on how certain compositions were written, with sometimes a biographical sketch of the composer, prepares the audience as in no other way to receive the selection when rendered.

DANGER!

Use Nothing for Corns But GETS-IT.

GETS-IT—That's It.
Note how the name is spelled, G-E-T-S-I-T, and say no to anything offered you with a name made up to sound like "GETS-IT." There is only one "GETS-IT." Get it and nothing else.

All good druggists know the wonderful results of "GETS-IT," the world's greatest corn-cure. They wouldn't try to sell you something else. Every drug store in the land sells "GETS-IT," the first and only corn cure ever known that removes any and every corn or callus without fail, without thick bandages, toe harnesses, corn-swelling salves, irritating ointments. Applied in a few seconds, the corn loosens, your corn agony ends and quickly the corn leaves. The limping, the pains that dart to your heart, the crucifixion of having to wear shoes over screaming corns, the danger of blood poison from making them bleed by using knives, razors and scissors—are gone at last! "GETS-IT" is the new, the sure, the simple, painless way. Don't let anybody argue you out of it—get "GETS-IT." Avoid useless substitutes. "GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Richmond and recommended as the world's best corn cure by A. G. Luken & Co.—Adv.

"Some Foxy Trot, M'amselle, What? Corns? Go on? Yes, I use 'GETS-IT'."

MISER MILLIONAIRE SUCCUMBS OWNING COLOSSAL FORTUNE

MADRID, Aug. 13.—One of the most amazing stories of a miser millionaire has been unfolded here by the death of a citizen of Madrid, who recently died at the age of 60. Although he and his wife went about the streets in rags, the man Romagosa, left behind him the enormous fortune of $33,650,000. He was thus one of the richest, if not the richest, man in Spain. His eccentricities caused him to be counted as the poorest of the poor. His fortune was considerably greater than that of the Duchess of Cevillano and that of the Count de Romanones, the Spanish ex-premier, put together.

How he evaded the vigilance of the curious will never be known, for when he lived in Paris he lived as a grandee, renting a superb mansion in Champs Elysees, which he eventually purchased for the vast sum of 2,200,000.

The old man's will is almost as extraordinary as his course of living.

He had vast sums of money invested in banks, bonds, estates in Spain, France, C. ba. Argentina, Chili, as well as deposits at the bank of Bank of France, London and several Spanish banks. Yet he practically ignored his wife and mother, who lived with him.
