

BELIEVE ALLIES GRANT DEMAND OF BULGARIANS

Many Sources Assert, However That German Diplomacy Wins Temporary Victory in Balkan Affair.

LAUSANNE, Aug. 16.—That the entente powers have granted Bulgaria's demand in order to gain that country's aid, is the belief in Sofia, according to a dispatch from the Bulgarian capital to the German Journal. "The note of the quadruple entente is kept secret, but it is believed the demands of the Bulgarian government are granted," says the dispatch.

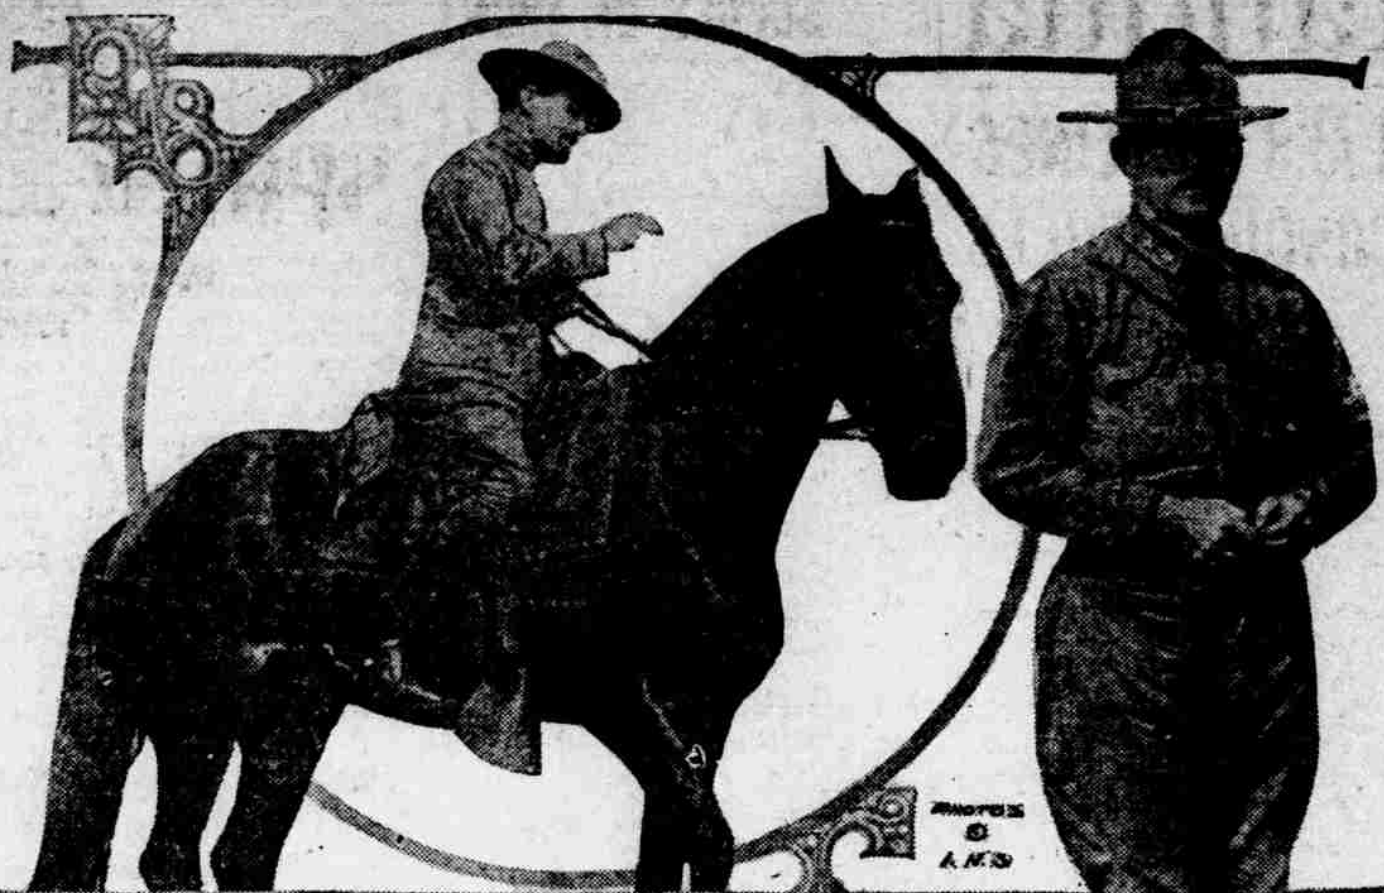

A dispatch received in London Saturday, stated that the British foreign secretary was sending important dispatches to the English envoy at Sofia.

Although high hopes are expressed that Bulgaria and Greece will be lined up with the powers of the triple entente, there is an undercurrent of pessimism here, and there is a feeling in many quarters that German diplomacy has won at last a temporary victory in the Balkan negotiations.

Firm in Demands.
Bulgaria is standing firm upon her demands to Greece and Serbia that territory in Macedonia be ceded to her. Bulgaria has never acquiesced completely in the retention of Salonika by Greece, and she feels that she was wrongfully deprived of a considerable extent of territory by the treaty of 1913. Bulgarian statesmen charge that they were tricked into ceding territory to Roumania at the time of the second Balkan war. In addition to all these influences Bulgaria is angry at Russia for the aid she gave Serbia and Roumania at the time of the second Balkan war.

A Bulgarian envoy, who has been in Constantinople upon a diplomatic mission, has been recalled to Sofia, but there are no circumstances attending the incident to warrant the belief that the Bulgar-Turkish negotiations have been broken off.

Scene at Military Encampment

These photographs were taken at Camp Whitman, near Pishkill, N. Y., where a brigade of the State's National Guardsmen have been having extensive manoeuvres. This is the biggest of the state militia encampments of the summer.

The picture below shows the militia field bakery at work turning out three thousand loaves of bread a day. The mounted man is Lieutenant Colonel Cornelius Vanderbilt, and efficient staff officer, while the other figure is Major General John F. O'Ryan, the commander of the division which New York's citizen-soldiers make up, and which would become part and parcel with the regular army in time of war.

REPORT OF SCHOOL EXPENSES FOR YEAR FILED WITH COUNTY

Richmond city teachers receive approximately an average monthly salary of $80. There are 130 teachers in the city and $103,195.81 was paid for salaries during the last year. Based on this estimate, which is indefinite in that it excludes the night school teachers and the teachers of summer schools, the 130 teachers receive an average of $66.15 for each of the twelve months in the year. Considering that they are employed only for ten months of the year, the average monthly salary is about $80.

These figures and a complete itemized account of receipts and expenditures for the year ending July 31, has been filed with County Auditor Bowman and County School Superintendent Williams by the Richmond school board.

FRENCH MAIMED TAUGHT TRADES FAR FROM FRONT

PARIS, Aug. 16.—All sorts of practical schemes are being developed in France for the assistance of soldiers blinded and mutilated on the battle field or in the trenches.

M. Brissac, the director of public health, has started the movement and he is being ably assisted by coadjutors and the enthusiasm of women eager to be useful in succoring those who have been placed hors de combat by the war.

"The idea is to give the men," said M. Brissac, "a new interest in life. First, they are taught the Braille alphabet. Then they learn how to make brushes and sticks, straw-plaiting and basket-work. A new departure is lessons in massage taught by a trained professor, and some of them are learning to set up the wheels of automobiles."

Among others, M. Vallery-Radot has formed a society known as "Friends of the Blind Soldiers," which teaches victims to follow the trade or profession they have learned, and to find a home for themselves. Abbe Moreau, an ardent priest in the southwestern district of France, has succeeded in establishing several of his workers in their own homes. M. Heriot, the mayor of Lyons, has inaugurated a home for mutilated soldiers and has now some 700 men at St. Maurice, who are getting into shape in schools and workshops in the convalescent homes he has started.

The production of gold in Australia has declined steadily since 1893, the output last year being 156,160 ounces less than the year before.

In Fashion's Realm

There is not a day that passes that does not offer some new trick in the world of fashion, and here, this Vain Goddess offers the latest novelty accessory. It is the bracelet bouquet holder. To be sure, a treasure for the woman with round dimpled arms, for it is a snake, with a jeweled head, in Roman gold. The bouquet of delicate colored sweet peas with metal covered stems is held firmly in place by the armlet which is not too snug. This is sure to be a popular novelty, for having one's bouquet on the arm protects it from being crushed, or discoloring the bodice of one's gown, as so often happens. Aside from these practical reasons, it ought to be popular for the mere fact that it gives a coquettish, saucy finishing touch to one's outfit.

FINDS KNIFE USED TO MURDER WOMAN

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 16.—The finding of the knife with which Cora Logan was killed some time during last week, at her home, three miles south of the city on the Olive street road, was the principal development in the city's latest murder mystery today.

Early Sunday morning a careful investigation of the roadhouse in which the Logan woman met her death was made by Detective Sergeant Barnhardt, Detective Diver and Coroner Swantz. On the table in the kitchen, in the rear of the first floor, the fatal knife was found, still covered with the life blood of the dead woman. It was a wicked looking butcher knife, used in the kitchen to prepare the meals for the Logan woman and her friends.

$34,000,000 In Gold On One Train

UNLOADING GOLD FROM TRAIN.

The largest shipment of gold in the history of this country, $34,000,000 in gold coin, and $21,000,000 in securities, is now safe in the U. S. sub treasury in Wall street. The gold was shipped to the firm of J. P. Morgan and company to bolster low prices in sterling exchange, from England. A battle cruiser brought it across the Atlantic to Halifax, from which point it was transferred to New York in a special train of seven steel cars. The gold was in 700 boxes, each weighing 200 pounds apiece. Twenty-five enclosed auto trucks, heavily guarded, were used to transport the gold from the railway station to the sub-treasury.
