EASTHAVENS LOSE OUT TO VIGRANS BY 6 TO 4

Leaders in S. A. L. Keep the Same Standing When Results of Last Saturday's Games Come In.

Hensler Given Poor Support and Vigran's Team Romp Home With Big End of Score.

S. A. L. STANDING

	W.	L.	Pct.
Vigrans	12	2	.857
Natco	12	2	.857
A. S. M.	8	7	.533
Ad Hill	7	7	.500
Easthaven	2	12	.143
Den-Worth	2	13	.133

Saturday Results.

Vigran, 6; Easthaven, 4.
Natco, 15; Ad-Hill, 4.
D. & W., 5; A. S. M., 6.

The standing of the clubs in the Saturday afternoon league, so far as the leaders go, remains unchanged. Both the Vigrans and Natcos won their games Saturday and they are still tied for first place.

Vigran trimmed Easthaven 6-4, and Natco took Ad-Hill into camp, 15-4.

By defeating D. & W., the A. S. M. jumped into third place.

There are but a few games left to play and it looks as though the Vigran and Natco teams will have to meet on September 11 and fight it out for first place.

If it is necessary to play this game it will come off at Athletic park.

VIGRAN-EASTHAVEN.

Vigrans trimmed Easthaven in a rather listless game Saturday at Easthaven, 6-4, before a crowd of over three hundred.

It was an ideal day for the heavens and the three men who occupied the mound were all in good form and pitched excellent ball.

Hensler should have won his game and deserved to, but the men behind him gave him rotten support and he never had a chance.

Errors were responsible for five of the six runs scored by the "Vags," and they earned but one of their tallies. Easthaven did not earn any of theirs.

Vigrans Get Lead.

In the first inning Vigran started with a lead of two. "Toad" Kelly lead off with a fly to right that was easy pickings but the mighty Sullivan made a two-base clout and promptly stole second.

Reddinghaus came across with a neat sacrifice which Hensler threw to Pottenger. The lanky first baseman juggled the heave and Sullivan scored but Reddinghaus was out. With two down Stephenson was passed and he started to steal second. Glenn threw the ball a mile over Switzer's head and "Stevie" trotted across the pan. Minner was willing but he breezed, retiring the side.

Score Again in Fourth.

Vigran scored again in the fourth. Reddinghaus fanned. Stephenson drove a pass and came across on a combination of errors by Glenn and McConaha. Glen threw wild to second trying to stop Stephenson from pilfering a sack and McConaha failed to handle Minner's grounder, letting the catcher add one and leaving Minner perched safely on first. Williams skied to Pottenger and Geyer sent a soft one to Hensler.

After Hawekotte died in the fifth, brother Russ hit one to a vacant spot for a bingle and advanced on Kelly's hit to Switzer. Sullivan received a bad crack in the ribs and when Long failed to handle Glenn's throw in an attempt to stop his steal, Sullivan scored. Reddinghaus ended the inning with a tap to Hensler who threw him out at first.

Tally in Eighth.

Another tally was made in the eighth. Sullivan walked. Reddinghaus fanned. Stephenson cracked a hot one for a bag. Sullivan started for third and McConaha played the juggler's act and Sullivan kept going, scoring the fifth for Vigran. The Hawekotte boys were easy outs.

The sixth for foxy Sammie's nine came in the final round. Williams plugged one good for a bag. Geyer sent out a relief that advanced Williams to third and he stole second. Williams tapped the rubber for the final score on Hawekotte's fly to left. Russel struck out.

Easthaven got their first in the eighth. They made three on Pottenger's two-bagger. Reddinghaus' error and singles by McConaha and Switzer.

In the ninth Easthaven made a bid. After Conyers had flied to Williams Reddinghaus then tumbled Hensler's grounder. Pottenger popped to Minner. McConaha hit a two-bagger and Hensler's came over. Roberts went out, Reddinghaus to Stephenson.

RESERVES TAKE CLOSE CONTEST AT GREENSFORK

Hartman's Pitching Allows Opponents Only Seven Scattered Hits, While Locals Hit One Long One.

The Richmond Reserves defeated Greensfork yesterday in a close and exciting game, 4-3.

Hartman, working for the locals, pitched a fine game, allowing only seven scattered hits and striking out ten men.

The Greensfork boys could not bang the ball for more than a single when they did connect with it.

Hard hitting was not a feature the only extra base clout being Eckler's double. The score:

RAIN PREVENTS TEAMS ENDING REGULAR GAME

Rexalls and Fairview Reserves Submit Box Score for Four and a Half Innings Played.

Yesterday the Rexalls and Fairview Reserves played four and a half innings at Ratliff park, in a drizzling rain, when the umpire called the game with the score 7-2 in favor of the Reserves. This does not constitute a victory for the Reserves, as the rules provide that five full innings must be played before the game can be counted.

Manager Bowman of the Rexalls said this morning that the Rexalls would have defeated the Reserves had the game gone the full six innings, but Manager White is sure his team would have won with the lead it had if the game had gone the legal limit.

WEATHER ALLOWING LEADERS WILL PLAY

Weather permitting, the Bankers and Penny will play tonight at Athletic park.

Penny is now leading the Commercial league but if the Bankers win this game they will jump into first place.

Manager Todd will use his strongest team with Elstro in the box and he declares there is nothing to it. The Bankers can be depended upon to put out the strongest line-up they can get together for if their rivals win it will give them a commanding lead in the league.

TO PLAY RESERVES.
