

HOPKINS TALKS ABOUT PRAYERS OF PAGAN RACE

Remarks by Platform Manager and Concert of White Hussars Bring Chautauqua to Close.

Rev. W. E. Hopkins of Newark, O., had charge of the services at Chautauqua yesterday morning. He spoke at length, taking for his sermon "The Potter's Wheel," and showed how little faults would spoil a person's life.

The Sunday school was well attended, and there was a large number of visitors.

In the evening Mr. Hopkins lectured on the subject of prayer. He compared the prayers of Christians with those of the pagans. The lecture was an interesting one and was illustrated with different prayer symbols used by heathens in India.

Symbols Brought Back.

Mr. Hopkins showed symbols that he had brought from India. One of them was a prayer wheel into which the prayers are placed, and then the wheel is revolved by swinging it in the air. At every revolution it makes it is supposed that a prayer is registered for the devotee. Some of these prayer wheels are eight feet high and three feet around. The prayers are put in them and the wheel is revolved by a crank. By paying the man who turns it many prayers can be said in a short time.

Other devotees tie pages together on which prayers have been written in trees, and at every movement of them by the wind it is supposed that a prayer is said. Another device used by the Hindus is a prayer shawl. This is covered with a hundred prayers, and they are being said in the wearer's favor. It is believed all the time he has the shawl around his shoulders.

Mr. Hopkins said that the rosary was first used by the people of India, and he exhibited one made of wood. The Indians, the speaker declared, had used these rosaries hundreds of years before Christ was born. A rosary bracelet made of dry nuts was shown, and also a prayer bag.

The White Hussars gave scenes depicting the life of Christ, and the 1915 Chautauqua came to a most successful conclusion.

A telephone call from the post office the other day made Manager Tregown of the jitney bazaar quite excited. Some one phoned that there was a package there for him that had come by parcel post and suggested that it might be his Ford. Cruel.

TENABLE GROUNDS.

Here is the German position as we see it.

Germany did not sink the Arabic. If Germany did sink the Arabic it was a mistake.

The Arabic was sunk by an internal explosion.

The Arabic was not sunk.

There never was an Arabic, anyhow.

LAURANT MYSTIFIES CHAUTAUQUA CROWD

Although handicapped by the inadequate stage facilities, Eugene Laulant, magician, proved to the largest crowd of the season at the Chautauqua Saturday evening, that he is the best entertainer of his kind on the Chautauqua platform today. He is easily the cleverest magician that has ever been seen in Richmond.

He was recently made master of the society of American Magicians and was presented with a medal in recognition of his leadership in this line. The feature of his entertainment was the way in which he mixed his works of magic and illusion with entertaining conversation. A large number of his acts were never seen before in this city.

The White Hussars, singing band, gave an excellent program at 7 o'clock Saturday evening. They appeared in informal costume and their program consisted of band selections, vocal solos and double quartet numbers.

J. T. Giles, superintendent of the city schools, as chairman of the sub-committee appointed by Louis Bowman to consider plans for Richmond's centennial celebration next year, has issued a call to the members of the committee to meet at four o'clock in his office in the high school building. The original committee of fifteen members, of which Mr. Bowman is chairman, was appointed by Mayor Robert W. Johnson.

The members of the sub-committee are Lee Nusbaum, E. H. Harris, Mrs. E. E. McDivitt, Rev. Frank A. Roell and Mr. Giles. At the meeting this afternoon, the committee will entertain ideas and suggestions pertaining to the centennial celebration and later make a report on the results of the discussion to the original committee.

WELSH MINERS MEET MEMBERS OF CABINET

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Coal operators and miners today met Minister of Munitions Lloyd-George and President Runciman, of the board of trade, in the most important conference ever held by representatives of labor, capital and government.

While the immediate issue before the conference was the demand of the miners for more concessions than were granted in the recent decision of President Runciman, the meeting was in reality to determine whether the British government should in the future have the complete support of the miners' federation—support rendered necessary by the ever-increasing demand for more ammunition.

Leaders of the South Wales coal miners announced today that a general strike affecting every colliery would be called unless an agreement was reached by Tuesday at the London conference and the men granted more concessions. Such a strike call would take out 300,000 men, they asserted.

DUNING IS NAMED

At a meeting held yesterday at the old engine house, South 6th and E streets, by the Maennerchor, Militare Vereine and South Side Improvement association, to discuss ways and means of furthering the Red Cross Relief work, it was decided that the committee already appointed be empowered to canvass the local churches and name others to assist them in the work. William Dunning was named as delegate to the state convention of the German Alliance, to be held at Fort Wayne, next Sunday, with Hans Koll as alternate.

SHADES OF WINTER!

Overcoats were not an uncommon sight on the streets this morning and some women were seen with furs. A number of people are confident that there was a flurry of snow around eight o'clock, but what they took to be snow was really a heavy mist.
